Historical Dictionary of Prophets in Islam and Judaism Scott B. Noegel,Brannon M. Wheeler,2002-09-26 Both traditions recognize and draw theological and historical lessons from some of the same narrative sources but this is the first comparative resource to provide interdisciplinary coverage of the history and textual sources associated with prophets and prophecy This thorough treatment of a difficult and increasingly controversial subject area will encourage and cultivate knowledge and understanding Entries are drawn from five main fields 1 Ancient Near Eastern Studies 2 Bible and Biblical Studies 3 Judaism and Jewish Studies 4 The Quran and Quranic Studies 5 Islam and Islamic Studies Noegel and Wheeler treat each entry as a compilation of relevant data culled from these different traditions in order to take the reader beyond the expected parameters of research Originally envisioned as an initial resource for students of comparative religion the extensive chronology bibliography list of acronyms and the overall accessibility of the passages make the Dictionary suitable for a much wider audience Islam and World History Edmund Burke,Robert J. Mankin,2018-11-05 Published in 1974

Marshall Hodgson's The Venture of Islam was a watershed moment in the study of Islam. By locating the history of Islamic societies in a global perspective, Hodgson challenged the orientalist paradigms that had stunted the development of Islamic studies and provided an alternative approach to world history. Edited by Edmund Burke III and Robert Mankin, Islam and World History explores the complexity of Hodgson's thought, the daring of his ideas, and the global context of his world historical insights into among other themes, Islam and world history, gender in Islam, and the problem of Muslim universality. In our post 9/11 world, Hodgson's historical vision and moral engagement have never been more relevant. A towering achievement, Islam and World History will prove to be the definitive statement on Hodgson's relevance in the twenty-first century and will introduce his influential work to a new generation of readers.

world wars and an age of publishing that dramatically changed in its lifetime The Traditions of Islam Alfred Guillaume,1924 A History of Orthodox, Islamic, and Western Christian Political Values Dennis J. Dunn,2016-09-13

The book reveals the nexus between religion and politics today and shows that we live in an interdependent world where one global civilization is emerging and where the world's peoples are continuing to coalesce around a series of values that contain potent Western overtones Both Putin's Orthodox Russia and regions under the control of such Islamist groups like ISIS and Al Qaeda resent and attempt in a largely languishing effort to frustrate this series of values The book explains the current tension between the West and Russia and parts of the Muslim world and sheds light on the causes of such crises as the Syrian Civil War Russia's aggression against Ukraine and acts of terrorism such as 9/11 and the ISIS inspired massacres in Paris It shows that religion continues to affect global order and that knowledge of its effect on political identity and global governance should guide both government policy and scholarly analysis of contemporary history Cultivating the Past, Living the Modern Amal Sachedina,2021-09-15

Cultivating the Past Living the Modern explores how and why heritage has emerged as a prevalent force in building the modern nation state of Oman Amal Sachedina analyses the relations with the past that undergird the shift in Oman from an Ibadi shari'a Imamate 1913-1958 to a modern nation state from 1970 onwards Since its inception as a nation state material forms in the Sultanate of Oman such as old mosques and shari'a manuscripts restored forts national symbols such as the coffee pot or the dagger khanjar and archaeological sites have saturated the landscape becoming increasingly ubiquitous as part of a standardized public and visual memorialization of the past Oman's expanding heritage industry exemplified by the boom in museums exhibitions street montages and cultural festivals shapes a distinctly national geography and territorialized narrative But Cultivating the Past Living the Modern demonstrates there are consequences to this celebration of heritage As the national narrative conditions the way people ethically work on themselves through evoking forms of heritage it also generates anxieties and emotional sensibilities that seek to address the erasures and occlusions of the past Family And Religious Studies A-Level (ZIMSEC) Past Exam Questions and Model Answers David Chitate,2024-06-06
