issues and research interfaces required to study cultural landscapes The book focuses on landscape interfaces Both the ones we find out there in the landscape and the ones we face while doing research We hope that this book helps if not to make use of these interfaces then at least to map them and bridge some of the gaps between them The editors wish to thank those people helping us to assemble this collection First of all our gratitude goes to the authors who contributed to the book We would like to thank Marc Antrop Mats Widgren Roland Gustavsson Marion Potschin Barbel Tress Tiina Peil Helen Soovali and Anu Printsmann for their quick and helpful advice opinions and comments during the different stages of editing Helen Soovali and Anu Printsmann together with Piret Pungas thank you for technical help Landscape Ecology Zev

Naveh, Arthur S. Lieberman, 2013-06-29 In the preface to the softcover edition of this book in 1989 we stated Since the publication of the first edition of this book landscape ecology has made great strides It has overcome its continental isolation and has also established itself in the English speaking world By attracting both problem inquiry and problem solving oriented scientists with different cultural academic and professional backgrounds from all over the world it has broadened not only its geographical but also its conceptual and methodological scopes We are pleased to confirm in 1993 that the growth of landscape ecology continues and to again express our gratification at the encouraging response to this first English language monograph on the subject and its contribution to these developments As before we feel special satisfaction that it has reached not only the shelves of libraries and academic researchers but that it has also appealed to professional practitioners teachers and their students from industrialized and developing countries embracing the broad range of fields related to landscape ecology in the natural sciences as well as in the humanities Gainsborough and His Place in
