Warner,George Henry Warner,1902 Digital Poetics Fernando Nascimento,2025-07-10 Drawing on Paul

Ricoeur's narrative theory and ethics Fernando Nascimento argues for a new approach to integrating ethics into digital technology development use and regulation This book introduces the concept of digital poetics to address the unprecedented ethical challenges posed by ubiquitous intimate and plastic digital technologies Nascimento proposes narrative deliberation as a framework for ethical decision making contextualizing moral principles encouraging public debate intertwining technique with ethics and employing narrative imagination to overcome practical dilemmas By examining three spheres of deliberation developers users and institutions Digital Poetics offers a multidimensional analysis of ethical considerations in the digital realm This book presents digital poetics as both a utopian ideal and an ethical imperative which can respond to the rapid pace of technological change and the complexity of implementing ethical frameworks in digital contexts

Signature in the Cell Stephen C. Meyer, 2009-06-23 This book attempts to make a comprehensive interdisciplinary case for a new view of the origin of life Prologue The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 The Cumulative Book Index, 1933 Library of the World's Best Literature Charles Dudley Warner, 1899 Issues in Science and Theology: What is Life? Dirk Evers, Michael Fuller, Antje Jackelén, Knut-Willy Sæther, 2015-06-03 This book explores the concept of Life from a range of perspectives Divided into three parts it first examines the concept of Life from physics to biology It then presents insights on the concept from the perspectives of philosophy theology and ethics The book concludes with chapters on the hermeneutics of Life and pays special attention to the Biosemiotics approach to the concept The question What is Life has been deliberated by the greatest minds throughout human history Life as we know it is not a substance or fundamental property but a complex process It is not an easy task to develop an unequivocal approach towards Life combining scientific semiotic philosophical theological and ethical perspectives In its combination of these perspectives and its wide ranging scope this book opens up levels and identifies issues which can serve as intersections for meaningful interdisciplinary discussions of Life in its different aspects The book includes the four plenary lectures and selected revised and extended papers from workshops of the 14th European Conference on Science and Theology ECST XIV held in Tartu Estonia April 2012 Theistic Evolution J. P. Moreland, Stephen C. Meyer, Christopher Shaw, Ann K. Gauger, Wayne Grudem, 2020-06-20 Winner of the ECPA Book of the Year Award for Bible Reference Works Many prominent Christians insist that the church must yield to contemporary evolutionary theory and therefore modify traditional biblical ideas about the creation of life They argue that God used albeit in an undetectable way evolutionary mechanisms to produce all forms of life Featuring two dozen highly credentialed scientists philosophers and theologians from Europe and North America this volume contests this proposal documenting evidential logical and theological problems with theistic evolution making it the most comprehensive critique of theistic evolution yet produced Explains why theistic evolution is not congruent with a biblical worldview Features nineteen essays written by well known experts in their fields Designed to be used as a textbook for courses on religion and evolution Accessible for those without expertise in the subject Women and Urban Life in

Eighteenth-Century England Rosemary Sweet, Penelope Lane, 2017-03-02 Despite the considerable volume of research into various aspects of the social and economic cultural and political history of eighteenth century British towns remarkably little has focused upon or even reflected upon the distinctive experience of women in the urban context Much of what research there is has explored the experience of laboring or impoverished women or women of the social elite by contrast the essays in this collection take up the study of the participation of middling women in urban life This volume brings into sharper focus the relationship between changes consequent upon urban development and shifts in the pattern of gender relations in the 18th century The contributors address such themes as the extent to which to what extent urban change accelerated a redefinition of gender relations the connections between urban growth changing definitions of citizenship and the emergence of the male gendered political subject the role of women in a literate consumer and industrializing society the place of women's networks in the economic political and social life of the town and the distinctive role played by women in areas such as philanthropy and business and how the development of urban society in turn inflected contemporary conceptualizations of gender

