

The background of the entire page is a painting of a landscape. In the foreground, there is a dark, silhouetted hillside with some foliage. A small, dark, stone building with a square tower-like structure is visible. In the middle ground, there is a body of water reflecting the sky. In the background, there are layers of mountains under a sky with a bright, orange and yellow glow from the setting or rising sun, with darker clouds above.

Landscape Of Memory:

Landscape And Memory Simon Schama, 1995 A Time Magazine Best Books of the Year In Landscape and Memory award winning author Simon Schama ranges over continents and centuries to reveal the psychic claims that human beings have made on nature He tells of the Nazi cult of the primeval German forest the play of Christian and pagan myth in Bernini's Fountain of the Four Rivers and the duel between a monumental sculptor and a feminist gadfly on the slopes of Mount Rushmore The result is a triumphant work of history naturalism mythology and art as encyclopedic as The Golden Bough and as irresistibly readable as Schama's own Citizens A work of great ambition and enormous intellectual scope consistently provocative and revealing New York Times Extraordinary a summary cannot convey the riches of this book It will absorb instruct and fascinate New York Review of Books

Landscape, Memory and History Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2003-05-20 How do people perceive the land around them and how is that perception changed by history This book explores this question from an anthropological angle assessing the connections between place space identity nationalism history and memory in a variety of different settings around the world Taking historical change and memory as key themes it is a broad study that will appeal to a readership across the social sciences Contributors from North America Australia New Zealand Taiwan and Europe explore a wide variety of case studies that includes seascapes in Jamaica the Solomon Islands the forests of Madagascar Aboriginal and European notions of landscape in Australia place and identity in 19th century maps and the bogs of Ireland contemporary concerns over changing landscapes in Papua New Guinea and representations of landscape and history in the poetry of the Scottish Borders

Landscape, Race and Memory Divya Praful Tolia-Kelly, 2016-04-22 Memory is seldom explored through the experience of geographically mobile racialized populations Whilst the relationships between the political value of landscape and national memory have previously been written through there has been little mention of postcolonial diasporic racialized citizens Using both visual and material culture this book examines the value of landscape and memory for postcolonial migrants living in Britain It uses memory to examine how postcolonial citizenship in Britain is experienced through remembered citizenships of other geographies abroad By reflecting on the cultural landscapes of British Asian women the book reveals social historical narratives about migration citizenship and belonging New spaces of memory are presented as mobile and as politically charged with meaning as the more formal spaces of memorialization The book offers a refiguring of race memory as being critical to English heritage and postcolonial politics and makes an important contribution to the writings on memory race and landscape

Landscape as Memory, 2019 The Routledge Companion to Landscape Studies Peter Howard, Ian Thompson, Emma Waterton, Mick Atha, 2013-02-15 Landscape is a vital synergistic concept which opens up ways of thinking about many of the problems which beset our contemporary world such as climate change social alienation environmental degradation loss of biodiversity and destruction of heritage As a concept landscape does not respect disciplinary boundaries Indeed many academic disciplines

have found the concept so important it has been used as a qualifier that delineates whole sub disciplines landscape ecology landscape planning landscape archaeology and so forth In other cases landscape studies progress under a broader banner such as heritage studies or cultural geography Yet it does not always mean the same thing in all of these contexts The Routledge Companion to Landscape Studies offers the first comprehensive attempt to explore research directions into the many uses and meanings of landscape The Companion contains thirty nine original contributions from leading scholars within the field which have been divided into four parts Experiencing Landscape Landscape Culture and Heritage Landscape Society and Justice and Design and Planning for Landscape Topics covered range from phenomenological approaches to landscape to the consideration of landscape as a repository of human culture from ideas of identity and belonging to issues of power and hegemony and from discussions of participatory planning and design to the call for new imaginaries in a time of global and environmental crisis Each contribution explores the future development of different conceptual and theoretical approaches as well as recent empirical contributions to knowledge and understanding Collectively they encourage dialogue across disciplinary barriers and reflection upon the implications of research findings for local national and international policy in relation to landscape This Companion provides up to date critical reviews of state of the art perspectives across this multifaceted field embracing disciplines such as anthropology archaeology cultural studies geography landscape planning landscape architecture countryside management forestry heritage studies ecology and fine art It serves as an invaluable point of reference for scholars researchers and graduate students alike engaging in the field of landscape studies

Landscape, Memory, and Post-Violence in Cambodia James A. Tyner, 2016-11-16 This book explores how the legacy of violence during the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia is memorialized Engaging with war violence and critical heritage studies the book looks at how the selective production of heritage diminishes opportunities for justice and reconciliation beyond the violence It should be of particular interest to students and scholars interested in heritage studies memory trauma genocide dark tourism and Cambodia

