History Of Canadian Catholics:

History of Canadian Catholics Terence J. Fay, 2002 A history of the first 400 years of Catholic life in Canada The Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism, Volume III Liam Chambers, 2023-09-01 The third volume of The Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism examines the period from the defeat of the Jacobite army at the battle of Culloden in 1746 to the enactment of Catholic emancipation in 1829 The first part of the volume offers a chronological overview tracing the decline of Jacobitism the easing of penal legislation which targeted Catholics the complex impact of the French Revolution the debates about the place of Catholics in the post Union state and following the mass mobilisation of Irish Catholics the passage of emancipation The second part of the volume shows that this political history can only be properly understood with reference to the broader transformations that occurred in the later eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries The period witnessed the expansion of Catholic infrastructure pastoral structures chapel building elementary education and finances and changes in Catholic practice for example in liturgy and devotion The growing infrastructure and more public profession of Catholicism occurred in a society where anti Catholicism remained a force but the volume also addresses the accommodations and interactions with non Catholics that attended daily life Crucially the transformations of this period were international as well as national The volume examines the British and Irish convents colleges friaries and monasteries on the continent especially during the events of the 1790s when many institutions closed and successor or new ones emerged at home The international dimensions of British and Irish Catholicism extended beyond Europe too as the British Empire expanded globally and attention is given to the involvement of British and Irish Catholics in imperial expansion This volume addresses the literary intellectual and cultural expressions of Catholicism in Britain and Ireland Catholics produced a rich literature in English Irish Scots Gaelic and Welsh although the volume shows the disparities in provision They also engaged with and participated in the Catholic Enlightenment particularly as they grappled with the challenges of accommodation to a Protestant constitution This also had consequences for the public expression of Catholicism and the volume concludes by exploring the shifting expression of belief through music and material culture

