Great Pan:

Pantheologies Mary-Jane Rubenstein, 2018-11-06 Pantheism is the idea that God and the world are identical that the creator sustainer destroyer and transformer of all things is the universe itself From a monotheistic perspective this notion is irremediably heretical since it suggests divinity might be material mutable and multiple Since the excommunication of Baruch Spinoza Western thought has therefore demonized what it calls pantheism accusing it of incoherence absurdity and with striking regularity monstrosity In this book Mary Jane Rubenstein investigates this perennial repugnance through a conceptual genealogy of pantheisms What makes pantheism monstrous at once repellent and seductive is that it scrambles the raced and gendered distinctions that Western philosophy and theology insist on drawing between activity and passivity spirit and matter animacy and inanimacy and creator and created By rejecting the fundamental difference between God and world pantheism threatens all the other oppositions that stem from it light versus darkness male versus female and humans versus every other organism If the panic over pantheism has to do with a fear of crossed boundaries and demolished hierarchies then the question becomes what a present day pantheism might disrupt and what it might reconfigure Cobbling together heterogeneous sources medieval heresies their pre and anti Socratic forebears general relativity quantum mechanics nonlinear biologies multiverse and indigenous cosmologies ecofeminism animal and vegetal studies and new and old materialisms Rubenstein assembles possible pluralist pantheisms By mobilizing this monstrous mixture of unintentional God worlds Pantheologies gives an old heresy the chance to renew our thinking

Sacred Disobedience Sharon L. Coggan, 2020-07-07 Sacred Disobedience A Jungian Analysis of the Saga of Pan and the Devil traces the ancient Greek God Pan who became distorted into the image of the Devil in early Christianity When Pan was demonized the powerful qualities he represented became repressed as Pan's visage twisted into the model of the Devil This book follows a Jungian analysis of this development In ancient Greek religion Pan was worshipped as an honored deity corresponding to an inner psycho-spiritual condition in which the primitive qualities he represented were fully integrated into consciousness and these qualities were valued and affirmed as holy But in the era of early Christianity Pan dies and the Devil is born a twisted inflation possibly due to an underlying repression In the Jungian system repressed psychic contents do not disappear as proponents of the new order tacitly assume but distort and grow more powerful or inflate to cripple the psyche that refuses to incorporate these split-off elements Repressed contents will expand to explosive force as the repressed elements eventually return regressively from below It becomes important then to understand what qualities the primitive Goat God carried to appreciate what was repressed in the Western psycho-spiritual system and what subsequently needs reintegration archaeological remains and few records of their culture The Etruscans were adept at magic and Etruscan books of spells were common among the Romans but they have not survived While greatly influenced by the Greeks the Etruscans retained elements of an ancient non Western culture and these archaic traits contributed greatly to the civilization once thought of as purely Roman gladiators for example and many kinds of divination Leland retrieves elements of Etruscan culture from the living popular traditions of remote areas of the Italian countryside where belief in the old religion survives to an astonishing degree Recorded when many of these secret beliefs and practices were fading away this remarkable volume deals with ancient gods spirits witches incantations prophecy medicine spells and amulets giving full descriptions illustrations and instructions for practice "Dreaming the Myth Onwards" Wolfgang Giegerich,2020-03-06 The fundamental importance of Christianity for Jung is well documented in his writings and letters For the whole of his long career the great psychologist had wrestled with what he called the great snake of the centuries the burden of the human mind the problem of Christianity By comparison his statements about Hegel are quite scarce Both topics nevertheless have in common that they elicited from Jung radical accusations accusations not presented in the calm tone of a psychological scholar but fired by a deep seated personal affect that propelled Jung to wish to dream the myth onwards that is to move to a new his own improved and corrected version of Christianity Rather than merely portraying and elucidating Jung s views this volume critically examines his theses and arguments by means of a series of close readings and by confronting his claims with the texts on which his interpretations are based The guiding principle in the spirit of which the author s investigation is conducted is the question of the needs of the soul and the standards of true psychology While constantly bearing these needs and standards in mind diverse topics are discussed in depth Jung s interpretation of a dream he had had about being unable to completely bow down before the highest presence his thesis concerning the patriarchal neglect of the feminine principle his views about the alleged one sidedness of Christianity the recalcitrant Fourth and the reality of Evil his understanding of the Trinity and the spirit his rejection of Hegel and of speculative thought and his reaction to the modern doubt that has killed religious faith A companion to the preceding volume The Flight into the Unconscious the essays collected here continue its radical critique of Jung s psychology project yielding not only deep insights into Jung s personal religiosity and into what ultimately drove his psychology project as a whole but granting as well a more sophisticated understanding of the psychological potential and telos of the Christian idea The Works of the English Poets, from Chaucer to Cowper: Shakespeare, Davies, Donne, Hall, Stirling, Jonson, Corbet, Carew, Drummond Alexander Chalmers,1810 The Greatest Works of French Literature (English Edition) Charles Baudelaire,George Sand,Anatole France,Molière,Voltaire,Stendhal,Émile Zola,Alexandre Dumas,Alexandre Dumas fils,Jules Verne,Victor Hugo,Marcel Proust,Guy de Maupassant,Jean-Jacques Rousseau,Jean Racine,François Rabelais,Gustave Flaubert,Gaston Leroux,Pierre Corneille,Pierre Choderlos de Laclos,2020-12-17 This unique collection of the greatest French classics books has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards A
