Not illustrated. 1905 edition. Excerpt comes into possession of eighty acres of his present homestead the tract being distinguished in that it has never been under mortgage from the time the government deed was granted to the present. In later years Mr Geiger purchased an adjoining thirty three acres so that his estate now comprises one hundred and thirteen acres. Mr Geiger has prepared most of the farm for cultivation and has erected fine buildings and made other substantial improvements which place this among the model farmsteads of the township. His residence is a commodious brick structure erected about a score of years ago and the other buildings are of excellent order and kept in good repair. In politics Mr Geiger has always given his allegiance to the Democracy and has taken a loyal interest in local affairs of a public nature though never a seeker of office. He and his wife are valued members of the Reformed church. July 1 1860 just prior to his removal to Fulton county Mr Geiger was married to Miss Annie Catherine Geiger the two families being not consanguineous though of the same name. She was born in Sandusky county Ohio July 23 1837 a daughter of Jacob and Magdalena Geiger both natives of Germany. Her father crossed the ocean five times bringing his affianced wife on his last trip and their marriage was celebrated in the city of Philadelphia shortly after their landing in the new world. They resided in Pennsylvania four years and then removed to Sandusky county Ohio as pioneers there passing the remainder of their lives. The father whose principal vocation was that of farming died October 5 1865 aged sixty five years and his widow attained the age of four score years her death occurring November 21 1888. They had nine children.
