Great Message 1928:

A History of the Apocalypse Catalin Negru, 2023-01-20 Religion For thousands of years this thing has dictated which people should live and which people should die what shape our buildings should have or what colors our garments should contain what food people should eat or what words people should speak If religion is the opium of the masses then beliefs about the end of the world are like overdoses People touched by such beliefs no longer rely on a hidden personal and intimate god contemplated upon from the safe distance of the beating human heart They live with the promise of divine intervention at a grand scale on the current coordinates of space and time This can be an exceptional motivator and a game changer in terms of civil obedience both at an individual and collective level In the name of an immediate and palpable deity people can commit shocking cruelties However such belief can also account for some of the most exceptional social developments in human history Religious Education ,1929 Available on microfilm from University Microfilms The Film Daily Directors' Annual and Production Guide ,1929 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Bowen,2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation The Publishers Weekly ,1929

Congress,1929 Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski,2008 Thomas Edison invented his motion picture system in New Jersey in the 1890s and within a few years most American filmmakers could be found within a mile or two of the Hudson River They planted themselves here because they needed the artistic and entrepreneurial energy that D W Griffith realized New York had in abundance But as the going rate for land and labor skyrocketed and their business grew more industrialized most of them moved out The way most historians explain it the role of New York in the development of American film ends here In Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski rewrites an important part of the history of American cinema During the 1920s and 1930s film industry executives had centralized the mass production of feature pictures in a series of gigantic film factories scattered across Southern California while maintaining New York as the economic and administrative center But as Koszarski reveals many writers producers and directors also continued to work here especially if their independent vision was too big for the Hollywood production line East Coast filmmakers Oscar Micheaux Rudolph Valentino Ben Hecht Charles MacArthur Paul Robeson Gloria Swanson Max Fleischer and others quietly created a studio system without back lots long term contracts or seasonal production slates They substituted newsreel photography for Hollywood glamour targeted niche audiences instead of middle American families ignored accepted dramatic conventions and pushed the boundaries of motion picture censorship Rebellious and unconventional they saw the New York studios as laboratories not factories and used them to pioneer the development of new technologies from talkies to television new genres new talent and ultimately an entirely new vision of commercial cinema Minutes and Votes and Proceedings of the Parliament, with Papers Presented to Both Houses Western Australia.
