Rodman Philbrick, 1993 At the beginning of eighth grade learning disabled Max and his new friend Freak whose birth defect has affected his body but not his brilliant mind find that when they combine forces they make a powerful team Freak the Mighty [by] Rodman Philbrick Katherine Burdick, 1999 Provides activities and discussion to be used with Freak the mighty by Rodman Philbrick For grades 5-9 Lyrics Sting, 2009-07-16 From the first Police album Outlandos D'Amour through Sacred Love here are the collected lyrics written by Sting along with his commentary Publishing my lyrics separately from their musical accompaniment is something that I've studiously avoided until now The two lyrics and music have always been mutually dependent in much the same way as a mannequin and a set of clothes are dependent on each other separate them and what remains is a naked dummy and a pile of cloth Nevertheless the exercise has been an interesting one seeing perhaps for the first time how successfully the lyrics survive on their own and inviting the question as to whether song lyrics are in fact poetry or something else entirely And while I've never seriously described myself as a poet the book in your hands devoid as it is of any musical notation looks suspiciously like a book of poems So it seems I am entering with some trepidation the unadorned realm of the poet I have set out my compositions in the sequence they were written and provided a little background when I thought it might be illuminating My wares have neither been sorted nor dressed in clothes that do not belong to them indeed they have been shorn of the very garments that gave them their shape in the first place No doubt some of them will perish in the cold cruelty of this new environment and yet others may prove more resilient and become perhaps more beautiful in their naked state I can't predict the outcome but I have taken this risk knowingly and while no one in their right mind should ever attempt to set The Waste Land to music in the hopeful words of T.S. Eliot These fragments I have shored against my ruins Sting from the Introduction The Ultimate Teen Book Guide Daniel Hahn, Leonie Flynn, Susan Reuben, 2007-12-26 Covering such genres as fantasy horror chick lit graphic novels sci fi and mystery an all encompassing must have resource profiles more than 700 of the best books for teens from the classics to the latest bestsellers Simultaneous From Wallflowers to Bulletproof Families Abbye E. Meyer, 2022-02-04 Uses of disability in literature are often problematic and harmful to disabled people This is also true of course in children's and young adult literature but interestingly when disability is paired and confused with adolescence in narratives compelling complex arcs often arise In From Wallflowers to Bulletproof Families The Power of Disability in Young Adult Narratives author Abbye E Meyer examines different ways authors use and portray disability in literature She demonstrates how narratives about and for young adults differ from the norm With a distinctive young adult voice based in disability these narratives allow for readings that conflate and complicate both adolescence and disability Throughout Meyer examines common representations of disability and more importantly the ways that young adult narratives expose these tropes and explicitly challenge harmful messages they might otherwise reinforce She illustrates how two dimensional characters allow literary metaphors to work while forcing texts to ignore reality and reinforce the assumption that disability is a problem to be fixed She sifts the freak characters often marked as disabled and she reclaims the derided genre of problem novels arguing they empower disabled characters and introduce the goals of disability rights movements The analysis offered expands to include narratives in other media nonfiction essays and memoirs songs television series films and digital narratives These contemporary works affected by digital media combine elements of literary criticism narrative expression disability theory and political activism to create and represent the solidarity of family like communities

Using Literature to Help Troubled Teenagers Cope with Health Issues Cynthia Ann Bowman, 2000-03-30 Today traditional illnesses and high risk behaviors of adolescents have become interrelated through the multitude of physical social and emotional changes young people experience Good literature which gives adolescents the truth has incredible power to heal and to renew This reference resource provides a link for teachers media specialists parents and other adults to those novels that can help adolescents struggling with health issues Educators and therapists explore novels where common health issues are addressed in ways to captivate teens Using fictional characters these experts provide guidance on encouraging adolescents to cope while improving their reading and writing skills With the advancement in medicine traditional types of health issues such as birth defects cancer and sensory impairment have shifted to more behavior related problems such as depression alcoholism and eating disorders All of these issues and others are examined from both a literary and psychological perspective in thirteen chapters that explore health issues through fiction Each chapter confronts a different health issue and is written by a literature specialist who has teamed up with a therapist In each novel these experts define the central character's struggle in coming to terms with an issue and growing in response to their difficulties Annotated bibliographies of other works both fiction and nonfiction explore these same issues give readers insight into helping teenagers with similar problems and provide the tools with which to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems

The Big Dark Rodman Philbrick, 2016-01-05 In this page turning adventure by Newbery Honor author Rodman Philbrick a solar event knocks out our planet's electricity and a boy must risk his life to save his sick mother What would you do if every spark of electricity suddenly vanished as if somebody had flipped a switch on the entire planet Cars won't start the heat shuts off there's no water in your faucet and your radio TV and flashlight go dark Everyone in Charlie's small town is baffled But as time passes lawlessness erupts and takes an ugly turn When the market and pharmacy are torched by an anti Semitic arsonist Charlie realizes his mother will die without her medicine So he dons skis and heads off alone seeking the nearest hospital After traveling 50 miles through brutal ice and
