Nocturne James Attlee, 2011-02-15 Nobody who has not taken one can imagine the beauty of a walk through Rome by full moon wrote Goethe in 1787 Sadly the imagination is all we have today in Rome as in every other modern city moonlight has been banished replaced by the twenty four hour glow of streetlights in a world that never sleeps Moonlight for most of us is no more So James Attlee set out to find it Nocturne is the record of that journey a traveler s tale that takes readers on a dazzling nighttime trek that ranges across continents from prehistory to the present and through both the physical world and the realms of art and literature Attlee attends a Buddhist full moon ceremony in Japan meets a moon jellyfish on a beach in Northern France takes a moonlit hike in the Arizona desert and experiences a lunar eclipse on New Year s Eve atop the snowbound Welsh hills Each locale is illuminated not just by the moonlight he seeks but by the culture and history that define it We learn about Mussolini s pathological fear of moonlight trace the connections between Caspar David Friedrich Rudolf Hess and the Apollo space mission and meet the inventors of the Moonlight Collector in the American desert who aim to cure all kinds of ailments with concentrated lunar rays Svevo and Blake Whistler and Hokusai Li Po and Marinetti are all enlisted as foils friends or fellow travelers on Attlee s journey Pulled by the moon like the tide Attlee is firmly in a tradition of wandering pilgrims that stretches from Basho to Sebald like them he presents our familiar world anew
