Kukukuku Of The Upper Watut:

The Kukukuku of the Upper Watut Beatrice Blackwood, 1978      The Megalithic Culture of Melanesia Alphonse Riesenfeld, 1950      Ritualized Homosexuality in Melanesia Gilbert H. Herdt, 2023-04-28 This book contains the work of seven leading anthropologists on the subject of ritualized homosexuality and it marks the first time that anthropologists have systematically studied cross cultural variations in homosexual behavior in a non Western culture area The book as a whole indicates that contemporary theories of sex and gender development need revision in light of the Melanesian findings This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 This book contains the work of seven leading anthropologists on the subject of ritualized homosexuality and it marks the first time that anthropologists have systematically studied cross cultural variations in homosexual behavior in a non Western culture      World Archaeology at the Pitt Rivers Museum: A Characterization Dan Hicks, Alice Stevenson, 2013-03-08 World Archaeology at the Pitt Rivers Museum a characterization introduces the range history and significance of the archaeological collections of the Pitt Rivers Museum Oxford      Annotated Anga (Kukukuku) Bibliography, 1972 Over 200 references to literature about the Anga people of New Guinea Covers mostly journal articles and books published 1901 1972 in English German and French Besides Introduction entries arranged by authors under Ethnology anthropology and history Linguistics and Medicine and physical anthropology Appendix consists of census units of various linguistic groups 2 maps      Report to the Council of the League of Nations on the Administration of the Territory of New Guinea Australia. Governor-General, Australia. Prime Minister's Dept, 1929      The Collectors of Lost Souls Warwick Anderson, 2019-08-27 This riveting account of medical detective work traces the story of kuru a fatal brain disease and the pioneering scientists who spent decades searching for its cause and cure Winner William H Welch Medal American Association for the History of Medicine Winner Ludwik Fleck Prize Society for Social Studies of Science Winner General History Award New South Wales Premier s History Awards When whites first encountered the Fore people in the isolated highlands of colonial New Guinea during the 1940s and 1950s they found a people in the grip of a bizarre epidemic Women and children succumbed to muscle weakness uncontrollable tremors and lack of coordination until death inevitably supervened Facing extinction the Fore attributed their unique and terrifying affliction to a particularly malign form of sorcery In The Collectors of Lost Souls Warwick Anderson tells the story of the resilience of the Fore through this devastating plague their transformation into modern people and their compelling attraction for a throng of eccentric and adventurous scientists and anthropologists Battling competing scientists and the colonial authorities the brilliant and troubled American doctor D Carleton Gajdusek determined that the cause of the epidemic kuru was a new and mysterious agent of infection which he called a slow virus now called a prion Anthropologists and epidemiologists soon realized that the Fore practice of eating their loved ones after death had spread the slow virus Though the Fore were never convinced Gajdusek received the Nobel Prize for his discovery Now revised and updated the book includes an extensive new afterword that situates its impact within the fields of science and technology studies and the history of science Additionally the author now reflects on his long engagement with the scientists and the people afflicted describing what has happened to them since the end of kuru This astonishing story links first contact encounters in New Guinea with laboratory experiments in Bethesda Maryland sorcery with science cannibalism with compassion and slow viruses with infectious proteins reshaping our understanding of what it means to do science

Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji

The Making of Great Men Maurice Godelier, 1986-03-31 This book presents a detailed account of the lives of the Baruya a tribal society in highlands of Papua New Guinea and will interest scholars and students of anthropology

Records of the South Australian Museum, 1999 Material Culture Victor Buchli, 2004 Publisher description

Bodies and Persons Michael Lambek, Andrew Strathern, 1998-03-28 Large scale comparisons are out of fashion in anthropology but this book suggests a bold comparative approach to broad cultural differences between Africa and Melanesia Its theme is personhood which is understood in terms of what anthropologists call embodiment These concepts are applied to questions ranging from the meanings of spirit possession to the logics of witchcraft and kinship relations the use of rituals to heal the sick electric vampires and even the impact of capitalism There are detailed ethnographic analyses and suggestive comparisons of classic African and Melanesian ethnographic cases such as the Nuer and the Melpa The contributors debate alternative strategies for cross cultural comparison and demonstrate that there is a surprising range of continuities putting in question common assumptions about the huge differences between these two parts of the world

Social Exclusion and Policies of Inclusion Smita Mishra Panda, Annapurna Devi Pandey, Supriya Pattanayak, 2022-05-07 This book brings together cross cultural perspectives on political economy of social exclusion and a critical view of policies of inclusion The themes covered are political economy of social exclusion inclusionary policy outcomes persistent challenges to social exclusion and rethinking social exclusion and inclusion The contexts are located in varied geographies including India South

