La 2000 Sex Asylum:

'L. A. 2000' James McCrary, 2001-03-01 Queering Asylum in Europe Carmelo Danisi, Moira Dustin, Nuno Ferreira, Nina Held, 2021-08-31 This two volume open access book offers a theoretically and empirically grounded portrayal of the experiences of people claiming international protection in Europe on the basis of their sexual orientation or gender identity SOGI It shows how European asylum systems might and should treat asylum claims based on people's SOGI in a fairer more humane way Through a combined comparative interdisciplinary socio legal human rights feminist queer and intersectional approach this book examines not only the legal experiences of people claiming asylum on grounds of their SOGI but also their social experiences outside the asylum decision making framework The authors analyse how SOGI related claims are adjudicated in different European frameworks European Union Council of Europe Germany Italy and UK and offer detailed recommendations to adequately address the intersectional experiences of individuals seeking asylum This unique approach ensures that the book is of interest not only to researchers in migration and refugee studies law and wider academic communities but also to policy makers and practitioners in the field of SOGI asylum Gendering the International Asylum and Refugee Debate J. Freedman, 2015-06-23 This revised and updated 2nd edition of Freedman's hard hitting study aims to remedy the current lack of gender specific analyses of asylum and refugee issues It provides a comprehensive account of the situation of women in global forced migration and explains the ways in which women's experiences are shaped by gendered relations and structures African Asylum at a Crossroads Iris Berger, Tricia Redeker Hepner, Benjamin N. Lawrance, Joanna T. Tague, Meredith Terretta, 2015-05-15 African Asylum at a Crossroads Activism Expert Testimony and Refugee Rights examines the emerging trend of requests for expert opinions in asylum hearings or refugee status determinations This is the first book to explore the role of court based expertise in relation to African asylum cases and the first to establish a rigorous analytical framework for interpreting the effects of this new reliance on expert testimony Over the past two decades courts in Western countries and beyond have begun demanding expert reports tailored to the experience of the individual claimant As courts increasingly draw upon such testimony in their deliberations expertise in matters of asylum and refugee status is emerging as an academic area with its own standards protocols and guidelines This deeply thoughtful book explores these developments and their effects on both asylum seekers and the experts whose influence may determine their fate Contributors Iris Berger Carol Bohmer John Campbell Katherine Luongo E Ann McDougall Karen Musalo Tricia Redeker Hepner Amy Shuman Joanna T Tague Meredith Terretta and Charlotte Walker Said L.A. 2000 Buck Buchanan, 2001-04 A thorough study of prophecy comparing the Bible and the Muslim prophecies Learn how the Bible predicts exactly what will happen concerning Islam Christianity and Israel Find out how abortion is changing the population of major nations like Russia France and England See for yourself why the nations are aligning against Israel and the USA Learn how Americas debt is influencing our political alliances around the world I will show you how the Antichrist will use oil revenue to build his empire Bad Moon Rising will explain how the antichrist will come and what he will do until Jesus comes

Gender, Violence, Refugees Susanne Buckley-Zistel, Ulrike Krause, 2017-08-01 Providing nuanced accounts of how the social identities of men and women in the context of displacement and the experience or manifestation of violence interact this collection offers conceptual analyses and in depth case studies to illustrate how gender relations are affected by displacement encampment and return The essays show how these factors lead to various forms of direct indirect and structural violence This ranges from discussions of norms reflected in policy documents and practise the relationship between relief structures and living conditions in camps to forced military recruitment and forced return and covers countries in Africa Asia and Europe

Selling Sex in the City: A Global History of Prostitution, 1600s-2000s, 2017-08-28 Selling Sex in the City offers a worldwide analysis of prostitution since 1600 It analyses more than 20 cities with an important sex industry and compares policies and social trends coercion and agency but also prostitutes working and living conditions

The Concealment Controversy Janna Wessels, 2021-07-29 An examination of the concealment controversy in international refugee law

Refugees in International Relations Alexander Betts, Gil Loescher, 2011 Drawing together the work and ideas of a combination of the world's leading and emerging International Relations scholars Refugees in International Relations considers what ideas from International Relations can offer our understanding of the international politics of forced migration The insights draw from across the theoretical spectrum of International Relations from realism to critical theory to feminism covering issues including international cooperation security and the international political economy

Sex at the Margins Laura María Agustín, 2010-08-17 This groundbreaking book explodes several myths that selling sex is completely different from any other kind of work that migrants who sell sex are passive victims and that the multitude of people out to save them are without self interest Laura Agustín makes a passionate case against these stereotypes arguing that the label trafficked does not accurately describe migrants lives and that the rescue industry disempowers them Based on extensive research amongst migrants who sell sex and social helpers Sex at the Margins provides a radically different analysis Frequently says Agustín migrants make rational choices to travel and work in the sex industry Although they are treated like a marginalised group they form part of the dynamic global economy Both powerful and controversial this book is essential reading for all those who want to understand the increasingly important relationship between sex markets migration and the desire for social justice

Governing Refugees Kirsten McConnachie, 2014-04-24 Refugee camps are imbued in the public imagination with assumptions of anarchy danger and refugee passivity Governing Refugees Justice Order and Legal Pluralism challenges such assumptions arguing that refugee camps should be recognized as spaces where social capital can not only survive but thrive This book examines camp management and the administration of justice in refugee camps on the Thailand Burma border Emphasising the work of refugees themselves in coping with and adapting to encampment it considers themes of agency sovereignty and legal pluralism in an analysis of local governance and the production of order beyond the state Governing Refugees will appeal to anyone with relevant interests in law anthropology and criminology as well as those working in the area of refugee studies

