the North Wind express MacDonald's conviction that a right imagination is the voice of God while Divine Children in The Wise Woman and The Golden Key communicate his belief that true childhood is the Divine nature. The great grandmother in the Princess books a personification of the multi-dimensional activity of Divine Wisdom springs from the Judeo-Christian Sophia and the classical Athena while Kore figures in The Princess and the Goblin, Lilith and Phantastes represent the transforming descents of Persephone and Christ. This book shows MacDonald's fantasies as a chronological bridge anchored in the traditions of the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament incorporating the teachings of Christian mysticism and theistic Romanticism and linking to the contemporary concerns in Western society that have given birth to the New Age. The Christian goddess portrayed in these fantasies may strike the reader as a Deity whose time has come.
