

Two Forms of Buddhism

- Theravada (Lesser Vehicle) Buddhism
 - ▣ Buddha as wise teacher, not divine being
 - ▣ Individuals were on their own to achieve enlightenment

- Mahayana (Greater Vehicle) Buddhism
 - ▣ Help was available in achieving enlightenment
 - ▣ Bodhisattvas: Enlightened individuals who assist others
 - More supernatural, centered on salvation

Jamgon Mipam Jamgon Mipam, Douglas Duckworth, 2011-12-20 Jamgon Mipam 1846-1912 is one of the most extraordinary figures in the history of Tibet. Monk, mystic, and brilliant philosopher, he shaped the trajectory of Tibetan Buddhism's Nyingma school. This introduction provides a most concise entrance to this great luminary's life and work. The first section gives a general context for understanding this remarkable individual who, though he spent the greater part of his life in solitary retreat, became one of the greatest scholars of his age. Part Two gives an overview of Mipam's interpretation of Buddhism, examining his major themes and devoting particular attention to his articulation of the Buddhist conception of emptiness. Part Three presents a representative sampling of Mipam's writings.

Tantric Techniques Jeffrey Hopkins, 2009-04-16 Deity yoga is the meditative practice of imagining oneself as an ideal being fully endowed with compassion, wisdom, and their resultant altruistic activities. The idea is that by imagining being a Buddha, one gets closer to actually achieving Buddhahood. Tantric Techniques offers a complete system of Tantric meditation, comparing the views of three seminal Tibetan authors on deity yoga and on issues such as how to safeguard against psychological inflation and how to use negative emotions on the path.

The Tantric Distinction Jeffrey Hopkins, 2013-10-23 The ideas, concepts, and methods of various religions must be tried on for size; must be lifted above museum displays; must be confronted and allowed to resonate with one's own character. It is in this spirit that I present here a personalized account of central Buddhist practices from the author's preface. Widely recognized as one of the West's leading scholars of Tibetan Buddhism, Professor Jeffrey Hopkins is renowned for his textual translations and original scholarship. For ten years he served as the principal English translator for His Holiness the Dalai Lama. The Tantric Distinction is his effort to make accessible the complexities of this highly sophisticated philosophy by sharing his personal individual experience with Buddhist thought and practice. It lays out the entire Buddhist path as a living experience.

