unforgettable literary journeys      More Than a Meal Karen Davis, 2001 This scholarly and authoritative book examines the cultural and literal history as well as the natural history and biological needs and concerns of turkeys Davis explores how turkeys came to be seen as birds who were not only the epitome of failure or stupidity but also the suitable centerpiece of the celebration of freedom in America itself Thanksgiving She examines the many varieties of turkeys and uncovers the methods by which millions of turkeys are raised fattened and slaughtered on farms around America today Davis takes us back to European folklore about turkeys the myths fairytales and downright lies told about turkeys and their habits and habitats She shows how turkeys in the wild have complex lives and family units and how they were an integral part of Native American and continental cultures and landscape before the Europeans arrived Finally Davis draws conclusions about our paradoxical complex and bestial relationship not just with turkeys but with all birds and thus with all other animals She examines how our treatment of animals shapes our other values about ourselves our relationship with other human beings and our attitude toward the land nation and the world      StoryCraft Martha Seif Simpson, Lynne Perrigo, 2015-11-17 While storytelling is a great favorite of preschoolers many elementary age children are more drawn to crafts and other activities StoryCraft is an award winning library program that combines storytelling with crafts in an exciting and engaging activity for children in first through third grades Each one hour program includes storytelling a craft movement activities music and discussion This collection of StoryCraft programs presents 50 fun and educational theme based sessions Each includes suggestions for promotion music crafts activities and stories The sessions also include bibliographies to help direct young readers toward additional reading as well as diagrams detailed instructions and supply lists for the crafts The themes range from a Jungle Safari to Math Mayhem to a Western Roundup all encouraging children to enjoy reading in a variety of ways Each session has plenty of suggestions so that the program can be customized Helpful Hints for implementing the program can help any librarian volunteer or parent turn a ho hum storytime into a dazzling StoryCraft time      Value-Packed Booktalks Lucy Schall, 2011-04-07 In this guide 100 recommended books and booktalks offer the perfect way to start value discussions with teens and teen adult book groups With its focus on current popular titles Value Packed Booktalks Genre Talks and More for Teen Readers is a flexible tool for all educators from Young Adult YA librarians and readers advisors at public libraries to school librarians and teachers Booktalks are provided for young adult literature published between 2006 and 2010 organized by values addressed in specific genres Examples of discussions show how these booktalks can help teens define what is personally important to them and why Unique in that it ties current popular genres to values courage with adventure titles problem solving with mystery suspense the book focuses on 100 recently published YA fiction and nonfiction titles offering summaries lists of themes values statements booktalks and curriculum connections It also cites passages appropriate for read aloud booktalks designates a general grade range middle junior or senior high school notes gender appeal for the titles male female or cross gender and lists similar or related works some published before 2006      Writing Fiction for Children Judy K. Morris, 2001 Whether you're nurturing your first idea for a children's book or have a published book or two under your belt Judy K. Morris will delight you, guide and inspire you, challenge and encourage you and improve your chances of reaching the ultimate goal of every children's book author: your reader inside your story and your story inside your reader. A published author of both fiction and nonfiction for children, Morris draws on extensive experience teaching children how to write and teaching adults how to write for children. Here she combines concrete methods and step-by-step techniques with succinct rules of thumb, work at making your novel whole from the start, never underestimate the power of the plain truth, personality quirks are no substitute for character, doing a good job of writing usually means doing a good job of rewriting. Using judiciously chosen examples from successful children's literature, Writing Fiction for Children covers the building blocks of plot, characters and setting and addresses common problems such as awkward plotting, oversimplifying and taking a preachy or self-conscious tone. Pragmatic exercises stimulate writers to scour their experiences, sharpen their powers of observation and capture the details, voice and narrative energy that can bring stories vividly to life and keep readers submerged in make-believe. Loaded with practical advice and helpful exercises, Writing Fiction for Children is especially useful for anyone who aspires to write for children in the middle ages of eight to twelve. Children's books should be hopeful, thrilling, funny, interesting, touching and a pleasure to read, Morris says. Above all, they must have something at stake that matters. While conceding that only the author can provide the spark of a story to tell, Morris offers invaluable guidance on the daily work of crafting, shaping, refining, revising and publishing a children's novel. Author Day Adventures Helen Foster James, 2003 Guidelines for organizing a successful author day. Deconstructing Penguins Lawrence Goldstone, Nancy Goldstone, 2007-12-18 Books are like puzzles, write Lawrence and Nancy Goldstone. The author's ideas are hidden and it is up to all of us to figure them out. In this indispensable reading companion, the Goldstones, noted parent-child book club experts, encourage grownups and young readers alike to adopt an approach that will unlock the magic and power of reading. With the Goldstones' help, parents can inspire kids' lifelong love of reading by teaching them how to unlock a book's hidden meaning. Featuring fun and incisive discussions of numerous children's classics, this dynamic guide highlights key elements: theme, setting, character, point of view, climax and conflict, and paves the way for meaningful conversations between parents and children. Best of all, the Goldstones note you don't need an advanced degree in English literature or forty hours a week of free time to effectively discuss a book with your child. This isn't Crime and Punishment, it's Charlotte's Web. Humor in Young Adult Literature Walter Hogan, 2005 Celebrates the accomplishments of YA authors acclaimed for producing high-quality comedies who have not yet been treated in a book-length bio-critical study. Simultaneously, it reminds readers that no matter how funny an author of fiction may be, if he shows off his wit in ways that fail to play a natural role in advancing his narrative, he is not writing good fiction. To demonstrate this, humorous passages are presented to illustrate the contribution a sense of humor can make to a work of fiction. The book is arranged topically to facilitate a comparison of distinctive treatments by various authors of adolescent life events such as sibling rivalry bullies and first dates      The Kids' Book Club Book Judy Gelman, Vicki Levy Krupp, 2007-05-10 The first complete guide for use by adults and children to creating fun and educational book clubs for kids As authors of The Book Club Cookbook the classic guide to integrating great food and food related discussion into book club gatherings Judy Gelman and Vicki Levy Krupp hear a common refrain from parents librarians teachers community leaders and kids themselves How about writing a book for kids book clubs Indeed in recent years youth organizations parents libraries schools and our local state and federal governments have launched thousands of book clubs for children as a way to counter falling literacy rates and foster a love of reading Based on surveys representing five hundred youth book clubs across the country and interviews with parents kids educators and librarians The Kids Book Club Book features _ the top fifty favorite book club reads for children ages eight to eighteen _ ideas and advice on forming great kids book clubs and tips for kids who want to start their own book clubs _ recipes activities and insights from such bestselling children's book authors as Christopher Paolini Lois Lowry Jerry Spinelli Nancy Farmer Christopher Paul Curtis Andrew Clements Laurie Halse Anderson Norton Juster and many others From recipes for the Dump Punch and egg salad sandwiches included in Kate DiCamillo's Because of Winn Dixie to instructions on how to make soap carvings like the ones left in the knot hole of a tree in Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird this book provides a bounty of ideas for making every kids book club a success      Quick and Popular Reads for Teens Pam Spencer Holley, 2009 Compiles and annotates YALSA's Popular Paperbacks for Young Adults and Quick Picks for Reluctant Readers Includes theme lists      Gentle Reads Deanna J.
