snoring So I tiptoed along and got down stairs all right There warn t a sound anywheres I peeped through a crack of the dining room door and see the men that was watching the corpse all sound asleep on their chairs The door was open into the parlor where the corpse was laying and there was a candle in both rooms I passed along and the parlor door was open but I see there warn t nobody in there but the remainders of Peter so I shoved on by but the front door was locked and the key wasn t there Just then I heard somebody coming down the stairs back behind me I run in the parlor and took a swift look around and the only place I see to hide the bag was in the coffin The lid was shoved along about a foot showing the dead man s face down in there with a wet cloth over it and his shroud on I tucked the money bag in under the lid just down beyond where his hands was crossed which made me creep they was so cold and then I run back across the room and in behind the door The person coming was Mary Jane She went to the coffin very soft and kneeled down and looked in then she put up her handkerchief and I see she begun to cry though I couldn t hear her and her back was to me I slid out and as I passed the dining room I thought I d make sure them watchers hadn t seen me so I looked through the crack and everything was all right They hadn t stirred I slipped up to bed feeling ruther blue on accounts of the thing playing out that way after I had took so much trouble and run so much resk about it Says I if it could stay where it is all right because when we get down the river a hundred mile or two I could write back to Mary Jane and she could dig him up again and get it but that ain t the thing that s going to happen the thing that s going to happen is the money ll be found when they come to screw on the lid Then the king ll get it again and it ll be a long day before he gives anybody another chance to smouch it from him Of course I WANTED to slide down and get it out of there but I dasn t try it Every minute it was getting earlier now and pretty soon some of them watchers would begin to stir and I might get catched caught with six thousand dollars in my hands that nobody hadn t hired me to take care of I don t wish to be mixed up in no such business as that I says to myself The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn with Reader's Guide Mark Twain,Robert J.