The Fundamental Practices Forty-Second Sakya Trizin, 2025-01-28 A wise and warm guide to the preliminary practices that lay the fundamental groundwork for traversing the path to Buddhahood. When we start on the transformational journey to enlightenment, we need a strong foundation in core Buddhist principles and practices to set us on the right track. The ngondro or preliminary practices are that very foundation; they not only prepare us for advanced practice but serve us in all we do. In this guide to the common and uncommon preliminary practices, His Holiness the Forty-Second Sakya Trizin, Ratna Vajra Rinpoche, expertly gives us the grounded, practical, and illuminating teachings we need to set out on the path to Buddhahood. Newcomers and seasoned practitioners alike will find practical guidance and profound wisdom to support them through their exploration of the preliminary practices. The common preliminary practices are the four thoughts that turn the mind away from the suffering of samsara and toward the Dharma: remembering the shortcomings of samsara, remembering the preciousness of a human rebirth, remembering impermanence, and remembering the law of karma. These teachings are shared among traditions and will accompany us all the way to Buddhahood. The five uncommon preliminary practices are core to further Mahayana and Vajrayana practice going for refuge in the Buddha Dharma and Sangha developing bodhichitta the enlightened mind Vajrasattva practice which clears negative karma mandala offering which will help us accumulate merit and guru yoga which facilitates our realization of the nature of mind By using this guide we can develop a deeper understanding of what Dharma practice truly encompasses and how we can authentically engage in it His Holiness the Forty Second Sakya Trizin invites us to appreciate the profound significance of these preliminary practices and experience the transformative benefits they offer for both ourselves and all sentient beings Reflections on Reality Jeffrey Hopkins, 2007 This is the second volume in Jeffrey Hopkins valuable series on the Mind Only School of Buddhism and a focal description of it in Dzong Ka ba s The Essence of Eloquence Dzong Ka ba 1357 1419 is generally regarded as one of the greatest Tibetan philosophers and his Mind Only discourse on emptiness is considered a landmark in Buddhist philosophy In Volume I Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism Hopkins provided a translation of the introduction and the section on the Mind Only School in The Essence of Eloquence The present volume places this enigmatic and influential exposition in its historical and philosophical contexts Reflections on Reality conveys the intellectual vibrancy of the different cultural interpretations of this text and expands the key philosophical issues it addresses Hopkins one of the leading scholarly voices in Tibetan studies begins this volume with two introductory chapters contextualizing Tibetan scholarship in general He then goes on to discuss in detail the religious significance of the central topic of the three natures in the Mind Only School He also considers various views on the status of reality including the doctrine of other emptiness promulgated by the fourteenth century Jo nang savant Shay rap gyel tsen Presenting accurate and insightful translations of a large amount of material that has never been available in English before he shows how these topics have been debated among scholars in Tibet over six centuries Comparing these with presentations in Europe Japan and the United States today he created a lively conversation between normally disparate voices Tibetan Literature Leonard van der Kuijp, James Burnell Robinson, Paul Harrison, 1996-01-01 Tibetan Literature addresses the immense variety of Tibet s literary heritage An introductory essay by the editors attempts to assess the overall nature of literature in Tibet and to understand some of the ways in which it may be analyzed into genres The remainder of the book contains articles by nearly thirty scholars from America Europe and Asia each of whom addresses an important genre of Tibetan literature These articles are distributed among eight major rubrics two on history and biography six on canonical and quasi canonical texts four on philosophical literature four on literature on the paths four on ritual four on literary arts four on non literary arts and sciences and two on guidebooks and reference works Ornament of the Great Vehicle Sutras Maitreya, 2014-11-11 The Buddhist masterpiece Ornament of the Great Vehicle S tras often referred to by its Sanskrit title Mah y nas tr la k ra is part of a collection known as the Five Maitreya Teachings a set of philosophical works that have become classics of the Indian Buddhist tradition Maitreya the Buddha s regent is held to have entrusted these profound and vast instructions to the master Asa ga in the heavenly realm of Tu ita The Ornament provides a comprehensive description of the bodhisattva's view, meditation and enlightened activities. Bodhisattvas are beings who out of vast love for all sentient beings have dedicated themselves to the task of becoming fully awakened buddhas capable of helping all beings in innumerable and vast ways to become enlightened themselves. To fully awaken requires practicing great generosity, patience, energy, discipline, concentration and wisdom. Maitreya's text explains what these enlightened qualities are and how to develop them. This volume includes commentaries by Khenpo Shenga and Ju Mipham whose discussions illuminate the subtleties of the root text and provide valuable insight into how to practice the way of the bodhisattva. Drawing on the Indian masters Vasubandhu and in particular Sthiramati, Mipham explains the Ornament with eloquence and brilliant clarity. This commentary is among his most treasured works. The Open Court, Paul Carus, 1925, vols 46-47 have special title. New Orient Society monograph. The Open Court, 1925. Journey to the Kingdom of Thailand Kalman Dubov, 2021-12-20. This volume reflects my time in Chiang Mai, Thailand, in the north of the country. This Far Eastern country, known worldwide for its flavorful cuisine and challenging sauces, is a country steeped in tradition. The north was previously the Lan Na Kingdom with Chiang Mai as its capital. The ancient city walls and surrounding moat are still visible, as are many of the ancient Wat Buddhist places of worship. The Thai practice of Theravada Buddhism with other ancient traditions are celebrations practiced throughout the year, and these practices are present in the country. I spent a month in the north exploring the sites and speaking with a wide variety of people to gain a greater appreciation for the people, its language, Asian and Thai customs and traditions, as well as its food. Chiang Mai also has a unique Jewish presence with many visitors. I review these fascinating aspects of the city and area. I also visited the Golden Triangle, the highest point of Thailand where the borders with Myanmar, Laos and Thailand meet. I also briefly visited Donesao Island, Laos, crossing the Mekong River in the process. The Great Exposition of Secret Mantra, Volume One The Dalai Lama, Tsongkhapa, 2016-12-27. Tantra in Tibet is the first volume in The Great Exposition of Secret Mantra series in which the Dalai Lama offers illuminating commentary on Tsongkhapa's seminal text on Buddhist tantra. It is followed by Volume II, Deity Yoga, and Volume III, Yoga Tantra. This revised work describes the differences between the Mahayana and Hinayana streams in the sutra tradition and between the sutra tradition and that of tantra generally. It includes highly practical and compassionate explanations from H. H. the Dalai Lama on tantra for spiritual development, the first part of the classic Great Exposition of Secret Mantra text, and a supplement by Jeffrey Hopkins on the meaning of emptiness, transformation, and the purpose of the four classes of tantra. Our Human Potential The Dalai Lama, 2019-05-28. When His Holiness the Dalai Lama gave a series of lectures at Harvard University, they fulfilled magnificently his intention of providing an in-depth introduction to Buddhist theory and practice. He structured the presentation according to the teachings of the Four Noble Truths and expanded their meaning to cover most of the topics of Tibetan Buddhism. The Dalai Lama's combination of superb intellect, power of exposition, and practical implementation are evident in these lectures. He covers a broad spectrum of topics.

