Time, Space, and Society A. Kellerman, 1989-02-28 Time and space are two of the most basic dimensions of human life They envelop all human beings from birth to death As such they provide the context for human existence At the same time however time and space also serve as major influencing factors in mankind's actions Hence a vast literature has developed on time and space as separate dimensions and recently on time space as joint dimensions Interestingly enough the social connotations of time and space have mostly been studied with the individual human being in mind The more societal significance of time and space whether separately or jointly have been relatively neglected It is the purpose of this volume to help fill this lacuna through discussions on some of the many junctions of time space and society at large The discussion will naturally involve concepts and findings from more than just one discipline notably geography sociology social history and political science It is thus obvious that the topic may be highlighted from several perspectives Given my own education and work the approach will lean more to the geographical perspective Geography has a special merit as an integrating framework for the study of time space and society It is a discipline that has space at the center of its raison d'être and as such has always striven for integration holism and comprehensiveness

Maintenance and Loss of Minority Languages Willem Fasseur, Koen Jaspaert, Sjaak Kroon, 1992 The papers in this volume describe a wide variety of language contact settings in which one or more languages are in a process of shift In the first part of the book theoretical perspectives are presented followed by linguistic sociological and descriptive studies of languages and countries that have attracted the interest of researchers before as well as less well known examples Data are presented from the Philippines Korea Japan Israel The Netherlands Belgium Canada Sweden Spain Denmark Morocco Finland Malaysia Germany USA Ireland India Tanzania and Australia      Geography and the Wealth of Nations Sherif Khalifa,2022-03-14 In Geography and the Wealth of Nations Sherif Khalifa argues that geography influences the factors that determine economic performance such as the quality of institutions the adopted cultural values the systems of governance the likelihood of conflict the historical experiences and the integration into the global economy This book discusses in detail how geographic features influence each of these factors and how these determinants in turn affect economic outcomes Khalifa shows that we cannot fully comprehend the economic consequences of these factors without exploring their geographic origins This effort is especially critical as the world faces unprecedented environmental challenges including climate change worsening natural disasters resource depletion soil degradation deforestation desertification and loss of biodiversity Given these drastic changes this book provides powerful insight into how geographic determinants continue to shape global crises      Seeking New Horizons Henry W. Castner,1990-04-01 Castner developed this innovative perspective on geographic education through observation of the Orff Schulwerk technique of music education This pedagogical method provides an organizational framework within which the primitive elements and concepts of music can be introduced experienced and explored and auditory discrimination developed The process of improvisation is the focal point of the Schulwerk Castner suggests that the numerous educational benefits of improvisation can be obtained in geographic education by the process of mapping He defines mapping as graphic description analysis and presentation in a problem solving context After more than two decades of research in cartographic communication Castner concludes that success in examining and analysing landscapes and images representative of them is dependant upon developed skills in visual discrimination Seeking New Horizons describes a rationale for linking basic visual discriminations to their logical extensions in the concepts that are fundamental to geographic thinking thus providing challenging approaches to developing spatial awareness graphic literacy and geographic understanding In addition Castner identifies eight basic concepts which would allow students and teachers to work interactively with spatial information and over time with increasingly complex and sophisticated tools and at increasingly abstract levels of generalization      Human Geography Erin H. Murphy,Harm J. de Blij,2009-01-27 Taking us from our hominid ancestors to the megacities of today Human Geography brings a new emphasis to the political and economic issues of human geography      Emerging Sign Languages of the Americas Olivier Le Guen,Josefina Safar,Marie Coppola,2020-11-23 This volume is the first to bring together researchers studying a range of different types of emerging sign languages in the Americas and their relationship to the gestures produced in the surrounding communities of hearing individuals Contents Acknowledgements Olivier Le Guen Marie Coppola and Josefina Safar Introduction How Emerging Sign Languages in the Americas contributes to the study of linguistics and assumptions about languages as systems or as countable entities and suggests instead that language emerges from the activities it performs To look at language as a practice is to view language as an activity rather than a structure as something we do rather than a system we draw on as a material part of social and cultural life rather than an abstract entity Language as a Local Practice draws on a variety of contexts of language use from bank machines to postcards Indian newspaper articles to fish naming in the Philippines urban graffiti to mission statements suggesting that rather than thinking in terms of language use in context we need to consider how language space and place are related how language creates the contexts where it is used how languages are the products of socially located activities and how they are part of the action Language as a Local Practice will be of interest to students on advanced undergraduate and post graduate courses in Applied Linguistics Language Education TESOL Literacy and Cultural Studies Computer Science – CACIC 2020 Patricia Pesado, Jorge Eterovic, 2021-05-04 This book constitutes revised selected papers from the 26th Argentine Congress on Computer Science CACIC 2020 held in San Justo Buenos Aires Argentina in October 2020 Due to the COVID 19 pandemic the conference was held in a virtual mode The 21 full papers and 3 short papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 118 submissions They were organized in topical sections named intelligent agents and systems distributed and parallel processing computer technology applied to education graphic computation images and visualization software engineering databases and data mining hardware architectures networks and operating systems innovation in software systems signal processing and real time systems innovation in computer science education computer security and digital governance and smart cities