East Asia USA Canada Mexico Australia and Papua New Guinea The book throws light on how historically social inclusion of various excluded communities has always been a part of nation building with varying results Furthermore it highlights how the terrain of social exclusion is becoming increasingly complex today It provides the space to reimagine issues of inclusion and exclusion within the social policy landscape of a country It provides ways to rethink policies of inclusion such that dialogue between the excluded and the state is enhanced and the systems of seeking justice for a dignified life peace and freedom are improved It appeals to policy makers academicians and practitioners of development and social policy studies planning and governance in both developing and developed countries

Oceanic Encounters Margaret Jolly, Serge Tcherkézoff, Darrell Tryon, 2009-07-01 This volume the result of ongoing collaborations between Australian and French anthropologists historians and linguists explores encounters between Pacific peoples and foreigners during the longue durée of European exploration colonisation and settlement from the sixteenth century to the twentieth century It deploys the concept of encounter rather than the more common idea of first contact for several reasons Encounters with Europeans occurred in the context of extensive prior encounters and exchanges between Pacific peoples manifest in the distribution of languages and objects and in patterns of human settlement and movement The concept of encounter highlights the mutuality in such meetings of bodies and minds whereby preconceptions from both sides were brought into confrontation dialogue mutual influence and ultimately mutual transformation It stresses not so much prior visions of strangers or others but the contingencies in events of encounter and how senses other than vision were crucial in shaping reciprocal appraisals But a stress on mutual meanings and interdependent agencies in such cross cultural encounters should not occlude the tumultuous misunderstandings political contests and extreme violence which also characterised Indigenous European interactions over this period

Intimations of Infinity Jadran Mimica, 2020-08-18 This is a remarkable work which captures the reader's imagination as only few books do From a description of the counting system of Iqwaye people of Papua New Guinea the author develops a deeper and broader interpretation of the Iqwaye kinship system and cosmology culminating in a powerful critique of western assumptions about the development of rational thought

Women as Unseen Characters Pascale Bonnemere, 2004-06-29 Rituals have always been a focus of ethnographies of Melanesia providing a ground for important theorizing in anthropology This is especially true of the male initiation rituals that until recently were held in Papua New Guinea For the most part these rituals have been understood as all male institutions intended to maintain and legitimate male domination Women's exclusion from the forest space where men conducted most such rites has been taken as a sign of their exclusion from the entire ritual process Women as Unseen Characters is the first book to examine the role of females in Papua New Guinea male rituals and the first systematic treatment of this issue for any part of the world In this volume leading Melanesian scholars build on recent ethnographies that show how female kin had roles in male rituals that had previously gone unseen Female seclusion and the enforcement of taboos were crucial elements of the ritual process forms of presence in their own right Contributors here provide detailed accounts of the different kinds of female presence in various Papua New Guinea male rituals When these are restored to the picture the rituals can no longer be interpreted merely as an institution for reproducing male domination but must also be understood as a moment when the whole system of relations binding a male person to his kin is reorganized By dealing with the participation of women a totally neglected dimension of male rituals is added to our understanding Women Anthropologists Ute Gacs,1988 A wealth of information on the lives and work of 58 women whose professional activities include social cultural and physical anthropology archaeology folklore linguistics art writing and political activism Papua and New Guinea Medical Journal ,1985 Payback G. W. Trompf,1994-07-14 In this ambitious study the first monograph on religion and the logic of retribution Professor Trompf shows how various aspects of payback both negative and positive provide the best indices to an understanding of Melanesian views of life The book explores the reasons why people pay back and opens up a whole new dimension in the cross cultural study of human consciousness The author conducts his readers through the most complex anthropological pageant on earth illustrating his arguments from western New Guinea to Fiji Customary Land Tenure and Registration in Australia and Papua New Guinea James F. Weiner,Katie Glaskin,2007-06-01 The main theme of this volume is a discussion of the ways in which legal mechanisms such as the Land Groups Incorporation Act 1974 in PNG and the Native Title Act 1993 in Australia do not as they purport serve merely to identify and register already existing customary indigenous landowning groups in these countries Because the legislation is an integral part of the way in which indigenous people are defined and managed in relation to the State it serves to elicit particular responses in landowner organisation and self identification on the part of indigenous people These pieces of legislation actively contour the progressive evolution of landowner social territorial and political organisation at all levels in these nation states The contributors to this volume provide in depth anthropological case studies of social structural and cultural transformations engendered by the confrontation between states developers and indigenous communities over rights to customarily owned land
