Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller,2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James s The Ambassadors to McCarthy s The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distil the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification A Century of Segregation Leland Ware,2018-10-18 This book examines the history of racial segregation in America and many of the heroic battles that were waged against the system From the 1930s to the 1960s court challenges were won and laws were enacted that killed Jim Crow However despite considerable advances substantial barriers to racial equality persist The Story of Art Without Men Katy Hessel,2023-05-02 Instant New York Times bestseller One of Vanity Fair s Favorite Books to Gift One of PureWow s 42 Books to Gift This Year One of Kirkus s Best Books of 2023 The story of art as it s never been told before from the Renaissance to the present day with more than 300 works of art How many women artists do you know Who makes art history Did women even work as artists before the twentieth century And what is the Baroque anyway Guided by Katy Hessel art historian and founder of thegreatwomenartists discover the glittering paintings by Sofonisba Anguissola of the Renaissance the radical work of Harriet Powers in the nineteenth century United States and the artist who really invented the readymade Explore the Dutch Golden Age the astonishing work of postwar artists in Latin America and the women defining art in the 2020s Have your sense of art history overturned and your eyes opened to many artforms often ignored or dismissed From the Cornish coast to Manhattan Nigeria to Japan this is the history of art as it s never been told before

Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hogue's collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hogue in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one's life one's emotions one's experiences on a canvas of one's own making
