Larousse Dictionary of Painters ,1989 Larousse Dictionary of Painters Larousse (Firm), 1981 More than 550 entries each illustrated by at least one example of the artist s work giving an account of his life a critical assessment of his achievement and details of where his paintings are found The Dada Painters and Poets Robert Motherwell, 1989 Presents a collection of essays manifestos and illustrations that provide an overview of the Dada movement in art describing its convictions antics and spirit through the words and art of its principal practitioners Biographical Index of Artists in Canada Evelyn de Rostaing McMann, 2003-01-01 This index has been compiled as a guick reference guide to biographies of 9 052 professional and amateur artists active in Canada from the seventeenth century to the present The artists represent 42 professional categories from animation to topography In addition to 8 261 Canadian artists the Index has 391 British 300 American and 100 European artists all of whom spent part of their careers in Canada Each entry provides the artist s name date and place of birth and death or years the artist flourished if birth and death dates are not available the nationality if not Canadian type of artist major medium media used and sources in which biographical information may be found Several hundred cross references link the various names used by some artists during the course of their careers Artists: Bülow - Cossin Emmanuel Bénézit, 2006 First English language edition of Emmanuel B n zit s Dictionnaire critique et documentaire des peintres sculpteurs dessinateurs et graveurs based on the 14 volume French edition published in 1999 It British Miniature Painters and Their Works Joshua James has been revised adapted and updated Preface A Brief History of Painting Roy Bolton, 2013-06-13 The urge to create pictures of our world has been with us Foster, 1898 ever since early man daubed a fingerful of pigment on a rock or used primitive colours to create exquisite images of the beasts he hunted images so breathtakingly powerful they have never been surpassed however sophisticated we have become This book tells the story of what painting has meant to us and how its role has changed over the centuries In the crisp unstuffy commentary on each of 150 landmark works Christie's art expert Roy Bolton leads us through the development of painting until our own age where painting as a painterly craft has been overtaken by a proliferation of new forms introduced by contemporary art To the question Is the death of painting upon us the introductory chapter by Matthew Collings the multi award winning TV art presenter art historian and cultural critic gives an inspiring answer Painting justifies itself Rather than pathetically struggling to keep up with the new freak show culture of videos and installations painting will only be worth having if it reconnects with its own inner life where the old and the new are the same Roy Bolton's selection takes us from the Ancient World via the Italian Renaissance Rococo and Classicism to Impressionism Modernism and the Contemporary World Each painting with its context and artist is explained in terms designed to encourage us to judge art for ourselves Written with authority and full of original and helpful insights this is a history of art for our times While I find it interesting to think about all sorts of art I prefer painting to any of it Painting is soulful important serious and humane Matthew Collings

We need to de mystify art by stripping it down to its bare essentials then rebuilding it ourselves using our own minds and eyes without all the pompous clutter Roy Bolton Painting with Monet Harmon Siegel, 2024-04-16 A major reassessment of the methods and meaning of impressionism At pivotal moments in his career Claude Monet would go out with a fellow artist plant his easel beside his friend s and paint the same scene Painting with Monet closely examines pairs of such works showing how attention to this practice raises tantalizing new questions about Monet's art and about impressionism as a movement Is impressionist painting an objective attempt to capture reality as it really is Or is it a subjective expression of the artist's unique way of perceiving things How can artists create a movement without conformity extinguishing individuality Harmon Siegel reveals how Monet explored problems like these in concrete practical ways while painting alongside his teachers Eug ne Boudin and Johan Barthold Jongkind his friends Fr d ric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir and his hero douard Manet At a time of major cultural upheavals these artists asked how we can know reality beyond our personal perception Siegel provides new insights into the aesthetic philosophical and ethical stakes for these painters as they responded to a rapidly changing society Beautifully illustrated Painting with Monet sheds critical light on how Monet and his fellow impressionists painting side by side professed their capacity to know the world and affirmed their belief in what Siegel calls the reality of others The History of Western Painting Virginia Forte, 2015-07-15 Just as the great artists of history illustrated the eras in which they lived this comprehensive guide paints for today's reader a picture of the history of painting from its earliest manifestations through the present day Covering such formative moments as early Christian iconography the High Renaissance in Italy and later developments in style under such movements as the Barogue Romanticism and Modernism this authoritative guide brings to life the techniques and styles of painters throughout the ages ARBA Guide to Biographical Dictionaries Bohdan S.
