Continentalizing Canada Gregory J. Inwood, 2005-01-01 Free trade has been a highly contentious issue since the Conservative government of Brian Mulroney negotiated the first deal with the United States in the 1980s Tracing the roots of Canada s contemporary involvement in North American free trade back to the Royal Commission on the Economic Union and Development Prospects for Canada in 1985 also known as the Macdonald Commission Gregory J Inwood offers a critical examination of the commission and how its findings affected Canada s political and economic landscape including its present day reverberations Using original research including content analysis interviews archival information and surveys of relevant literature Inwood argues that the Macdonald Commission created an atmosphere and political discourse that made the continentalization of Canada possible by way of free trade agreements with the U S and Mexico Through the use of a suspect research program and with the aid of a select oligarchy within the Commission and the government bureaucracy opposition to continentalism from both the majority of the Canadian population and even several commissioners was ignored Accessible to readers interested in Canadian politics policy or economy Continentalizing Canada offers a thorough examination into the Macdonald Commission and the resulting discourse in the Canadian political economy areas of Olson's life work Collective Action Institutional Sclerosis and Market Augmenting Government Some chapters directly assess Olson's contributions focusing on distinguishing what was original in his works from what was already in the literature and gauging his impact on the fields of public economics and economic history Other chapters present new tests and frequently extend his work Each of the chapters is a new piece of scholarship inspired by and intended to honor Mancur Olson and extend his influence to another generation of Collective Choice scholars and researchers The Canadian Political System Richard J. Faculty of Library and Information Science, 1992 About itself the 8th edition notes Primarily intended as an instructional guide for library personnel and researchers who work with reference materials the Guide surveys the basic and most familiar or typical resources for general reference work and for work with the disciplines of the humanities social sciences and pure and applied sciences The 7th edition titled Guide to basic reference materials is recommended by ARBA v 16 but is missed by BCL3 and Sheehy A solid work marred by the flimsy paper binding a shockingly bad production decision a bibliography gets repeated use Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Canada 2024-2025 P. T. Babie, Charles J. Russo, 2024-10-31 The World Today Series Canada is an annually updated presentation of Canada It provides the reader an in depth look at the country's culture geography people economy politics and future The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Modern State Intervention in the Era of Globalisation Nikolaos Karagiannis, Zagros Madjd-Sadjadi, 2007-06-26 Modern State Intervention in the Era of Globalisation is a thoughtful and well researched assessment of the evolving role of the state in the contemporary world economy This work is provocative because it goes against the predominant arguments in favor of a minimal state as commonly asserted by neoclassical economics

Instead Karagiannis and Madjd Sadjadi think outside of the box and produce both theoretical arguments and evidence from important cases such as the EU Singapore and Hong Kong to support the idea of a viable and continuing role for the Developmental State The scholarship underlying this very readable book which includes contemporary material as well as ancient economic thought is truly impressive Readers will be left with much to reconsider about the benefits of globalisation Patrick James University of Southern California US
