Director's Cut M K Raghavendra,2013-05-20 A critical introduction to the best of international film makers in the last 50 years This is an acutely perceptive collection of essays defining the work of fifty film makers of the modern era The shape of cinema is today unrecognizable from that in the 1950s but film criticism has perhaps not kept pace with changes after 1960 when cinema became modern The collection addresses this deficit by examining the most important directors since 1960 It includes the film makers of the French New Wave and New German Cinema extends its attention to earlier modernists like Luis Bunuel and Robert Bresson and speculates on the significance of masters like Andrei Tarkovsky and popular film makers like Steven Spielberg It also encompasses a whole range of more recent cinema from Abbas Kiarostami to Bela Tarr As befits the enormous variety in the range of cinema covered each of the essays is strikingly different in its emphasis although they are all lucidly and engagingly written Also included are definitive assessments of five key Indian film directors Satyajit Ray Ritwik Ghatak Adoor Gopalakrishnan G Aravindan and Raj Kapoor

Landscape in Children's Literature Jane Carroll, 2012-08-06 This book provides a new critical methodology for the study of landscapes in children's literature Treating landscape as the integration of unchanging and irreducible physical elements or topoi Carroll identifies and analyses four kinds of space sacred spaces green spaces roadways and lapsed spaces that are the component elements of the physical environments of canonical British children's fantasy Using Susan Cooper's The Dark Is Rising Sequence as the test case for this methodology the book traces the development of the physical features and symbolic functions of landscape topoi from their earliest inception in medieval vernacular texts through to contemporary children's literature The identification and analysis of landscape topoi synthesizes recent theories about interstitial space together with earlier morphological and topoanalytical studies enabling the study of fictional landscapes in terms of their physical characteristics as well as in terms of their relationship with contemporary texts and historical precedents Ultimately by providing topoanalytical studies of other children's texts Carroll proposes topoanalysis as a rich critical method for the study and understanding of children's literature and indicates how the findings of this approach may be expanded upon In offering both transferable methodologies and detailed case studies this book outlines a new approach to literary landscapes as geographical places within socio historical contexts
