Cuban and Cuban-American Women K. Lynn Stoner, Luís Hipólito Serrano Pérez, 2000 Cuban and Cuban American Women An Annotated Bibliography covers primary and secondary sources found in Cuba and the United States on Cuban and Cuban American women from the period 1868 to the present The editors have amassed primary archival materials located in Cuba and the United States annotated the holdings and described their locations Secondary sources are also included and annotated While most of the emphasis is placed on the twentieth century significant attention is paid to women in the Wars of Independence The book is divided into two parts Part I comprising Chapters 1 through 3 contains all archival and secondary sources about women in Cuba Covering the period 1868 1997 this section is divided into the nineteenth century and Independence 1868 1898 the early Republic 1898 1958 Guerrillas and Popular Underground Resistance against Fulgencio Batista 1953 1958 and the Cuban Revolution 1959 1997 Topics in this section include law history feminism health education social welfare archival resources revolutionary government the military political organizations cultural events literature and art Part II contains all archival and secondary sources about Cuban women in the United States It also covers the period from 1868 1997 but the body of literature is on the post 1959 era Topics in this section include the exile experience family history autobiography labor studies health education political organization racial issues cultural expressions literature and art Cuban and Cuban American Women contains both an Author Index and a Subject Index keyed to the entry numbers contained in the body of the book One of the few collections on Latin American women and the only one on Cuban and Cuban American women this book is an essential resource for researchers

The Evolution of an American Patriot Anna Spiesman Starr, Charles Frederick Dapp, Clarence Newell Callender, Edwin Bucher Williams, Enos Eby Witmer, Henry Sherman Oberly, Jessie Abigail Rodman, Kalman Heindlhofer, Leon Dupre Stratton, Russell Davis Sturgis, 1924

Imperialism and the Wider Atlantic Tania Gentic, Francisco LaRubia-Prado, 2017-10-28 The essays in this volume broaden previous approaches to Atlantic literature and culture by comparatively studying the politics and textualities of Southern Europe North America and Latin America across languages cultures and periods Historically grounded while offering new theoretical approaches the volume encourages debate on whether the critical lens of imperialism often invoked to explain transatlantic studies may be challenged by the diagonal translinguistic relationships that comprise what the editors term the wider Atlantic The essays explore how instances of inverse coloniality global networks of circulation and linguistic conceptualizations of nation and identity question dominant structures of power from the nineteenth century to today

Women in Hispanic Literature Beth Miller, 2024-06-28 The topics covered by this pioneering collection of essays range from peninsular Spanish to Latin American literature from the eleventh to the twentieth centuries and from the subject of women as portrayed in Hispanic literature to the literature of Hispanic women writers Some pieces present polemical feminist arguments other are more traditional All the contributors use their subject to take new stands on old controversies ask new questions and reevaluate important aspects of Hispanic literature While there is ample evidence in these essays of the dual archetype in Hispanic literature of women as icon and woman as fallen idol the collection reaches beyond these stereotypes to more complex sociological and theoretical concerns Although such research has been abundantly pursued by scholars of English and American literature it has been notably absent from Hispanic studies This anthology is a comprehensive introduction to its subject and a stimulus to further work in the area Contributors Fernando Alegria Electa Arenal Julianne Burton Alan Deyermund Rosalie Gimeno Harriet Goldberg Estelle Irizarry Kathleen Kish Luis Leal Linda Gould Levine Melveena McKendrick Francine Masiello Beth Miller Elizabeth Ord ez Rachel Phillips Marcia L Welles This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1983

Cuban Studies 16 Carmelo Mesa-Lago, 1986-12-01 Cuban Studies has been published annually by the University of Pittsburgh Press since 1985 Founded in 1970 it is the preeminent journal for scholarly work on Cuba Each volume includes articles in both English and Spanish a large book review section and an exhaustive compilation of recent works in the field

From Romanticism to Modernismo in Latin America David William Foster, Daniel Altamiranda, 1997 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare's most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory A New History of Spanish Literature James Fitzmaurice-Kelly, 1926

