Hilton, 1989-01-01 International and Comparative Studies in Adult and Continuing Education Regina Egetenmeyer, Vanna Boffo, Stefanie Kröner, 2020-11-10 This volume gives theoretical and practical insights in international and comparative research in the field of adult and continuing education The 16 contributions of this volume give three perspectives on international and comparative adult education The first perspective focuses on the question how internationalisation and comparative adult and continuing education can be taught The second perspective gives insights into the results of comparative research that has been conducted throughout a two week Winter School that took place in February 2019 in Würzburg The third perspective complements the two perspectives with insights into international projects and practices in adult and continuing education The authors of this volume are contributing to the transnational Winter School International and comparative studies in adult and continuing education in Würzburg Germany since 2014 Essential Readings in International and Comparative Adult Education Jost Reischmann, 2021-06-01 Often in international comparative studies it is difficult to refer to older basic texts because they are hidden in old publications difficult to locate This book makes a selection of such old but essential texts available and wants to document the long history of the international comparative perspective Standing on the shoulder of giants allows not only a grounded look back but hopefully also a reliable and experience based look in the future The editor of this book Jost Reischmann Prof em Bamberg University Germany has a long history in international and comparative adult education He presented papers on conferences around the world from San Diego USA to Seoul Korea When the International Society for Comparative Adult Education ISCAE was founded in 1992 he became the first president and developed this society over many years We hope this new book will help old timers and new comers to contribute to the enriching world of international comparative adult education Comparative Research in Adult Education Lisa Breitschwerdt, Jörg Schwarz, Sabine Schmidt-Lauff, 2023-06-22 The volume presents research that emerges from the 9th international Adult Education Academy 2022 which brings together researchers students and practitioners from around the world to share perspectives comparatively More than 80 participants from almost 20 different countries have exchanged compared and expanded their individual knowledge and experience on adult learning and education This volume consisting of eight contributions including one fundamental article beforehand assumes that globalisation affects national regional and local levels of adult learning and education Transformational relations are observed and analysed through the lens of participation sustainability and digitalisation All contributions apply an international comparative research approach to empirically investigate these areas with their upcoming needs This approach takes place under consideration of comparison as a research method which not only grounds on a long tradition and relies on a set of rules and techniques but also on an inner attitude and sensitivity with which we look at the world and its global needs while trying to understand

Andragogy: Contributions to an Emerging Discipline Jost Reischmann, 2024-02-06 In Andragogy Contributions to an Emerging Discipline Prof Dr Jost Reischmann reexamines key facets of andragogy by presenting a series of reprints that contribute significantly to the field. The book opens with Andragogy and Andragogues offering a clear definition and exploring the vital role and necessary competencies of andragogues as change specialists. Andragogical Concepts provides valuable insights for educators and scholars by analyzing andragogical theories such as learning en passant, lifewide learning and compositional learning. The section Projects and Examples bridges theory with practice highlighting the synergy between theoretical understanding and practical application. Lastly the book explores International Comparative Adult Education offering a comprehensive exploration of this research area. It presents examples and proposes ways to enhance studies in this field. Andragogy Contributions to an Emerging Discipline is a valuable resource for scholars, students and libraries offering a fresh perspective on adult education. This book informs and inspires readers to think critically and innovatively about the discipline.

Comparative Adult Education and Learning : authors and Texts Maria Slowey, 2017-11-14 This volume explores the topics of adult learning and education through the specific lens of comparative research. The book is divided into four chapters each of which comprises an analytical essay followed by an anthology of readings from a selection of key texts. These are chosen to illustrate different conceptual and empirical approaches from varying perspectives in different countries. The book is the second of a series dedicated to adult learning and education and developed under the auspices of the ESRALÉ European Studies and Research in Adult Learning and Education project. Its companion books are Vanna Boffo Paolo Federighi Ekkehard Nuissl Empirical Research Methodology in Adult Learning and Education Authors and Texts and Simona Sava Petr Novotny eds Researches in Adult Learning and Education The European Dimension. International Teaching and Learning Settings in the Academic Professionalisation of Adult Education

Monika Staab , 2023 Academic education plays an important role in the development of professionalism of adult educators. Given the interconnectedness of adult education with global and international developments this international and comparative study illustrates the need for a systematic and comprehensive internationalisation of adult education programmes and the relevance of international teaching and learning settings for the development of professionalism in adult education. Based on focus group and graduate interviews of three master's programmes with a focus on adult education at the Universities of Würzburg, Belgrade and Florence similarities and differences in the internationalisation of the programmes are revealed and supporting factors for the development of professionalism are highlighted.

Connecting Adult Learning and Knowledge Management Monica Fedeli, Laura L. Bierema, 2019-11-25 This multidisciplinary book represents an initial attempt to connect adult learning and knowledge management in theory and practice. It provides educators, learners and organizational development professionals with new strategies and resources for developing active and effective pedagogies which in turn prepare learners and practitioners to manage knowledge in organizations and higher education. To do so it gathers contributions and case studies from a diverse global team of authors and provides a theoretical and practical outline of new strategies and methods for facilitating adult teaching and learning. It also provides a fresh reading of active learning methods by adopting a knowledge management viewpoint that is broadly applicable whether helping students master content in university courses or helping organizations learn and change. The book is divided into three main sections: a) methods and theories for adult teaching and learning, b) knowledge management in education, and c) case studies and best practices that consider classroom learning, higher education change, and organization development. Routledge International Companion to Education Miriam Ben-Peretz, Sally Brown, Bob Moon, 2004-04-28. The Routledge International Companion to Education aims to address the key issues underpinning the rethinking and restructuring of education at the beginning of the new millennium. Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Carol E. Kasworm, Amy D. Rose, Jovita M. Ross-Gordon, 2010-05-27. An authoritative overview of the current state of the field of adult and continuing education. Drawing on the contributions of 75 leading authors in the field, this 2010 Edition of the respected Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education provides adult education scholars, program administrators, and teachers with a solid foundation for understanding the current guiding beliefs, practices, and tensions faced in the field, as well as a basis for developing and refining their own approaches to their work and scholarship. Offering expanded discussions in the areas of social justice, technology, and the global dimensions of adult and continuing education, the Handbook continues the tradition of previous volumes with discussions of contemporary theories, current forms and contexts of practice, and core processes and functions. Insightful chapters examine adult and continuing education as it relates to gender and sexuality, race, our aging society, class, and place, and disability. Key Features: Expanded coverage of social justice, the impact of technology, and the global dimensions of adult and continuing education; provides a useful update on theories and practices in the field as they have evolved during the last decade; An invaluable introductory overview and synthesis of key aspects of the field of practice and scholarship acquaints new readers to the field; The centrality of social justice in adult and continuing education is addressed in a new section; The broader global context of contemporary adult and continuing education is covered in a final section. International Encyclopedia of Adult Education L. English, 2016-04-30. The Encyclopedia of Adult Education is the first comprehensive reference work in this important and fast-growing field and is an invaluable resource for adult educators who research and teach in the fields of higher education, work in community-based settings, or practise in public or private organizations. Its 170 articles, written by an international team of contributors from over 17 countries, detail the research and practice of the field from its emergence as a separate discipline to the present day, covering key concepts, issues, and individuals, and providing a cutting-edge summary of ongoing debates across a wide range of perspectives, from self-directed learning to human resource development. Entries are arranged A-Z and extensively cross-referenced with detailed bibliographies for each topic to facilitate further research. Critical ELT in Action Graham Crookes, 2013.
