Hawaiian Legends in English A. Grove Day, Amos P. Leib, 2021-05-25 Over the past two centuries a considerable number of Hawaiian legends have been translated into English Although this material has been the subject of studies in anthropology ethnology and comparative mythology no study has been made of the translations and the translators themselves Nor has a definitive bibliography of published translations been compiled The purpose of this volume is to provide an extensive annotated bibliography of both primary translations and secondary retellings in English together with a historical and critical study of the more important translations

Resources in Education, 2001 Ignite: A Decolonial Approach to Higher Education Through Space, Place and Culture Laura M. Pipe, Jennifer T. Stephens, 2023-05-09 Social justice frameworks and pedagogical practice have become popular concepts within educational settings However these approaches stop short of the direct action required for true social change and often overlook the impacts and importance of space place and culture in the learning process Through an exploration of justice forward approaches that call for a blend of equity and culturally responsive pedagogies with experiential approaches to learning this edited book will examine the process of unlinking colonizing structures from teaching and learning through honoring the context of space place and culture in the learning process Framed by the Toward a Liberated Learning Spirit TALLS Model for Developing Critical Consciousness this book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers in higher education as well as critical and cultural studies apart from program administrators and educators Ignite a Decolonial Approach to Higher Education Through Space Place and Culture will carry the reader through a learning process beginning with academic detachment and moving through a process of unlearning toward embodied liberation
