Language And Gender Making The Difference Pb:

Language and Gender Cate Poynton, 1989 This book deals with the use of language to actively create difference and inequality between men and women Stressing the necessity of looking beyond sexist words for an understanding of how language creates difference Poynton pays particular attention to grammatical and textual structure in both speech and writing She contends that girls and boys become different kinds of people in the process of learning to use language differently in achieving different kinds of social goals New Discourse on Language Monika Bednarek, J. R.

Martin, 2011-10-27 New Discourse on Language addresses the need for innovative analyses of multi modal discourse identity and affiliation within functional linguistics The chapters in this volume are connected by their common underlying theoretical approach Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL and by their focus on semantic variation across modalities of communication and between speakers as well as the negotiation of identity and affiliation The analyses focus on a diverse range of texts from very different contexts using analytic techniques that are based on the latest research in this field They represent a wealth of exploratory innovative and challenging perspectives and are a key contribution to the extension of systemic functional theory to the analysis of multimodality identity and affiliation The volume is of interest to linguists applied linguists semioticians and communication theorists Bookbuyers' Reference Book, 1993 Individual Learner Differences in SLA Janusz

Arabski, Adam Wojtaszek, 2011-09-02 Beginning from the conflict between individual learner differences and the institutionalized often inflexible character of formal language instruction Individual Learner Differences in SLA addresses the fact that despite this apparent conflict ultimate success in learning a language is widespread Starting with theoretically based chapters the book follows the thread of learner differences through sections devoted to learner autonomy differentiated application of learning strategies diagnostic studies of experienced learners management of the learning process and reports on phonological attainment and development of language skills Rather than providing an overview of all individual variables the book reveals how some of them shape and affect the processes of language acquisition and use in particular settings Feminist Bookstore News, 1999 Women's Lives Claire A. Ettaugh, Judith S. Bridges, 2015-07-14

Women's Lives A Psychological Exploration 3rd Edition draws on a wealth of the literature to present a rich range of experiences and issues of relevance to girls and women This text offers the unique combination of a chronological approach to gender that is embedded within topical chapters Cutting edge and comprehensive each chapter integrates current material on women differing in age ethnicity social class nationality sexual orientation and ableness The third edition reflects substantial changes in the field while maintaining its empirical focus through engaging writing student activities and critical thinking exercises With over 2 100 new references emphasizing the latest research and theories the authors continue to pique interests in psychology of women Australian Books in Print 1997 Bowker, 1997-03 excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage AMERICAN REFERENCE BOOKS ANNUAL This comprehensive reference provides