Francophone African Narratives and the Anglo-American Book Market Vivan Steemers,2021-03 Ferment on the Fringes charts the trajectories of Francophone African narratives that reached the Anglo American market by analyzing the various institutional agents and agencies involved in the value making process that accrues visibility to translated texts that eventually reach the Anglo American book market

Queering Borders David A.B. Murray,2016-05-25 In recent years migration has moved to the forefront of national and global debates intensifying discussions about borders security identity and citizenship In this volume we ask how language and sexuality impact these discussions how do sexuality and language contribute toward the construction and maintenance of varying scales of borders How do sexuality and language figure in border crossings across time space embodied differences and culture The contributors to this volume all anthropologists demonstrate how anthropological theories concepts and methods uniquely address the operations of sexuality and language in the making unmaking and remaking of these borders In this volume terminology discourse language choice and other forms of linguistic practice are at the forefront of research on transnational queer im migrant populations allowing us to better understand how language shapes and is shaped by queer peoples movements across borders Originally published in Journal of Language and Sexuality Vol 3 1 2014

Gay Sydney Garry Wotherspoon,2016-03-01 Garry Wotherspoon s Gay Sydney A History is an updated version of his 1991 classic City of the Plain History of a Gay Sub culture written in the midst of the AIDS crisis In this vivid book Wotherspoon traces the shifts that have occurred since then including majority support for marriage equality and anti discrimination legislation He also ponders the parallel evaporation of a distinctly gay sensibility and the disappearance of once packed gay bars that have now become cafes and gyms This book also tells the story of gay Sydney across a century looking at secret underground gay life the never ending debates about sex in society and the role of social movements in the 60 and 70s in effecting social change

Migrants, Refugees, and Asylum Seekers in Latin America Raanan Rein,Stefan Rinke,David M.K. Sheinin,2020-06-08 Scholarship on ethnicity in modern Latin America has traditionally understood the region s various societies as fusions of people of European indigenous and or African descent These are often deployed as stable categories with European or white as a monolith against which studies of indigeneity or blackness are set The role of post independence immigration from eastern and western Europe as well as from Asia Africa and Latin American countries in constructing the national ethnic landscape remains understudied The contributors of this volume focus their attention on Jewish Arab non Latin European Asian and Latin American immigrants and their experiences in their new homes Rejecting exceptionalist and homogenizing tendencies within immigration history contributors advocate instead an approach that emphasizes the locally and nationally embedded nature of ethnic identification

Women, Migration, and Conflict Susan Forbes Martin,John Tirman,2009-09-18 An estimated 35 million people worldwide are displaced by conflict and most of them are women and children During their time away from their homes and communities these women and their children are subjected to a horrifying array of misfortune including privations of every kind sexual assaults disease imprisonment unwanted pregnancies severe psychological trauma and upon return or resettlement social disapproval and isolation Written by the world's leading scholars and practitioners this unique collection brings these problems and potential solutions into sharp focus Based on extensive field research and a broad knowledge of other studies of the challenges facing women who are forced from their homes and homelands by conflict this book offers in depth understanding and problem solving ideas Derived from a project to advise U N agencies it speaks to a broad array of students scholars NGOs policymakers government officials and international organizations

Refugees and Rights Mary Crock, 2017-05-15 Forced migration is both as ancient as human life on earth and a relatively new subject of interest for human rights scholars This volume continues the discussion from Migrants and Rights to focus attention on refugees victims of trafficking and others who cross borders seeking protection from anthropogenic or natural disasters The opening essays provide historical and conceptual overviews of rights to freedom of movement and asylum and links between human rights and refugee law Articles on the principle of non refoulement in international law explore the occasional disjuncture between the individual's right to protection and the State's rights to protect its national interests The refugee's rights to due process and the substance of entitlements at law are explored in essays that range across administrative processes social and cultural rights including family reunion detention and the right of return There follow four essays that address sexual orientation and refugee rights refugees and disability rights human rights and persons displaced by climate change disasters and the rights of victims of human trafficking The volume concludes with work reflecting on the rights discourse outside of traditional Western theatres These cover Africa Kenya India South America Brazil and the Asia Pacific Indonesia and Papua New Guinea

Detained Michael Welch, 2002 Details how American immigration law and policy have increasingly relied on incarceration locking up thousands of immigrants not because they pose any real danger but as a collective expression of moral panic and hostility toward perceived outsiders David Cole back cover

The Rights of Minorities: Cultural Groups, Migrants, Displaced Persons and Sexual Identity J. Alberto del Real Alcala, 2017-11-14 This volume focuses on the rights of minorities Minorities are often subject to discrimination and individuals find themselves being rejected by the majority In such cases people belonging to a minority suffer through hostile situations Minorities discussed in this book are defined in terms of cultural groups migrants displaced persons sexual minorities sexual identity As with the previous volume readers are informed about the concept of human rights as an instrument through which civil society tries to eliminate the hostility and suffering of minorities and restores a situation of normality Minorities must also accept that a democratic society is governed by majority rule and the Rule of Law The Rights of Minorities Cultural Groups Migrants Displaced Persons and Sexual Identity discusses four types of minorities cultural groups migrants displaced persons sexual minorities and policy on minorities The book is a detailed reference for graduates and scholars in law human rights activism political science sociology and social psychology The volume is also recommended for working professionals who operate with human rights groups and general readers non experts who want to understand the discourse about human rights in a holistic moral legal social economic and political framework Seminars in Old Age Psychiatry Rob Butler,Cornelius Katona,2019-07-11 A concise and updated guide to the mental health of older people that includes sections on training guidelines and treatments
