Sorensen, 2011-12-01 The Republic of Korea achieved a double revolution in the second half of the twentieth century In just over three decades South Korea transformed itself from an underdeveloped agrarian country into an affluent industrialized one At the same time democracy replaced a long series of military authoritarian regimes These historic changes began under President Park Chung Hee who seized power through a military coup in 1961 and ruled South Korea until his assassination on October 26 1979 While the state's dominant role in South Korea's rapid industrialization is widely accepted the degree to which Park was personally responsible for changing the national character remains hotly debated This book examines the rationale and ideals behind Park's philosophy of national development in order to evaluate the degree to which the national character and moral values were reconstructed

Park Chung Hee and Modern Korea Carter J. Eckert, 2016-11-07 This first volume in a two part study examines the origins of South Korean authoritarianism as personified by the militant political leader For South Koreans the twenty years from the early 1960s to late 1970s were the best and worst of times a period of unprecedented economic growth and of political oppression that deepened as prosperity spread In this masterly account Carter J Eckert finds the roots of South Korea's dramatic socioeconomic transformation in the country's long history of militarization a history personified in South Korea's paramount leader Park Chung Hee In Park Chung Hee and Modern Korea Eckert reveals how the foundations of Park's leadership were established during the period of Japanese occupation As a cadet in the Manchurian Military Academy Park and his fellow officers absorbed the Imperial Japanese Army's ethos of victory at all costs and absolute obedience to authority When Park seized power in 1961 he applied this ethos to the project of Korean modernization Korean society under Park exuded a distinctively martial character Eckert shows Its hallmarks included the belief that the army should intervene in politics in times of crisis that a central authority should manage the country's economic system and that the state should maintain a strong disciplinary presence in society reserving the right to use violence to maintain order A milestone in the literature of modern East Asia Bruce Cumings author of Korea's Place in the Sun

South Korea's 70-Year Endeavor for Foreign Policy, National Defense, and Unification Sung-Wook Nam, Sang-Woo Rhee, Myongsob Kim, Young-Ho Kim, Yong-Sub Han, Young-Soon Chung, Seong-Ok Yoo, 2018-10-16 This book brings Korea's finest foreign policy minds together in contemplating the risks and rewards of finally ending the 70 year stalemate between North and South Korea through reunification While North Korea is in conflict with the United States over denuclearization and regime security the South Korean government is focusing on economic development preparing for the day when the two Koreas are unified This