Morice,1910 Catholics at the Gathering Place Mark George McGowan,Brian P. Clarke,1993-01-01 These 17 original innovative studies reinterpret the social and institutional development of one of Canadas largest dioceses The Religions of Canadians Jamie S. Scott,2012-01-01 The Religions of Canadians draws on the expert knowledge and personal insights of scholars in history the social sciences and the phenomenology of religion to introduce the beliefs and practices of nine religious traditions Baptists and Public Life in Canada Gordon L. Heath,Paul R. Wilson,2012-02-02 Public discussion about the relationship between religion and public life in Canada can be heated at times and scholars have recently focused on the historical study of the many expressions of this relationship The experience of Canada's smaller Protestant Christian groups however has remained largely unexplored This is particularly true of Canada's Baptists This volume the first produced by the Canadian Baptist Historical Society explores the connections between Baptist faith and Baptist activity in the public domain and expands the focus of the existing scholarship to include a wide range of Canadian Baptist beliefs attitudes perspectives and actions related to the relationship between Baptist faith and practice and public life Canada Carl Frederick Wittke, 1928 Covers Canadian history from colonial beginnings to 1933 Special attention paid to interrelation of Canadian and U S history as well as Canada's role in development of British imperial policies Education, Civic Education, and the Canadian Regime David W. Livingstone, 2015-10-01 Shortly after Canadian confederation Thomas D Arcy McGee proclaimed that education was an essential condition of our political independence and that its role was to form citizens for the new regime Comparing this idea of education for citizenship or civic education to the modern goals of education Liberal Education Civic Education and the Canadian Regime explores the founders principles their sources and the challenges that threaten their vision for Canada The collection s first essays analyze the political thought of early Canadians such as Brown McGee Ryerson and Bourinot while later chapters examine enduring principles of liberal democracy derived from Aristotle de Tocqueville and Hobbes The final chapters bring the discussion forward to such topics as the decline of Canadian Catholic liberal arts colleges and the emerging role of our Supreme Court as a self appointed moral tutor Moreover as it deals with the changing roles of universities in contemporary Canada Liberal Education Civic Education and the Canadian Regime engages current debates about the value and place of a traditional liberal education and the consequences of turning our back on the concepts that inspired our founding leaders Considering whether Canada's early documents and traditions can revive past debates and shed light on contemporary issues this highly original collection presents education as an essential condition of our independence and asks whether current educational principles are threatening Canadians capacity for self government The Uncomfortable Pew Bruce Douville, 2021-05-20 In The Uncomfortable Pew Bruce Douville explores the relationship between Christianity and the New Left in English Canada from 1959 to 1975 Focusing primarily on Toronto he examines the impact that left wing student radicalism had on Canada s largest Christian denominations and the role that Christianity played in shaping Canada's New Left Based on extensive archival research and oral interviews this study reconstructs the social and intellectual worlds of young radicals who saw themselves as part of both the church and the revolution Douville looks at major communities of faith and action including the Student Christian Movement Kairos and the Latin American Working Group and explains what made these and other groups effective incubators for left wing student activism He also sheds light on Canada's Roman Catholic Anglican and United churches and the ways that progressive older Christians engaged with radical youth and the issues that concerned them including the Vietnam War anti imperialism around the globe women s liberation and gay liberation Challenging the idea that the New Left was atheistic and secular The Uncomfortable Pew reveals that many young activists began their careers in student Christian organizations and these religious and social movements deeply influenced each other While the era was one of crisis and decline for leading Canadian churches Douville shows how Christianity retained an important measure of influence during a period of radical social change History of Canada from the Time of Its Discovery Till the Union of 1840-41 François-Xavier Garneau, 1876 The Peripatetic Journey of Teacher Preparation in Canada Rosa Bruno-Jofré, Joseph Stafford, 2020-10-12 This book situates teacher training preparation and education in Canada within national and global histories. The authors lead the reader through an exploration of the objectives of schooling the contextual role of teachers and the political undercurrents sustaining various educational conceptions and policies Catholicism in the Atlantic World, 1622-1908 Matteo Binasco, 2018-10-16 This book builds upon research on the role of Catholicism in creating and strengthening a global Irish identity complementing existing scholarship by adding a Roman perspective It assesses the direct agency of the Holy See its role in the Irish collective imagination and the extent and limitations of Irish influence over the Holy See's policies and decisions Revealing the centrality of the Holy See in the development of a series of missionary connections across the Atlantic world and Rome the chapters in this collection consider the formation causes and consequences of these networks both in Ireland and abroad The book offers a long dur e perspective covering both the early modern and modern periods to show how Irish Catholicism expanded across continental Europe and over the Atlantic across three centuries It also offers new insights into the history of Irish migration exploring the position of the Irish Catholic clergy in Atlantic communities of Irish migrants Canadian Women Shaping Diasporic Religious Identities Becky R. Lee, Terry Tak-ling Woo, 2016-01-01 This collection of essays explores how women from a variety of religious and cultural communities have contributed to the richly textured pluralistic society of Canada Focusing on women's religiosity it examines the ways in which they have carried and conserved and brought forward and transformed their cultures old and new in modern Canada Each essay explores the ways in which the religiosities of women serve as locations for both the assertion and the refashioning of individual and communal identity in transcultural contexts Three shared assumptions guide these essays religion plays a dynamic role in the shaping and reshaping of social cultures women are active participants in their transmission and their transformation and a focus on women s activities within their religious traditions often informal and unofficial provides new perspectives on the intersection of religion gender and transnationalism Since the first European migrations Canada has been shaped by immigrant communities as they negotiated the tension between preserving their religious and cultural traditions and embracing the new opportunities in their adopted homeland Viewing those interactions through the lens of women's religiosity the essays in this collection model an innovative approach and provide new perspectives for students and researchers of Canadian Studies Religious Studies and Women's Studies Roman Sources for the History of American Catholicism, 1763–1939 Matteo Binasco, 2018-05-15 Roman Sources for the History of American Catholicism 1763 1939 is a comprehensive reference volume researched and compiled by Matteo

Binasco that introduces readers to the rich content of Roman archives and their vast potential for U S Catholic history in particular In 2014 the University of Notre Dame's Cushwa Center for the Study of American Catholicism hosted a seminar in Rome that examined transatlantic approaches to U S Catholic history and encouraged the use of the Vatican Secret Archives and other Roman repositories by today s historians Participants recognized the need for an English language guide to archival sources throughout Rome that would enrich individual research projects and the field at large This volume responds to that need Binasco offers a groundbreaking description of materials relevant to U S Catholic history in fifty nine archives and libraries of Rome Detailed profiles describe each repository and its holdings relevant to American Catholic studies A historical introduction by Luca Codignola and Matteo Sanfilippo reviews the intricate web of relations linking the Holy See and the American Catholic Church since the Treaty of Paris of 1763 Roman sources have become crucial in understanding the formation and development of the Catholic Church in America and their importance will continue to grow This timely source will meet the needs of a ready and receptive audience which will include scholars of U S religious history and American Catholicism as well as Americanist scholars conducting research in Roman archives Records of the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia, 1920 History of Canada, from the Time of Its Discovery Till the Union Year 1840-41 François-Xavier Garneau, 1878 The Life of Thomas D'Arcy McGee Volume III Irish Catholic Canadian Statesman 1857-1864 Charles MacNab, K.C., 2024-04-13 This is the third of four volumes with three and four covering McGee's Confederation period Canadian Reference Sources Marv E.
