

In The Realm Of Pleasure

William Irwin, Jorge J. E. Gracia

In The Realm Of Pleasure:

In the Realm of Pleasure Gaylyn Studlar, 1992 In a major revision of feminist psychoanalytic theories of film pleasure and sexual difference Studlar's close textual analysis of the six Paramount films directed by Josef von Sternberg and starring Marlene Dietrich probes the source of their visual and psychological complexity Borrowing from Gilles Deleuze's psychoanalytic literary approach Studlar shows how masochism extends beyond the clinical realm into the arena of artistic form language and production of pleasure The author's examination of the von Sternberg Dietrich collaborations shows how these films with the mother figure embodied in the alluring yet androgynous Dietrich offer a key for understanding film's masochistic aesthetic Studlar argues that masochism's broader significance to film study lies in the similarities between the structures of perversion and those of the cinematic apparatus as a dream screen reviving archaic visual pleasures for both male and female spectators

Designed for Pleasures Samuel Segun Oladipo, 2021-01-13 It can be affirmed that ALL THINGS were originally designed for PLEASURES because there was NEVER evil in the original creation The originator of the idea of creation had no evil in Him neither could He ever imagine creating any singular thing to represent evil Therefore there was no evil thought evil plan evil agenda at any state or realm Even Satan the embodiment of all evils was not originally created with any spot of evil as portrayed in Ezekiel 28 13 15 Everything about Adam everything Adam tasted everything Adam used everything Adam felt Just like God after all creations and everything Adam saw were VERY GOOD without any exception Adam originally had the mind and the Spirit of God And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man became a living soul Genesis 2 7 He was therefore pleased by everything within and around him They were all created for his pleasures too Moreover all the things that God created received nothing short of his maximum blessings The blessing of the LORD it maketh rich and he addeth no sorrow with it Proverbs 10 22 Here are some postulations in respect to the continuity of God's designed pleasures for His creatures 1 What if there was no Devil 2 What if there was no tempter or temptation 3 What if Eve and Adam had overcome the temptation 4 What if there was no curse from God the Creator Well you can be sure that the original plan and purpose of the Creator would have continued forever Nothing void of good pleasure ever originated from God hence the original motive of God in whatsoever He created was pleasure and for the pleasure of whom He originally bestowed them at any given time When all is said and done at the consummation of all things When there shall be the emergence of the New Heaven and a New Earth His purpose and desire will still have the original label and signature Thou art worthy O Lord to receive glory and honor and power for thou hast created all things and for thy pleasure they are and were created Revelation 4 11 which will ultimately be to the pleasure and delight of all creatures that will be with the Creator throughout eternity Thinking in Images Catherine Constable, 2019-07-25 Thinking in Images addresses the current crisis in film theory by offering a new methodology for interrelating theory and film texts Drawing on the groundbreaking work of Michele Le Doeuff the author argues that philosophy is reliant on socio cultural images such as the figures of the veiled woman the femme fatale and the seductress The author traces the key role played by such images of woman in the theorisations of beauty art and truth offered by Nietzsche and his successors Derrida Kofman and Baudrillard Importantly the recognition that images are crucial to theorising means that film images have the capacity to challenge and change previous theoretical models This is demonstrated by a case study of three films from the Dietrich Sternberg cycle The Scarlet Empress The Devil is a Woman and Shanghai Express The detailed readings focus on the ways in which Dietrich s glamorous characters challenge the theorisation of woman as a beautiful object thus offering new ways of conceptualising woman s role as the icon of beauty art and truth

Philosophy and the Interpretation of Pop Culture William Irwin, Jorge J. E. Gracia, 2007 Containing thirteen articles this book makes the case to philosophers that popular culture is worthy of their attention It considers popular art forms such as movies television shows comic books children s stories photographs and rock songs

Simultaneity and Delay Jay Lampert, 2012-02-09 Through original speculations on the surprisingly complementary concepts of simultaneity and delay and new interpretations of the great philosophers of time this book proposes an innovative theory of staggered time In the early 20th Century Bergson and Husserl following Einstein made Simultaneity what it means for events to occur at the same time a central motif in philosophy In the late 20th Century Derrida and Deleuze instead emphasized Delay events staggered over distant times This struggle between convergent and staggered time also plays out in 20th Century aesthetics especially music politics and the sciences Despite their importance in the history of philosophy this is the first book to comprehensively examine the concepts of simultaneity and delay By putting simultaneity and delay into a dialectical relation this book argues that time in general is organized by elastic rhythms Lampert s concepts describe the time structures of such diverse phenomena as atonal music political decision making neuronal delays leaps of memory and the boredom of waiting and simultaneities and delays in everyday experience and behaviour regarding aesthetics by going back to the very beginnings of aesthetic thought in Greece and raising critical issues regarding conceptions of how one responds to the beautiful Despite a recent rebirth of interest in aesthetics extensive discussion of this key cluster of topics has been absent Anastasia Erasmia Peponi argues that although the Greek language had no formal term equivalent to the aesthetic the notion was deeply rooted in Greek thought Her analysis centers on a dominant aspect of beauty the aural associated with a highly influential sector of culture that comprised both poetry and instrumental music the activity of the Muses or mousik The main argument relies on a series of close readings of literary and philosophical texts from Homer and Plato through Kant Joyce and Proust Through detailed attention to such scenes as Odysseus encounter with the Sirens and Hermes playing of his lyre for his brother Apollo she demonstrates that the most telling moments in the conceptualization of the aesthetic come in the Greeks debates and struggles over intense models of auditory pleasure Unlike current tendencies to treat poetry as an early imperfect mode of meditating upon such issues Peponi claims that Greek poetry and philosophy employed equally complex albeit different ways of articulating notions of aesthetic response Her approach often leads her to partial or total disagreement with earlier interpretations of some of the most well known Greek texts of the archaic and classical periods Frontiers of Pleasure thus suggests an alternative mode of understanding aesthetics in its entirety freed from some modern preconceptions that have become a hindrance within the field

