for general examples of acts of worship Philo accepted and participated in Jewish worship and even knew about details of various Jewish traditions of his time His writings however do not refer to them directly and cannot easily be used to reconstruct Jewish rituals of his time His main aim is to discuss the rites as collected in the Mosaic Torah since these are binding for all Jews These laws are frequently presented using the terminology of pagan cults and interpreted with recourse to Greek philosophy In this philosophical description of actual rites there are parallels to Plato's references to religion in the ideal state in the Nomoi Philo presents Judaism as the ultimate Hellenistic cult which combines the various aspects of the different pagan cults in a sublime and perfect form to represent mankind and the universe in the worship of the one God who created the world