The Spirit in Romans 8 Marcin Kowalski, 2023-12-04 Kowalski addresses the Pauline understanding of the Spirit in Romans 8 as compared to the Stoic idea of pneuma The author first analyzes the Stoic views on pneuma perceived in a variety of life giving cognitive ethical unifying reproductive and inspiring functions The aforementioned features are taken as a starting point for the comparison with Paul to which however the third element is added the Jewish texts of the Second Temple period These include the Old Testament but also The Book of Enoch The Book of Jubilees Qumran The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs The Psalms of Solomon Philo of Alexandria Flavius Josephus LAB Joseph and Aseneth 4 Book of Ezra and 2 Book of Baruch Such a rich comparative material contributes to the novelty of the book and enables the reader to discover both the similarities and differences between Paul Greco Roman and Jewish authors The study analyzes Romans 8 in its rhetorical context and brings to light the novelty of the Pauline view of the Spirit The apostle portrays it in its primary cognitive ethical and communitarian function of making the believers similar to Christ and inculcating in them the Lord's mindset and attitudes Paul presents the Spirit as dwelling within a person similarly to God inhabiting the Jerusalem temple and as the mediator of the resurrected life In the original Pauline take the Spirit enables a close union between God and human beings in which the latter keep their freedom and distinctive personal traits

Chapman, 2004 This book is a history and analysis of the government department most important in the development of the unified Civil Service in the United Kingdom Intermarriage and the Friendship of Peoples Adrienne Edgar, 2022-05-15 Co winner of the Central Eurasian Studies Society's prize for best book in History and the Humanities in 2022 and 2023 and winner of the The Joseph Rothschild Prize in Nationalism and Ethnic Studies of the Association for the Study of Nationalities Intermarriage and the Friendship of Peoples examines the racialization of identities and its impact on mixed couples and families in Soviet Central Asia In marked contrast to its Cold War rivals the Soviet Union celebrated mixed marriages among its diverse ethnic groups as a sign of the unbreakable friendship of peoples and the imminent emergence of a single Soviet people Yet the official Soviet view of ethnic nationality became increasingly primordial and even racialized in the USSR's final decades In this context Adrienne Edgar argues mixed families and individuals found it impossible to transcend ethnicity fully embrace their complex identities and become simply Soviet Looking back on their lives in the Soviet Union ethnically mixed people often reported that the official nationality in their identity documents did not match their subjective feelings of identity that they were unable to speak their own native language and that their ambiguous physical appearance prevented them from claiming the nationality with which they most identified In all these ways mixed couples and families were acutely and painfully affected by the growth of ethnic primordialism and by the tensions between the national and supranational projects in the Soviet Union Intermarriage and the Friendship of Peoples is based on more than eighty in depth oral history interviews with members of mixed families in Kazakhstan and Tajikistan along with published and unpublished Soviet documents scholarly and popular articles from the Soviet press memoirs and films and interviews with Soviet era sociologists and ethnographers A Companion to Life Course Studies Michael E.J. Wadsworth, John Bynner, 2011-03-28 Since the end of the Second World War society has been characterised by rapid and extensive political economic scientific and technological change Opportunities for education employment human relations and good health have all been greatly affected by those changes as have all aspects of life Consequently each post war generation has been like no other before or since Britain uniquely has five large scale life course studies that began at intervals throughout that period They have shown how lives are shaped by individual characteristics their past and current experiences and opportunities and so reflect their times This book describes those fundamental changes that affected life chances differently in each generation and how governments struggled to accommodate the changes with new policies for improving and managing the nation's capital in terms of education family policy health human rights and economics A Companion to Life Course Studies provides a resource for the interpretation of the findings and design differences in the five studies and the stimulus for new comparisons of life course between these differing generations that would contribute to policy and to understanding Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1906

Transplanting Modernity? Thomas B. Robertson,Jenny Leigh Smith,2023-10-24 In general development denotes movement or growth toward something better in the future International development widespread in the decades following World War II was an effort at purposeful change in landscapes around the world Contributors to this volume argue that these projects constituted an effort to transplant modernity such as knowledge or technology from places seen as more developed to places perceived as un or underdeveloped During its heyday international development included not just dams roads health programs and agricultural projects but also animal husbandry schemes urban development and wildlife protection plans Projects often succeeded or failed because of existing environmental conditions and in turn these programs remade or tried to remake the land water wildlife and people around them From American directed failures in water engineering in Afghanistan to the impact of livestock epidemics on economic growth in East Africa the chapters in Transplanting Modernity question how science technology and faith in Western notions of progress have influenced the pace scope and scale of development