including the psychology of cyclic existence consciousness and karma techniques for meditation altruism valuing enemies wisdom and much more This book was previously published under the title The Dalai Lama at Harvard New York Supreme Court Appellate Term , The Other Side of Nothing Brad Warner,2022-05-10 A reader friendly guide to Zen Buddhist ethics for modern times In the West Zen Buddhism has a reputation for paradoxes that defy logic In particular the Buddhist concept of nonduality the realization that everything in the universe forms a single integrated whole is especially difficult to grasp In The Other Side of Nothing Zen teacher Brad Warner untangles the mystery and explains nonduality in plain English To Warner this is not just a philosophical problem nonduality forms the bedrock of Zen ethics and once we comprehend it many of the perplexing aspects of Zen suddenly make sense Drawing on decades of Zen practice he traces the interlocking relationship between Zen metaphysics and ethics showing how a true understanding of reality and the ultimate unity of all things instills in us a sense of responsibility for the welfare of all beings When we realize that our feeling of separateness from others is illusory we have no desire to harm any creature Warner ultimately presents an expansive overview of the Zen ethos that will give beginners and experts alike a deeper understanding of one of the world s enduring spiritual traditions Emptiness in the Mind-Only School of Buddhism Jeffrey Hopkins,2003-03-15 This is a scholarly tour de force the likes of which are rarely seen in the academy Jos Ignacio Cabeza n Illif School of Theology An exceptionally clear and detailed account of a central debate in Tibetan Buddhist scholastic philosophy Matthew Kapstein University of Chicago This is without question the finest and most complete discussion of the renowned Mind Only school and its Tibetan context Anne C Klein author of Knowledge Liberation Path to the Middle An important new contribution to our understanding of the development of Buddhist philosophical thought in Tibet Matthew T Kapstein author of The Tibetan Assimilation of Buddhism Conversion Contestation and Memory Tsung-mi and the Sinification of Buddhism Peter N. Gregory,2002-04-30 This study of Tsung mi is part of the Studies in East Asian Buddhism series Author Peter Gregory makes extensive use of Japanese secondary sources which complements his work on the complex Chinese materials that form the basis of the study The Essence of Other-Emptiness Taranatha,2007-02-09 Jeffrey Hopkins continues his groundbreaking exploration of the Jo nang ba sect of Tibetan Buddhism with this revelatory translation of one of the seminal texts from that tradition Whereas Dol bo ba s massive Mountain Doctrine authenticates the doctrine of other emptiness through extensive scriptural citations and elaborate philosophical arguments Taranatha s more concise work translated here situates the doctrine of other emptiness within the context of schools of tenets primarily the famed four schools of Tibetan Buddhism through comparing the various schools opinions on the status of the noumenon and phenomena Also included is a supplementary text by Taranatha which presents the opinions of a prominent fifteenth century Sakya scholar Shakya Chok den and contrasts them with those of the leading Jo nang ba scholar Dol bo ba The Daode Jing Commentary of Cheng Xuanying Friederike Assandri,2021 This book presents for the first time in English a complete translation of the Expository Commentary to the