Aesthetics Nicolai Hartmann, 2014-11-10 The book is the first English translation of Nicolai Hartmann s final book published in 1953 It will be of value to graduate students in philosophy scholars concerned with 20th century Continental philosophy students of aesthetics and art history and criticism and persons in and out of academic philosophy who wish to develop their aesthetic understanding and responsiveness to art and music Aesthetics Hartmann believes centers on the phenomenon of beauty and art objectivates beauty but beauty exists only for a prepared observer Part One explores the act of aesthetic appreciation and its relation to the aesthetic object It discovers phenomenologically determinable levels of apprehension Beauty appears when an observer peers through the physical foreground of the work into the strata upon which form has been bestowed by an artist in the process of expressing some theme The theory of the stratification of aesthetic objects is perhaps Hartmann s most original and fundamental contribution to aesthetics He makes useful and perceptive distinctions between the levels in which beauty is given to perception by nature in the performing and the plastic arts and in literature of all kinds Part Two develops the phenomenology of beauty in each of the fine arts Then Hartmann explores some traditional categories of European aesthetics most centrally those of unity of value and of truth in art Part Three discusses the forms of aesthetic values Hartmann contrasts aesthetic values with moral values and this exploration culminates in an extensive phenomenological exhibition of three specific aesthetic values the sublime the charming and the comic A brief appendix never completed by the author contains some reflections upon the ontological implications of aesthetics Engaged in constant dialogue with thinkers of the past especially with Aristotle Kant and Hegel Hartmann corrects and develops their insights by reference to familiar phenomena of art especially with Shakespeare Rembrandt and Greek sculpture and architecture In the course of his analysis he considers truth in art the true to life and the essential truth the value of art and the relation of art and morality The work stands with other great 20th century contributors to art theory and philosophical aesthetics Heidegger Sartre Croce Adorno Ingarden and Benjamin among others The Collected Works of Chögyam Trungpa: Volume 2 Chogyam Trungpa, 2010-09-28 The Collected Works of Ch gyam Trungpa brings together in eight volumes the writings of the first and most influential and inspirational Tibetan teachers to present Buddhism in the West Organized by theme the collection includes full length books as well as articles seminar transcripts poems plays and interviews many of which have never before been available in book form From memoirs of his escape from Chinese occupied Tibet to insightful discussions of psychology mind and meditation from original verse and calligraphy to the esoteric lore of tantric Buddhism the impressive range of Trungpa s vision talents and teachings is showcased in this landmark series Volume Two examines meditation mind and Mahayana the great vehicle for the development of compassion and the means to help others Ch gyam Trungpa introduced a new psychological language and way for looking at the Buddhist teachings in the West His teachings on human psychology and the human mind are included in this volume Death as Metamorphosis of Life Rudolf Steiner, 2008-04 7 Lectures various cities Nov 29 1917 Oct 16 1918 CW 182 Death as Metamorphosis of Life is a brilliant exceptional collection The lectures are intimate existential profound and transformative they address us in our soul lives where we live and where we strive for spiritual experience They make clear the necessary and living bond that must unite the inner work of Anthroposophists the day to day inner spiritual work in our ordinary lives and the outer work of Anthroposophy the manifestation of spirit in life that is the tasks of service that we take on in the world Steiner understood that if Anthroposophy or spiritual wisdom does not live and grow as a spiritual reality in the souls of those who claim to practice it then the practical wisdom their actions in the world as called for by the spirit of the times will come to nothing Christopher Bamford introduction The lectures in Death as Metamorphosis of Life address us in our soul life and speak to our hearts They make clear the bond that must unite our inner spiritual work and the outer work of manifesting spirit in life For if spiritual wisdom does not live and grow as a reality in the souls of those who practice it then the practical wisdom of service called for by the spirit of the times will come to nothing The particular realities that Rudolf Steiner focuses on are twofold working with the dead and the spiritual hierarchies and coming to know the Christ What these two have in common is that they are both Earth centered They teach us the fundamental importance of everyday human destiny and earthly life not just for humanity but also for divinity and the cosmos We learn not only what the dead can teach us about the spiritual world and the working of the hierarchies but also what it means to be human in a spiritual sense We learn of the importance of working with the dead and the angelic worlds both for our own and for their development as well as for the future evolution of the Earth The Mystery of Golgotha is equally important we must understand it spiritually As Steiner says It is the will of the gods that the most important event on Earth must compel us to spirituality The Christ must be experienced