The Use of the Jewish Scriptures in the Johannine Passion Narrative David M. Allen, 2024-05-13 How do Israel's Scriptures inform the account of Jesus's cruciform death in the Gospel of John? What does it mean for John's portrayal of Jesus's death to be according to the Scriptures? The Use of the Jewish Scriptures in the Johannine Passion Narrative That the Scripture May Be Perfected argues that they are the focal element of the Johannine portrayal and without them John's Passion Narrative simply makes no sense. Whether through the evangelist's appeal to the fulfilment of Scripture with such fulfilment accompanying the very moment of Jesus's death or whether through allusions to the narratives of Creation or Passover Israel's Scriptures provide the Passion Narrative's veritable heartbeat. This book also considers the impact of John's scriptural usage on the very concept of Scripture itself, contending that Scripture is brought to perfection by Jesus's actions and to a new standing or status in this regard. David M. Allen examines how the use of Scripture in the Passion account impacts the Fourth Gospel's own self-understanding, arguing that its capacity to pronounce on Scripture's fulfilment attests to the Gospel's own self-avowed scriptural credentials.

A Spirituality That Secularizes Emerito P. Nacpil, 2015-03-17 Bishop Nacpil's book connects the creator with the creation. It deals with the longing for the elusive and unfathomable something that strengthens reader's relationship with the creator. It delves into his or her relationship with God and God's relationship with the person as an unbreakable bond which Bishop Nacpil describes as a spirituality that secularizes. He describes how the Spirit is at work within each person, empowering them to make choices that promote, preserve, and enrich creation. Without the Spirit, everyone would float above their vessel of clay rather than fully living in it. The book enables the reader to see not only a meaningful wholeness out of his or her frenzied life but also that the good each person does in the secular world is their active participation in the work of the Spirit.

The Significance of the Temple Incident in the Narratives of the Four Gospels Deolito V. Vistar, 2018-11-08 Deolito Vistar brings a new perspective to the interpretation of the temple incident, a key event in Jesus' life, by approaching the subject not from the historical Jesus point of view but from that of the authors of the Gospels. Using composition criticism as a method, Vistar sensitively analyzes the four Gospels' accounts of the incident and shows areas of commonalities and crucial areas where the four evangelists have their own distinctive understanding of what Jesus meant by his protest in the temple. This book is a helpful example of the use of composition analysis in the exegesis of Gospel texts. It is also a helpful study of what is now generally taken for granted in Gospel scholarship: that the four evangelists were both historians and theologians.

The Problem of the Idea of Culture in John Paul II John Corrigan, 2019-11-13 In The Problem of the Idea of Culture in John Paul II Exposing the Disruptive Agency of the Philosophy of Karol Wojtyla John Corrigan provides a new lens with which to view and understand the philosophy of Karol Wojtyla John Paul II He exposes Wojtyla as a major player in contemporary philosophical debates The work reformulates the problem of experience in light of the questions surrounding our idea of culture Corrigan argues that for Wojtyla the drama of the problem of experience manifests in the apparently divergent accounts of the meaning of human experience as presented by the philosophies of being and of consciousness Solving this conundrum results in an idea of the person capable of explaining human experience in relation to human culture unfolding the experiences of self knowledge conscience and the ontic causal relationship of the person to human culture The first part of the book concerns formal considerations regarding the constitutive aspects of Wojtyla's approach while the second part deals with pragmatic considerations drawn from his comments on culture

Judgment According to Works in Romans Kevin W. McFadden, 2013-10-01 Kevin W McFadden shows that Paul wrote the letter to remind Roman Christians of his gospel because of his vocation as apostle to the Gentiles The letter simultaneously demonstrates the guilt of the world and calls Paul's audience to live out the implications of the gospel The theme of judgment thus appears in two distinct ways Paul opposes justification by works of law but simultaneously affirms as did most of the early Christian movement McFadden argues a final judgment according to works These are not contradictory observations but belong together in a cohesive understanding of Paul's theology and of his purpose in the letter

These Brothers of Mine Rob Dalrymple, 2015-05-11 While the conflict in the Middle East continues to fester many Christians advance a theology that perceives these events to be the hand of God Has God truly brought the Jewish people back to the land in fulfillment of biblical prophecies Must we truly bless Israel in order to be blessed by God Lost in the midst of the turmoil over the Holy Land reside Christian communities Has the church in an effort to see prophecy fulfilled failed to care for the least of these brothers of mine This book steps into this controversial topic with several aims First Dalrymple answers two key questions Are the Jews still God's chosen people And does the Holy Land belong to them Dalrymple contends that just as Jesus is the fulfillment of God's purpose for the Temple so also Jesus is the fulfillment of the promises to Abraham that he would receive the Holy Land and an uncountable number of descendants Dalrymple also responds to some of the common assertions set forth by Christian Zionists Many might still ask Why should I care about what happens in Israel and Palestine The fact is that we must care And we must alert the Church that we must care Too much is at stake We have Christian brothers and sisters throughout the Middle East in general and in the Holy Land in particular who have been directly impacted by our theological opinions As a result the Church cannot be silent It must not be silent