Daode jing written by the Daoist monk Cheng Xuanying in the 7th century CE This commentary is a quintessential text of Tang dynasty Daoist philosophy and of Chongxuanxue or Twofold Mystery teachings Cheng Xuanying proposes a reading of the ancient Daode jing that aligns the text with Daoist practices and beliefs and integrates Buddhist concepts and techniques into the exegesis of the Daode jing Building on the philosophical tradition of Xuanxue authors like Wang Bi Cheng read the Daode jing in light of Daoist religion Cheng presents Laozi the presumed author of the Daode jing as a bodhisattva like sage and savior who wrote the Daode jing to compassionately guide human beings to salvation Salvation is interpreted as a metaphysical form of immortality reached by overcoming the dichotomy of being and non being and thus also life and death Cheng's philosophical outlook ties together the ancient text of the Daode jing and contemporary developments in Daoist thought which occurred under the influence of an intense interaction with Buddhist ideas The commentary is a vivid testimony of the integration of Buddhist thought into an exegesis of the ancient classic of the Daode jing and thereby also into Chinese philosophy Friederike Assandri frames this new translation with an extensive introduction providing crucial context for a new reading of the Daode jing It includes a biography of Cheng Xuanying a discussion of the historical and political context of Daoism in early medieval China in the capital Chang'an and a discussion of Cheng's philosophy in relation to the interaction of Daoism and Buddhism This commentary is essential reading for students and scholars interested in the history of Chinese philosophy Daoist thought and the reception of Buddhism in China

A Stairway to Heaven: Daoist Self-Cultivation in Early Modern China Paul van Enkevort, 2024-11-04 By the eleventh century communities of religious practitioners in China had developed a theory and practice of meditative self cultivation that combined the so called Three Teachings By the seventeenth century Wu Shouyang created a synthesis of the various lineages of this inner alchemy combining it with elements from Buddhism and Confucianism By the late nineteenth century his writings had become bestsellers in the genre and his became the standard account of this tradition This first book length English language study of Wu Shouyang's life and works introduces his remarkable life and formulates answers to fundamental questions about this important tradition

Genealogies of Mahāyāna Buddhism Joseph Walser, 2018-06-28 Genealogies of Mahāyāna Buddhism offers a solution to a problem that some have called the holy grail of Buddhist studies the problem of the origins of Mahāyāna Buddhism In a work that contributes both to a general theory of religion and power for religious studies as well as to the problem of the origin of a Buddhist movement Walser argues that that it is the neglect of political and social power in the scholarly imagination of the history of Buddhism that has made the origins of Mahāyāna an intractable problem Walser challenges commonly held assumptions about Mahāyāna Buddhism offering a fascinating new take on its genealogy that traces its doctrines of emptiness and mind only from the present day back to the time before Mahāyāna was Mahāyāna In situating such concepts in their political and social contexts across diverse regimes of power in Tibet China and India the book shows that what was at stake in the Mahāyāna championing of the doctrine of emptiness was the articulation and dissemination of court authority across the rural landscapes of Asia This text will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars of Buddhism religious studies history and philosophy
