A Team of Destiny Robert D. Arnold,2011-06-07 By the mid 1960s Indiana University had hired its sixth football coach since 1945 The Hoosiers reputation continued to erode To the other Big Ten teams the Hoosiers were patsies And their new coach John Pont despite a good record at Yale and Miami Ohio had started his first two years at Indiana with a miserable two wins sixteen losses and one tie By the year 1967 Indiana had little thought of competing for the Big Ten Championship It would be considered a successful campaign if Indiana had a 500 record and beat Purdue What nobody expected was that Coach Pont and a determined group of veterans and sophomores would take the college football world by storm With sophomores like quarterback Harry Gonso running back John Isenbarger pass catching whiz Jade Butcher and a stout senior led defense Indiana would go undefeated in its first eight games before being surprised by Minnesota Still the Hoosiers went on to win their first Big Ten championship since 1945 beating Purdue to claim the Old Oaken Bucket and play against the mighty Southern California Trojans in the Rose Bowl

Autumn Reflections Paul Krehbiel, 2019-08-01 As the lengthening shadows of autumn cast a spell of gentle reverie, the dwindling of the days of one's life span brings a pondering of one's thoughts and feelings, impressions and memories. There is collected here some of my thoughts over the years and my memories of the places and events as a testimony to the passing years of my life. This is my looking back on my 90 plus years of life.

River of Greed Steven Madeline, 2006-08 She sure did look like someone they'd call Upstream Sally. Her waders had far too many holes and slits to keep her legs and feet dry. She wore a man's red and blue checkered flannel shirt outside of heavily stained overalls. The shirt's colors were faded to milky pastels and the edges were frayed. You could tell that fishing was serious business to her. Her cast was a thing of beauty like the way Willie Mays used to shag balls in center field. I stood still and watched her from behind, sensing that she was fully aware of me. I guessed that her backwoods radar indicated that something was intruding on nature's normal ballet. My radar told me that although she knew I was there at first, she chose to pretend that she didn't. Then, without turning around, her gravelly voice sounded loudly. Not too many come this far upstream, I know. I said. Probably the sweet smell of aspens that pulled you along. You may be right. No, you don't know your aspen from your aster. Now what is it you want, mister?
