information and knowledge are the essential conditions for successful and effective research and practical applications in cartography. For successful research development it is necessary to follow trends not only in this domain but also try to adapt new trends and technologies from other areas. Trends in cartography are also quite often topics of many conferences which have the main aim to link research education and application experts in cartography and GIS T into one large platform. Such the right place for exchange and sharing of knowledge and skills was also the CARTOCON2014 conference which took place in Olomouc Czech Republic in February 2014 and this book is a compilation of the best and most interesting contributions. The book content consists of four parts. The first part New approaches in map and atlas making collects studies about innovative ways in map production and atlases compilation. Following part of the book Progress in web cartography brings examples and tools for web map presentation. The third part Advanced methods in map use includes achievement of eye tracking research and users issues. The final part Cartography in practice and research is a clear evidence that cartography and maps played the significant role in many geosciences and in many branches of the society. Each individual paper is original and has its place in cartography.

Encyclopedia of Bilingualism and Bilingual Education Colin Baker, Sylvia Prys Jones, 1998. This encyclopedia is divided into three sections: individual bilingualism, bilingualism in society and bilingual education. It includes many pictures, graphs, maps and diagrams. The book concludes with a comprehensive bibliography on bilingualism.

Euro Abstracts, 1996. Language Planning in the Asia Pacific Robert Kaplan, Richard Baldauf, 2013-12-16. This volume covers the language situation in Hong Kong, Timor Leste and Sri Lanka, explaining the linguistic diversity, the historical and political contexts and the current language situation including language in education, planning, the role of the media, the role of religion and the roles of non indigenous languages. Two of the authors are indigenous to the situations described while the other has undertaken extensive field work and consulting there. The three monographs contained in this volume draw together the literature on each of the polities to present an overview of the research available about each of them while providing new research based information. The purpose of the volume is to provide an up to date overview of the language situation in each polity based on a series of key questions in the hope that this might facilitate the development of a richer theory to guide language policy and planning in other polities where similar issues may arise. This book was published as special issues of Current Issues in Language Planning.
