François Boucher and the Art of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century France

Jessica Priebe, 2021-11-29 While earlier studies have focused predominantly on artist François Boucher's artistic style and identity this book presents the first full length interdisciplinary study of Boucher's prolific collection of around 13 500 objects including paintings sculpture prints drawings porcelain shells minerals and other imported curios It discusses the types of objects he collected the networks through which he acquired them and their spectacular display in his custom designed studio at the Louvre where he lived and worked for nearly two decades This book explores the role his collection played in the development of his art his studio his friendships and the burgeoning market for luxury goods in mid eighteenth century France In doing so it sheds new light on the relationship between Boucher's artistic and collecting practices which attracted both praise and criticism from period observers The book will appeal to scholars working in art history museum studies and French history

Six French Poets of the Nineteenth Century E. H. Blackmore, A. M. Blackmore, 2000 Poetry will no longer keep in time with action it will be ahead of it Arthur Rimbaud The active and colourful lives of the poets of nineteenth century France are reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of their works At once sacred and profane passionate and satirical these remarkable and innovative poems explore the complexities of human emotion and ponder the great questions of religion and art They form as rich a body of work as any one age and language has ever produced This unique anthology includes generous selections from the six nineteenth century French poets most often read in the English speaking world today Lamartine Hugo Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Mallarmé Modern translations are printed opposite the original French verse and the edition contains over a thousand lines of poetry never previously translated into English

Selected Poems Paul Verlaine, 2009-02-26 Verlaine possessed by the madnesses of love brimming over with desires and prayers the rebel railing against the complacent platitudes of society of love of language Jean Rousselot Verlaine ranks alongside Baudelaire Mallarmé and Rimbaud as one of the most outstanding poets of late nineteenth century France whose work is associated with the early Symbolists the Decadents and the Parnassiens Remarkable not only for his delicacy and exquisitely crafted verse Verlaine is also the poet of strong emotions and appetites with an unrivalled gift for the sheer music of poetry and an inventive approach to its technique This bilingual edition provides the most comprehensive selection of his poetry yet offering some 170 poems in lively and fresh translations and providing a lucid introduction which illuminates Verlaine's poetic form within the context of French Impressionism and the poetry of sensation Parallel text ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

French Tapestries and Textiles in the J. Paul Getty Museum Charissa Bremer-David, 1997-07-24 French Tapestries and Textiles is a survey of the Getty Museum's seventeenth and eighteenth century French textiles one of the world's finest collections Featuring twenty five extraordinary tapestries woven at the Gobelins and Beauvais manufactories the catalogue also highlights three carpets two knotted pile screens and two sets of embroidered bed hangings one of which is the only complete lit la duchesse surviving from the period Among the magnificent textiles discussed in this lavish volume are the Emperor of China tapestry series the whimsical Story of Don Quixote and Boucher's cycle The Story of Psyche A gatefold in the book opens to reveal a photograph of the stately twenty nine foot carpet commissioned for Louis XIV's Galerie du Bord de l'Eau at the Louvre a piece never publicly displayed in this century Each entry includes a listing of artists and weavers date and place of manufacture and materials and techniques used followed by a complete description and a condition statement The accompanying commentary provides information on the literary historical and visual source of design imagery as well as the context of the textile's commission and production In addition each textile shown has a complete provenance exhibition history and bibliography For lovers of French decorative arts and connoisseurs of textiles this book offers a study both of the art of tapestry and textile making and of the aesthetic tradition exemplified by these remarkable objects

Henry James Writes New York Leonardo Buonomo, 2024-10-30 This book offers the first full length study of Henry James's relationship with and literary treatment of New York It shows how the city whether observed or reimagined always remained an essential component of James's identity New York compelled James to confront both his status as an American born male artist and his age's prevailing notions of gender sexuality class citizenship and success Tracing James's attachment to the city and how it evolved during his lifetime this book examines a wide range of James's works from his short stories and novels to his non fiction writing

Rethinking Boucher Melissa Lee Hyde, Mark Ledbury, 2006 Unequivocally a modern Francois Boucher 1703-70 defined the French artistic avant garde throughout his career Yet the triumph of modernist aesthetics with its focus on the self critical the autonomous and the intellectually challenging has long discouraged art historians and other viewers from taking Boucher's playful and alluring works seriously Rethinking Boucher revisits the cultural meanings and reception of his diverse oeuvre inviting us to revise the interpretive cliches by which we have sought to tame this artist and his epoch

Pages from the Goncourt Journals Edmond de Goncourt, Jules de Goncourt, 2006-11-14 No evocation of Parisian life in the second half of the nineteenth century can match that found in the journals of the brothers Goncourt The journal of the brothers Edmond and Jules de Goncourt is one of the masterpieces of nineteenth century French literature a work that in its richness of color variety and seemingly casual perfection bears comparison with the great paintings of their friends and contemporaries the Impressionists Born nearly ten years apart into a French aristocratic family the two brothers formed an extraordinarily productive and enduring literary partnership collaborating on novels criticism and plays that pioneered the new aesthetic of naturalism But the brothers' talents found their most memorable outlet in their journal which is at once a chronicle of an era an intimate glimpse into their lives and the purest expression of a nascent modern sensibility preoccupied with sex and art celebrity and self exposure The Goncourts visit slums brothels balls department stores and imperial receptions they argue over art and politics and trade merciless gossip with and about Hugo Baudelaire Degas Flaubert Zola Rodin and many others And in 1871 Edmond maintains a vigil as his brother dies a slow and agonizing death from syphilis recording every detail in the journal that he would continue to maintain alone for another two decades

