

Purpose of Ethical Reflections

- To gather the necessary information to understand the situation fully.
- To identify the ethical issues and frame the ethical questions that are raised by the issues.
- Construct the ethical arguments and counter-arguments that answer the ethical questions posed.
- Generate a range of options for action and test each option using the ethical criteria developed in the analysis.
- Address the practical problem by selecting the option for action that best addresses the combined practical and ethical issues raised.
- Evaluate the outcomes of the decision and adjust future responses accordingly.

Renegotiating Ethics in Literature, Philosophy, and Theory Jane Adamson, Richard Freadman, David Parker, 1998-12-10 Is it possible for postmodernism to offer viable coherent accounts of ethics Or are our social and intellectual worlds too fragmented for any broad consensus about the moral life These issues have emerged as some of the most contentious in literary and philosophical studies In Renegotiating Ethics in Literature Philosophy and Theory a distinguished international gathering of philosophers and literary scholars address the reconceptualisations involved in this turn towards ethics An important feature of this has been a renewed interest in the literary text as a focus for the exploration of ethical issues Exponents of this trend include Charles Taylor Bernard Williams Iris Murdoch Cora Diamond Richard Rorty and Martha Nussbaum the latter a contributor and a key figure in this volume This book assesses the significance of this development for ethical and literary theory and attempts to articulate an alternative postmodern account of ethics which does not rely on earlier appeals to universal truths Ethical Theory Louis P. Pojman, 1995 This reader contains 72 classical and contemporary articles organized around 13 crucial issues in ethical theory the nature of ethics ethical relativism ethical egoism and evolutionary ethics value utilitarianism deontological ethics virtue ethics the fact value problem moral realism and skepticism morality and self interest ethics and religion justice and rights The articles are arranged within a coherent teachable framework in which presentation of each problem progresses from the classical to the contemporary usually treating it in a dialectic pro and con format