inwardly not historically At the same time he must be found on Earth for instance in human destiny The more we become aware of what is secretly invisibly and unconsciously working in our lives the closer we will come to working with the dead and to the kingdom of Christ How can we find the Christ Steiner quotes the seventeenth century mystic Angelus Silesius The Cross on Golgotha cannot save you from evil if it is not also raised within you The Cross is raised within us by the polarity of the powerlessness of our body and the resurrection of our spirit There is no need for supersensory capacities to realize this experience only humility and sincerity in seeking are required Resurrection from the soul death of powerlessness is the true Christ experience that opens the soul to the presence of Christ Truly these are astonishing lectures to be treasured to be read reread to be thoroughly understood as something living to be meditated and made one's own and to be carried as a transformative gift into the world Christopher Bamford introduction Death as Metamorphosis of Life is translated for the first time in its entirety from the German of Der Tod als Lebenswandlung GA 182 Individual lectures have appeared in Angels Selected Lectures Evil Selected Lectures and Staying Connected Poems of Pleasure Ella Wheeler Wilcox, 1888 Sport and the Social Significance of Pleasure Richard Pringle, Robert E. Rinehart, Jayne Caudwell, 2015-06-05 This innovative text's critical examination foregrounds the prime reason why so many people participate in or watch sport pleasure Although there has been a turn to emotions and affect within academia over the last two decades it has been somewhat remiss that pleasure as an integral aspect of human life has not received greater attention from sociologists of sport exercise and physical education This book addresses this issue via an unabashed examination of sport and the moving body via a pleasure lens It provides new insights about the production of various identities power relations and social issues and the dialectical links between the socio cultural and the body Taking a wide sweeping view of pleasure dignified and debauched distinguished and mundane it examines topics as diverse as aging health fandom running extreme sports biopolitics consumerism feminism sex and sexuality In drawing from diverse theoretical approaches and original empirical research the text reveals the social and political significance of pleasure and provides a more rounded dynamic and sensual account of sport The Path of Individual Liberation Chögyam Trungpa, 2014-04-15 The foundational teachings of Buddhism presented here in volume one of Ch gyam Trungpa's magnum opus which offers a systematic overview of the entire path of Tibetan Buddhism This three volume collection presents in lively relevant language the comprehensive teachings of the Tibetan Buddhist path of the hinayana mahayana and vajrayana Considered Ch gyam Trungpa's masterpiece The Profound Treasury of the Ocean of Dharma will resonate with new and senior students of Buddhism Ch gyam Trungpa begins his study by presenting the teachings of the hinayana The hinayana introduces core Buddhist teachings on the nature of mind the practice of meditation the reality of suffering and the possibility of liberation It examines the nature of suffering impermanence and egolessness with an emphasis on personal development through meditative discipline and study The formal entry into the hinayana and the Buddhist path altogether is the refuge vow in which a student goes for refuge to the Buddha or the teacher the dharma or the teachings and the sangha or the community The hinayana path is based on training in mindfulness and awareness cultivating virtue and cutting grasping Topics covered in detail in this volume include the four noble truths karma the four foundations of mindfulness meditation practice the refuge vows the three jewels the five skandhas the five precepts twofold egolessness and more Transcending Madness Chogyam Trungpa,1992-09-08 The Tibetan word bardo is usually associated with life after death Here Ch gyam Trungpa discusses bardo in a very different sense as the peak experience of any given moment Our experience of the present moment is always colored by one of six psychological states the god realm bliss the jealous god realm jealousy and lust for entertainment the human realm passion and desire the animal realm ignorance the hungry ghost realm poverty and possessiveness and the hell realm aggression and hatred In relating these realms to the six traditional Buddhist bardo experiences Trungpa provides an insightful look at the madness of our familiar psychological patterns and shows how they present an opportunity to transmute daily experience into freedom Future Worlds of Social Science Lawrence Hazelrigg,2023-11-25 What are the possible future worlds of social science How do these prospects compare with recent conclusions that social science is generally a non factor in policy debates and irrelevant to the lives of a host of real world people as a well known sociologist reported in the centennial volume of the American Sociological Association This substantial study covers history art and aesthetics identity and the self in seeking an answer to the question of Future Worlds Herald of Health ,1869 Unification Ethics of True Love Akifumi Otani,2013-02-13 In this book critique and counterproposal are given to Freudianism Freudian Leftist s theory poststructuralism postfeminism and to queer theory which are the foundation of today s sex liberation theories based on Unification Thought which was advocated by Reverend Sun Myung Moon