Paratextuality in Anglophone and Hispanophone Poems in the US Press, 1855-1901 Ayendy Bonifacio, 2024-04-30 Drawing examples from over 200 English language and Spanish language newspapers and periodicals published between January 1855 and October 1901 Paratextuality in Anglophone and Hispanophone Poems in the US Press 1855 1901 argues that nineteenth century newspaper poems are inherently paratextual The paratextual situation of many newspaper poems their links to surrounding textual items and discourses their editorialisation through circulation the way poems were altered from newspaper to newspaper and their association and disassociation with certain celebrity bylines editors and newspaper titles enabled contemporaneous poetic value and taste that in the mid to late nineteenth century were not only sentimental Romantic and or genteel In addition to these important categories for determining a good and bad poem poetic taste and value were determined Bonifacio argues via arbitrary consequences of circulation paratextualisation typesetter error and editorial convenience

City Sleeps Lila Caimari, 2017 While the City Sleeps is an extraordinary work of scholarship from one of Argentina's leading historians of modern Buenos Aires society and culture In the late nineteenth century the city saw a massive population boom and large scale urban development With these changes came rampant crime a chaotic environment in the streets and intense class conflict In response the state expanded institutions that were intended to bring about social order and control In this book Lila Caimari mines both police records and true crime reporting to bring to life the underworld pistoleros the policemen who fought them and the crime journalists who brought the conflicts to light In the process she crafts an incredible portrait of the rise of one of the world's greatest cities Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John

Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism Publications of the University of Pennsylvania, 1923 Translation as Advocacy Various, 2024-04-25 What does it mean to advocate in translation for translation through translation What does advocacy look like for those who do the translating or for those whose work is translated To what extent is translation itself a form of advocacy These what questions are the driving force behind this collection Translation as Advocacy highlights the innovative ways in which translator academics in seven different fields discuss their practice in relation to their understanding of advocacy The book aims to encourage people to think about translators as active agents bringing new work into the receiving culture advocating for the writers they translate for ideas for practices As such the book asserts that the act of translation is a mode of cultural production and a political intervention through which the translator as advocate claims a significant position in intercultural dialogue. Featuring seven interrelated chapters, the book covers themes of judgement spaces for translation, classroom practice, collaboration, intercultural position, textuality, and voice. Each chapter explores the specific demands of different types of translation work, the specific role of each stage of the process, and what advocacy means at each of these stages, for example, choosing what is translated, mediating between author and receiving culture, pitching to publishers, social interactions framing the translation for different audiences, teaching, creating new canons, gatekeepers, and prizes, dissemination, marketing, and reception. This book repositions the role of the translator/academic as an activist who uses their knowledge and understanding to bring agency to the complex processes of understanding across time and space. Moving critically through the different stages that the translator/academic occupies, using the spaces for research, performance, and classroom teaching as springboards for active engagement with the key preoccupations of our times, this book will highlight translation as advocacy for students, educators, audiences for translation, and the translation industry. Like all the volumes in the Language Acts and Worldmaking series, the overall aim is two-fold: to challenge widely held views about language learning as a neutral instrument of globalisation and to innovate and transform language research, teaching, and learning together with Modern Languages as an academic discipline by foregrounding its unique form of cognition and critical engagement. Specific aims are to propose new ways of bridging the gaps between those who teach and research languages and those who learn and use them in everyday contexts; from the professional to the personal, put research into the hands of wider audiences; share a philosophy, policy, and practice of language teaching and learning which turns research into action; provide the research experience and data to enable informed debates on current issues and attitudes in language learning, teaching, and research; share knowledge across and within all levels and experiences of language learning and teaching; showcase exciting new work that derives from different types of community activity and is of practical relevance to its audiences; disseminate new research in languages that engages with diverse communities of language practitioners.

Cervantes-Shakespeare Tercentenary, 1616-1916 Puerto Rico. Department of Education, 1916 Foundational Fictions Doris Sommer, 1993-03-02. National consolidation and romantic novels go hand in hand in Latin America. Foundational Fictions shows how 19th-century patriotism and heterosexual passion historically depend on one another to engender productive citizens.
