The First Smithsonian Collection Helena E. Wright, 2015-04-28 Outstanding Academic Title Choice 2015 Winner Ewell Newman Award of the American Historical Print Collectors Society 2016 In 1849 the Smithsonian purchased the Marsh Collection of European engravings Not only the first collection of any kind to be acquired by the new Institution it was also the first public print collection in the nation and it presented an important symbol of cultural authority The prints formed part of the library of Vermont Congressman George Perkins Marsh 1801 1882 a member of the Smithsonian's Board of Regents The uncertainty of the Smithsonian's mission in the early years complicated its motivation for purchasing the collection especially given Marsh's position as a Regent in financial difficulty After a serious fire in 1865 portions of the collection were deposited at the Library of Congress and the Corcoran Gallery of Art Efforts to reclaim it began in the 1880s as a new generation of Smithsonian staff expanded the National Museum but they achieved only mixed success Through the story of the Marsh Collection the book explores the cultural values attributed to prints in the 19th century including their prominent role in expositions and their influence on visual culture at a time when collecting styles were moving from an individual's private contemplation of artworks to wider public venues of exposition in museums and reception by multiple audiences The history of this first Smithsonian collection enlivens an important stage in the development of American cultural identity and in the formation of the Smithsonian as a national institution

Howard Coppuck Levis,1910      Who's Who of American Women, 1997-1998 Marquis Who's Who,[Anonymus AC01783920],1996-12 WHO S WHO OF AMERICAN WOMEN is the one essential reference to depend on for accurate detailed facts on American women of achievement This new edition includes in depth biographical profiles of prominent accomplished women      Lafayette in the Age of the American Revolution—Selected Letters and Papers, 1776-1790 Le Marquis de Lafayette,2019-05-15 The third volume of this widely acclaimed series continues the story of Lafayette s role in the military diplomatic and political aspects of the French American alliance as seen through the letters of Lafayette and his correspondents on both sides of the Atlantic Among the recipients of Lafayette s letters are George Washington the Comte de Vergennes Samuel Adams the Comte de Rochambeau the Baron van Steuben Benjamin Franklin Alexander Hamilton Nathanael Greene and Thomas Jefferson At times Lafayette appears to be as proud ambitious and headstrong as his detractors have claimed More often he emerges as a mature and judicious leader one who carried great weight as a principal architect of French American cooperation The letters also show his ability to understand American attitudes toward military and civil authority and they indicate his realistic comprehension of strategy tactics and logistics The volume is divided into five parts each of which is introduced by a headnote summarizing Lafayette s main activities and the broader context of revolutionary events of the period It makes clear the tensions and disharmonies between the allies that developed during the months of military inaction and fiscal difficulties and gives us a rare look at the human side of the military effort at its highest levels