Picturing Marie Leszczinska (1703-1768) Jennifer G Germann, 2017-07-05 Portraits of Queen Marie Leszczinska 1703-1768 were highly visible in eighteenth century France Appearing in royal chaux and after 1737 in the Parisian Salons the queen's image was central to the visual construction of the monarchy Her earliest portraits negotiated aspects of her ethnic difference French gender norms and royal rank to craft an image of an appropriate consort to the king Later portraits by Maurice Quentin de La Tour Carle Van Loo and Jean Marc Nattier contributed to changing notions of queenship over the course of her 43 year tenure Whether as royal wife devout consort or devoted mother Marie Leszczinska's image mattered While she has often been seen as a weak consort this study argues that queenly images were powerful and even necessary for Louis XV's projection of authority. This is the first study dedicated to analyzing the queen's portraits. It engages feminist theory while setting the queen's image in the context of portraiture in France, courtly factional conflict, and the history of the French monarchy. While this investigation is historically specific, it raises the larger problem of the power of women's images versus the empowerment of women, a challenge that continues to plague the representation of political women today.

Using Internet Primary Sources to Teach Critical Thinking Skills in Visual Arts Pamela J. Eyerdam, 2003-03-30 Use the Internet to teach visual arts and refine students' critical thinking skills. This book is based on the Discipline Based Art Education program, a proven art instruction program that teaches everything from the creative process and art history to criticism and aesthetics. An abundance of primary source Web sites and background information is offered. The main focus of the book is western art history and painting, but examples of sculpture, drawings, prints, and architecture are included, along with a chapter on diversity. Part I provides background material. A brief history of art education is presented, followed by a review of the components of design elements and principles. The book describes using the Internet as a primary source by identifying and evaluating websites. Part II follows the program through the main historical periods from prehistoric and ancient Middle Eastern art through the Renaissance through the 20th century. A bibliography and index are included.

Summary Catalogue of European Decorative Arts in the J. Paul Getty Museum Gillian Wilson, Catherine Hess, 2002-03-07 J. Paul Getty had a passion for the exquisitely made furniture and decorative objects of eighteenth century France, which he began collecting in the 1930s. Gillian Wilson, curator of decorative arts since 1971, has broadened and strengthened the collection, adding Boulle furniture, mounted oriental porcelain tapestries, clocks, ceramics, and more. In the 1980s and 1990s, the Museum continued to enlarge its decorative arts holdings, creating a European sculpture department in 1984 and adding glass, maiolica, goldsmiths' work, pietre dure, and furniture from Italy and Northern Europe. This book is a revised and expanded edition of Decorative Arts: An Illustrated Summary Catalogue of the Collection of the J. Paul Getty Museum (1993). In addition to more than forty recent acquisitions among these four wall sconces from Versailles that once belonged to Marie Antoinette and an elaborate upholstered bed from the collection of Karl Lagerfeld, it includes the results of years of research. Designed for scholars, students, and devotees of the decorative arts, this volume provides a comprehensive look at the Getty's fine collection.

European Clocks and Watches in The Metropolitan Museum of Art Clare Vincent, Jan Hendrik Leopold, Elizabeth Sullivan, 2015-11-25 Among the world's greatest technological and imaginative achievements is the invention and development of the timepiece. Examining for the first time The Metropolitan Museum of Art's unparalleled collection of European clocks and watches created from the late Renaissance through the nineteenth century, this fascinating book enriches our understanding of the origins and evolution of these ingenious works. It showcases fifty-four clocks, watches, and other timekeeping devices, each represented with an in-depth description and new photography of the exterior and the inner mechanisms. Among these masterpieces is an ornate sixteenth century celestial timepiece that accurately predicts the trajectory of the sun moon and stars an eighteenth century longcase clock by David Roentgen that shows the time in the ten most important cities of the day and a nineteenth century watch featuring a penetrating portrait of Czar Nicholas I of Russia Created by the best craftsmen in Austria England Flanders France Germany Italy the Netherlands and Switzerland these magnificent timepieces have been selected for their remarkable beauty and design as well as their sophisticated mechanics Built upon decades of expert research this publication is a long overdue survey of these stunning visual and technological marvels      American Poetry Walter Bates Rideout,James K. Robinson,1965 Nearly 700 poems by fifty poets from colonial times to the present      Saint-Simon and the Court of Louis XIV Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie,2001-07 The Duke of Saint Simon 1675 1755 was a self obsessed courtier and chronicler of court life under Louis XIV Drawing heavily on his memoirs historian Ladurie offers a wonderful portrait of life with Louis focusing on issues of hierarchy and rank in this tightly controlled universe Illustrations      Female Portraiture and Patronage in Marie Antoinette's Court Sarah Grant,2018-09-03 This comprehensive book brings to light the portraits private collections and public patronage of the princesse de Lamballe a pivotal member of Marie Antoinette s inner circle Drawing extensively on unpublished archival sources Sarah Grant examines the princess s many portrait commissions and the rich character of her private collections which included works by some of the period s leading artists and artisans The book sheds new light on the agency sorority and taste of Marie Antoinette and her friends a group of female patrons and model of courtly collecting that would be extinguished by the coming revolution      Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1979      French Art of the Eighteenth Century Heather Eleanor MacDonald,2016-01-01 Since 2004 the Dallas Museum of Art has been the repository of the renowned collection of eighteenth century French art assembled by the late Michael Rosenberg The long term loan of these masterpieces greatly enhances the collection of European art at the Museum and the series of scholarly lectures funded by the Foundation the Michael L Rosenberg Lecture Series gives a powerful boost to its European art program Those lectures presented by top scholars in the field of European art history are re presented in this volume
