Language Of Advertising Written Texts:

The Language of Advertising Angela Goddard, 2002 Drawing on literary and linguistic theory for analysis of texts this book covers all aspects of advertising language from the interrelation of language image and layout to the discourse between reader and advertisement

Perceptions of Retailing in Early Modern England Nancy C. Cox, Karin Dannehl, 2007-01-01 Whilst there has been much recent scholarly work on retailing during the early modern period much less is known about how people at the time perceived retailing Centred around the general theme of perceptions this book addresses this gap in our knowledge looking at a different aspect of consumption This book will prove essential reading for anyone interested in British social and economic history in the early modern period and among those interested with the history of retailing and of consumption Although first and foremost a book written by historians for historians it nevertheless borrows concepts and approaches from various disciplines concerned with theories of consumption material culture and representational art

Language and Gender Angela Goddard, Lindsey Meân Patterson, 2000 This study explores aspects of discourse and the way discourses in society represent ideas about the sexes It reveals how texts are covertly gendered with embedded ideas about the way men and women are

Sounds, Words, Texts and Change Teresa Fanego, Belén Méndez-Naya, Elena Seoane, 2002-07-18 This volume and its companion one English Historical Syntax and Morphology CILT 223 offer a selection of papers from the Eleventh International Conference on English Historical Linguistics held at the University of Santiago de Compostela From the rich programme over 130 papers were given during the conference the present thirteen papers were carefully selected to reflect the state of current research in the field of English historical linguistics The areas represented in the volume are lexis and semantics text types historical sociolinguistics and dialectology and phonology Many of the articles tackle questions of change and linguistic periodization through the use of methodological tools like corpora linguistic atlases thesauri and historical dictionaries The theoretical frameworks adopted include among others multi dimensional analysis systemic functional grammar Communication Accommodation Theory historical discourse analysis and Optimality Theory

The Language of Everyday Life Judy Delin, 2000-09-28 This is a lively practical guide that provides a fascinating linguistic description of six familiar text and discourse types showing how language works in everyday life to perform its particular purpose Through original examples students are introduced to a wide ranging repertoire of analytical concepts and techniques described in basic clear terms and drawn from a broad range of areas of linguistics and language study The aim of the book is to enable students to discover for themselves what is interesting about different language situations and to begin to interrogate the relationship between language society and ideology The Language of Everyday Life includes topics for discussion exercises and further readings an extensive glossary of technical terms and a practical guide to project work

The Language of Work Almut Koester, 2004-03 The Language of Work examines language use in business and the workplace representations of work and how people in business interact Includes many real world examples and a section on entering the world of work Reading Tourism Texts Sabrina Francesconi, 2014-02-24 This volume explores the relationship between tourism and travel texts and contemporary society and how each is shaped by the other A multimodal analysis is used to consider a variety of texts including novels brochures blogs websites radio commercials videos postcards and authentic tourist pictures and their meaning making dynamics within the tourism discourse The book looks at the ways in which these different texts have influenced how tourists and travellers have been viewed over time and how we envision ourselves as tourists or travellers It puts forward multimodal analysis as the best framework for exploring the semiotic potential of these texts Including examples from the UK Malta Canada New Zealand India Jamaica and South Africa this volume will be useful for researchers and students in tourism studies communication and media studies and applied linguistics The Language of Conversation Francesca Pridham, 2013-04-15 This accessible satellite textbook in the Routledge Intertext series offers students hands on practical experience of textual analysis of conversation Written in a clear user friendly style by an experienced teacher it combines practical activities with texts accompanied by commentaries and suggestions for further study It can be used individually or in conjunction with the series core textbook Working With Texts Aimed at A Level and beginning undergraduate students The Language of Conversation Analyses exactly what happens during conversation and why Discusses the structure purpose and features of conversation Explores the relationship between speaker and listener Examines different kinds of conversation such as chatroom conversations extracts from chatshows and everyday conversation Provides a clear introduction to technical terms The Language of ICT Tim Shortis, 2001 This accessible satellite textbook in the Routledge Intertext explores the nature of the electronic word and presents the new types of text in which it is found Web Advertising Anja Janoschka, 2004-01-01 This book examines new forms of communication that have emerged through the interactive capabilities of the Internet in particular online advertising and web advertisements It develops a new model of online communication incorporating mass communication and interpersonal communication Interactive mass communication redefines the roles of online communication partners who are confronted with a higher degree of complexity in terms of hypertextual information units In web advertising this new aspect of interactivity is linguistically reflected in different types of personal address forms directives and trigger words This study also analyzes the different strategies of persuasion with which web ads try to initiate their activation Web Advertising provides essential information on the language of web advertisements for academics researchers and students in the fields of hypertext linguistics advertising communication and media studies Translanguaging as Everyday Practice Gerardo Mazzaferro, 2018-10-04 This volume offers empirically grounded perspectives on translanguaging as a locally situated interactional accomplishment of practical action and its significance within different domains of social life school education diasporic families and communities workplaces urban linguistic landscapes advertising practices and mental health centres focusing on case studies from different countries and continents The 14 chapters contribute to the understanding of translanguaging as a communicative and discursive practice which is relationally constructed and strategically deployed by individuals during everyday encounters with language and cultural diversity The contributions testify to translanguaging as an interdisciplinary and critical research paradigm by assembling scholars working on translanguaging from different perspectives and a wide range of social cultural and geographical contexts This volume contributes to the further development of new theoretical and analytical tools for the investigation of translanguaging as everyday practice and how and why language practices are constructed negotiated opposed or subverted by social actors The Routledge Handbook of Discourse Analysis Michael Handford, James Paul Gee, 2013-06-17 Approaches to discourse analysis Register and genre Developments in spoken discourse Educational applications Institutional applications Identity culture and discourse The Language of Science Carol Reeves, 2005-11-17 The communication of scientific principles is becoming increasingly important in a world that relies on technology Exploring the use of scientific language in the news and examining how important scientific ideas are reported and communicated this title in the Intertext series takes a look at the use and misuse of scientific language and how it shapes our lives The Language of Science explores the goals of and problems with scientific language and terminology demonstrates the power and misuse of scientific discourse in the media examines the special qualities of scientific communication explores how science and popular culture interact is illustrated with a wide range of examples from the MMR vaccine to AIDS and the biological weapons debate and includes a glossary as well as ideas for further reading This practical book is ideal for post 16 to undergraduate students in English Language Linguistics Journalism Communications Studies or Science Communication