Agency in Transnational Memory Politics Jenny Wüstenberg, Aline Sierp, 2020-07-01 The dynamics of transnational memory play a central role in modern politics from postsocialist efforts at transitional justice to the global legacies of colonialism Yet the relatively young subfield of transnational memory studies remains underdeveloped and fractured across numerous disciplines even as nascent boundary crossing theories on topics such as multi vocal traveling or entangled remembrance suggest new ways of negotiating difficult political questions This volume brings together theoretical and practical considerations to provide transnational memory scholars with an interdisciplinary investigation into agency the who and the how of cross border commemoration that motivates activists and fascinates observers

Landscape Neil Allan Sandstad, 1967 The War of 1948 Avraham Sela, Alon Kadish, 2016-11-21 The 1948 War is remembered in this special volume including aspects of Israeli Jewish memory and historical narratives of 1948 and representations of Israeli Palestinian memory of that cataclysmic event and its consequences The contributors map and analyze a range of perspectives of the 1948 War as represented in literature historical museums art visual media and landscape as well as in competing official and societal narratives They are examined especially against the backdrop of the Oslo process which brought into relief tensions within and between both sides of the national divide concerning identity and legitimacy justice and righteousness of self and other Places of Memory: Spatialised Practices of Remembrance from Prehistory to Today Christian Horn, Gustav Wollentz, Gianpiero Di Maida, Annette Haug, 2020-09-24 This book examines spatialised practices of remembrance and its role in reshaping societies from prehistory to today it presents a reflection on the creation of memories through the organisation and use of landscapes and spaces that explicitly considers the multiplicity of meanings of the past Landscapes of Memory Patrizia Violi, 2017 What should we do with places that were theatres of mass suffering and atrocity Should we keep them as they were to remind us of the past or transform them This volume addresses these questions by discussing selected key trauma sites analysed with an innovative semiotic methodology that sheds new light on the notions of trauma and memory International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, 2019-11-29 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography Second Edition Fourteen Volume Set embraces diversity by design and captures the ways in which humans share places and view differences based on gender race nationality location and other factors in other words the things that make people and places different Questions of for example politics economics race relations and migration are introduced and discussed through a geographical lens This updated edition will assist readers in their research by providing factual information historical perspectives theoretical approaches reviews of literature and provocative topical discussions that will stimulate creative thinking Presents the most up to date and comprehensive coverage on the topic of human geography Contains extensive scope and depth of coverage Emphasizes how geographers interact with understand and contribute to problem solving in the contemporary world Places an emphasis on how geography is relevant in a social and interdisciplinary context Landscape Research-I Öner Demirel, Ertan Düzgüneş, 2021-08-15 Landscape Research I The Memory of the People Andy Wood, 2013-08-15 Did ordinary people in early modern England have any coherent sense of the past Andy Wood's pioneering new book charts how popular memory generated a kind of usable past that legitimated claims to rights space and resources He explores the genesis of customary law in the medieval period the politics of popular memory local identities and traditions gender and custom literacy orality and memory landscape space and memory and the legacy of this cultural world for later generations Drawing from a wealth of sources ranging from legal proceedings and parochial writings to proverbs and estate papers he shows how custom formed a body of ideas built up generation after generation from localized patterns of cooperation and conflict This is a unique account of the intimate connection between landscape place and identity and of how the poorer and middling sort felt about the world around them Carved in Stone, Etched in Memory Amila Buturovic, 2016-03-03 Despite the recent history of violence and destruction Bosnia Herzegovina holds a positive place in history marked by a continuous interweaving of different religious cultures The most expansive period in that regard is the Ottoman rule that lasted here nearly five centuries As many Bosnians accepted Islam the process of Islamization took on different directions and meanings only some of which are recorded in the official documents This book underscores the importance of material culture specifically gravestones funerary inscriptions and images in tracing and understanding more subtle changes in Bosnia s religious landscape and the complex cultural shifts and exchange between Christianity and Islam in this area Gravestones are seen as cultural spaces that inscribe memory history and heritage in addition to being texts that display in image and word first hand information about the deceased In tackling these topics and ideas the study is situated within several contextual theoretical and methodological frameworks Raising questions about religious identity history and memory the study unpacks the cultural and historical value of gravestones and other funerary markers and bolsters their importance in understanding the region s complexity and improving its visibility in global discussions around multiculturalism and religious pluralism Drawing upon several disciplinary methods the book has much to offer anyone looking for a better understanding of the intersection of Christianity and Islam as well as those with an interest in death studies

Heritage, Memory and the Politics of Identity Yvonne Whelan, 2016-04-22 The study of the cultural landscape has gained momentum in recent years revealing new insights to geographers archaeologists sociologists and architects The cultural landscape is often viewed as an emblematic site and thus a key player in the heritage process This book explores the overlapping and often complex relationships between identity memory heritage and the cultural landscape It provides an overview of new approaches in the study of these relationships combined with evidence from Ireland England Scotland and the United States These case studies demonstrate the significance of the past in the contemporary construction of identity narratives and draw attention to the powerful role of monuments and parades as sites of cultural heritage The focus then shifts to the way in which heritage has become politicized for various ends demonstrating the changing perception of particular heritage sites and buildings and the role that this has played in constructing and reconstructing particular identities
