France Since the Liberation Gino Raymond, 2024-02-20 This book focuses on the tension between the modernising thrust that places France on a trajectory of convergence with comparable liberal democracies and the defence of a national specificity that can act as a brake complicating France s relationship with its neighbours its present and its past This ambivalence in French political and social life stems from the conscious attempt to rebuild the nation after the trauma of Occupation during World War II and the new beginning provided by the Liberation The government of the Fourth Republic embraced the pursuit of a modernisation that would enable it to regain its place among the world s leading democratic states However this modernising ambition co exists with the belief in a specific destiny and a unique sense of mission that are intrinsic to the emergence of a sense of nationhood after the revolution of 1789 Raymond defines a critical perspective that draws together historical economic social and political issues into a coherent understanding of what makes France the way it is today Written with both academic rigour and a highly accessible clarity of style this volume is a valuable resource for students educators and researchers in French and European Studies

Memory and Power in Post-War Europe Jan-Werner Müller, 2002-08-29 How has memory collective and individual influenced European politics after the Second World War and after 1989 in particular How has the past been used in domestic struggles for power and how have historical lessons been applied in foreign policy While there is now a burgeoning field of social and cultural memory studies mostly focused on commemorations and monuments this volume is the first to examine the connection between memory and politics directly It investigates how memory is officially recast personally reworked and often violently re-instilled after wars and above all the ways memory shapes present power constellations The chapters combine theoretical innovation in their approach to the study of memory with deeply historical empirically based case studies of major European countries The volume concludes with reflections on the ethics of memory and the politics of truth justice and forgetting after 1945 and 1989
