McCarthy, 1992 Briefly traces the artist's career and presents a selection of his paintings of the old West and its mountain men Indians soldiers and cowboys Paintings of the Old West by Frank C. McCarthy Frank C. McCarthy, 1977 Conversations with Texas Writers Frances Leonard, Ramona Cearley, 2010-01-01 Larry McMurtry declares Texas itself doesn't have anything to do with why I write It never did Horton Foote on the other hand says I've just never had a desire to write about any place else In between those figurative bookends are hundreds of other writers some internationally recognized others just becoming known who draw inspiration and often subject matter from the unique places and people that are Texas To give everyone who is interested in Texas writing a representative sampling of the breadth and vitality of the state's current literary production this volume features conversations with fifty of Texas's most notable established writers and emerging talents The writers included here work in a wide variety of genres novels short stories poetry plays screenplays essays nonfiction and magazine journalism In their conversations with interviewers from the Writers League of Texas and other authors organizations the writers speak of their apprenticeships literary influences working habits connections with their readers and the domestic and public events that have shaped their writing Accompanying the interviews are excerpts from the writers work as well as their photographs biographies and bibliographies Joe Holley's introductory essay an overview of Texas writing from Cabeza de Vaca's 1542 Relacion to the work of today's generation of writers who are equally at home in Hollywood as in Texas provides the necessary context to appreciate such a diverse collection of literary voices A sampling from the book This land has been my subject matter One thing that distinguishes me from the true naturalist is that I've never been able to look at land without thinking of the people who've been on it It's fundamental to me John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause take a deep breath look around see what's there and return to where we were revived Naomi Shihab Nye I've said this many times in print the novel is the middle age genre Very few people have written really good novels when they are young and few people have written really good novels when they are old You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration Your imaginative energy begins to lag I feel like I'm repeating myself and most writers do repeat themselves Larry McMurtry I was a pretty poor cowhand I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane Texas My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me but in my case it never seemed to work too well I had more of a literary bent I loved to read and very early on I began to write small stories short stories out of the things I liked to read Elmer Kelton Life in the Saddle Frank Collinson, 1997-03-01 Englishman Frank Collinson went to Texas in 1872 when he was seventeen to work on Will Noonan's ranch near Castroville He lived the rest of his life in the southwestern United States and at the age of seventy nine began writing about the Old West he knew and loved He had a flair for writing a phenomenal memory and a passion for truth that is evident in what he wrote and said His writings for Ranch Romances his letters and transcriptions of his conversations have been arranged here in roughly chronological order so that their importance for frontier history is readily apparent Collinson ranged the West in his writings as he did in person telling of the last tragic days of buffalo hunting on the Plains clashes between hunters or cowboys and the Plains Indians the character of trail drivers and the definitive nature of violence particularly at gun point J Frank Dobie said of Collinson In the realm of frontier chronicles the writing of educated Englishmen men with the perspective of civilization with imagination and a lust for primitive nature stand out To this class of men belongs Frank Collinson
