Dacus, 2023-11-20 In Life and Adventures of Frank and Jesse James The Infamous Western Outlaws Joseph A Dacus crafts a compelling narrative that intertwines historical biography with vivid storytelling Dacus employs a rich descriptive literary style that engages readers providing an immersive glimpse into the lives of these notorious figures Set against the backdrop of post Civil War America

Dacus captures the social turmoil and mythic qualities surrounding the James brothers framing their exploits not only as criminal activities but as emblematic of a larger American experience characterized by rebellion heroism and tragedy Joseph A Dacus a historian with a keen interest in the folklore of the American West draws upon extensive research and personal narratives that illuminate the motivations and circumstances that shaped Frank and Jesse s lives This background informs his keen insights into their personalities and the public s fascination with them as both outlaws and Robin Hood figures Dacus s engagement with the cultural narratives of the period adds depth to his portrayal making the brothers more than mere criminals in a tale of lawlessness This book is a must read for enthusiasts of American history folklore and western literature Dacus s meticulous research and engaging prose allow readers to reflect on the complexities of the James brothers as cultural icons offering a nuanced understanding that transcends simple categorization as outlaws Their lives serve as a mirror to the societal questions of justice and morality making this work both enlightening and thought provoking

The Life and Poetry of Frank Stanford James McWilliams, 2025-07-01 The full throated biography fans have been yearning for Kirkus Starred Review April 2025 When twenty nine year old Frank Stanford put three bullets in his chest on June 3 1978 he ended a life that had been inextricably linked with poetry since childhood Deeply influential but largely unknown outside his corner of the poetry world this prodigy of the American South inspired a cult following that has kept his reputation and work flickering on the periphery of the American literary tradition ever since The Life and Poetry of Frank Stanford offers for the first time a comprehensive study of Stanford s life and work introducing to a broad readership poetry that remains both captivating to poets and in its celebration of everyday experience over academic erudition accessible to those who rarely read poetry Stanford s poems range from one line to his 15 283 line epic The Battlefield Where the Moon Says I Love You The vital thread running through all of his poetry is an ear for language that vies with Walt Whitman in its expansiveness and generosity Stanford s omnivorous attraction to vernacular particularly Black and rural vernacular centered on an admiration for the marginalized and eccentric Blending the Southern Gothic of Faulkner and O Connor with a racially egalitarian vision his poetry thrives on the stories and traditions of the oppressed and forgotten The themes that preoccupied Stanford s prolific output language sex death class geography commercialism surrealism film race also preoccupied the poet in his daily life which was marked by heavy drinking philandering mental instability emotional abuse and through it all an inveterate desire for beauty Constantly attentive to this tension biographer James McWilliams traces the short and painfully complicated life of this hidden talent who left a lifetime s worth of poetry that through its grounding in the mundane achieved a vision of the transcendent hidden behind the phenomenon that her posthumously published Diary produced This concise biography will rediscover Anne Frank telling her story from the beginning to the tragic end It will place her life within the wider context of the Holocaust itself and also explore her afterlife seeking to explain why her Diary still speaks to us today Zoe Waxman is a senior research fellow at the Oxford Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies She was educated at the universities of York Warwick and Oxford and was previously lecturer in history at Mansfield College Oxford and then lecturer and fellow in Holocaust Studies at Royal Holloway University of London She has published widely on gender genocide and the history of ideas Her first book was Writing the Holocaust identity testimony representation OUP 2006 Her next book A Feminist History of the Holocaust is under contract with OUP

Francogallia François Hotman, Ralph E. Giesey, 2010-06-10 For at least two centuries after its first appearance in 1573 Hotman's Francogallia influenced the way in which men regarded the European past and appraised the validity of political institutions The intricate collation of the variorum Latin readings by Professor Giesey here demonstrates that nearly half the complete work consists of material added by Hotman to later editions in such a manner as substantially to modify the argument and balance of the original Francogallia This definitive Latin edition contains a facing English translation by Professor Salmon and a joint introduction in which the editors discuss the genesis and development of the text which can no longer be regarded as written in response to the massacre of St Bartholomew The editors analyse the discordant elements in Hotman's thought as his Calvinist background his fundamentalism in both constitutional and religious doctrine and his ambivalent attitude to his profession as an eminent jurist

Anne Frank Silent Witnesses Ronald Wilfred Jansen, 2014 Ronald Wilfred Jansen visited Anne Frank's home addresses in Frankfurt am Main Aachen and Amsterdam her hiding place the Secret Annex and the Westerbork Auschwitz Birkenau and Bergen Belsen concentration camps where Anne Frank was imprisoned His book describes her history and the objects that today still remind us of the environment in which she lived

His motivation for writing this book is that it was one of the last opportunities he would have to contact the people who knew Anne these people revealed some new facts about her and her world Other contemporaries of Anne Frank also contributed fascinating information about her surroundings By tracing her footsteps he gained a more complete picture of Anne Frank and her environment Marion County, Alabama Newspaper Clippings, 1902 - 1904 Robin Sterling, 2015-02-21 Journalism in Marion County got its start in April 1885 with the Marion County Herald Soon other upstart papers sprang up to compete with the Herald Over the years several newspapers vied for the dominant spot This is the fourth volume of a series of books containing newspaper clippings from the earliest existing papers from Marion County This volume contains the year 1902 through 1904 The clippings in this volume concentrate with notes of births deaths and marriages It also contains articles which were important to the history and growth of the county The history of the county is written in the pages of its earliest newspapers Read what the ancestors of the people of Marion County were doing and talking about Egypt and Syria under Mamluk Rule Amalia Levanoni, 2021-12-06 The studies in this volume explore central topics characterizing the political social and economic systems of Egypt and Syria under Mamluk rule 1250 1517 Drawing on Arabic sources including archival material poetry and chronicles as well as modern research literature twelve leading scholars in the field analyze a vast range of issues in Mamluk history and provide new perspectives on pivotal features such as European Mamluk diplomacy social relationships and identity in Mamluk society rural and urban economy and water management in late medieval Egypt and Syria reflecting major research trends in Mamluk history over the last four decades With contributions by Fr d ric Bauden Stuart J Borsch Joseph Drory Kurt Franz Yehosua Frenkel Daisuke Igarashi Yaacov Lev Amalia Levanoni Li Guo Carl F Petry Jo Van Steenberg Koby Yosef Tiny You Jennifer L. Holland, 2020-04-07 Caroline Bancroft History Prize 2021 Denver Public Library Armitage Jameson Prize 2021 Coalition of Western Women s History David J Weber Prize 2021 Western History Association W Turrentine Jackson Prize 2021 Western History Association Tiny You tells the story of one of the most successful political movements of the twentieth century the grassroots campaign against legalized abortion While Americans have rapidly changed their minds about sex education pornography arts funding gay teachers and ultimately gay marriage opposition to legalized abortion has only grown As other socially conservative movements have lost young activists the pro life movement has successfully recruited more young people to its cause Jennifer L Holland explores why abortion dominates conservative politics like no other cultural issue Looking at anti abortion movements in four western states since the 1960s turning to the fetal pins passed around church services the graphic images exchanged between friends and the fetus dolls given to children in school she argues that activists made fetal life feel personal to many Americans Pro life activists persuaded people to see themselves in the pins images and dolls they held in their hands and made the fight against abortion the primary bread and butter issue for social conservatives Holland ultimately demonstrates that the success of the pro life movement lies in the borrowed logic and emotional power of leftist activism Lives of Mississippi
