Roxburgh,2021-05-06 The awareness that the churches shaped out of the European Reformations are in an advanced process of unraveling is becoming increasingly sensed by many This book proposes a way of addressing this unraveling based on the experiences and knowledge of people who have always had to struggle with the unraveling of their own communities and worlds It takes us outside the circular conversations of the Euro tribal churches into dialogue with people who have been marginalized to see how they have learned to reenter their formative stories to discover ways of remaking themselves in the unraveling The book then turns these discoveries into ways the churches can engage their own massive unraveling

Being With and Saying Goodbye Andrew West, 2018-03-29 At a time of increasing financial pressure on families as well as the services that support them children are doubly disadvantaged The economical mass provision of proven approaches appears to be an unquestionable strategy In this frank and revealing book written by an experienced child and adolescent psychiatrist of eclectic and questioning persuasion the argument is made that we are travelling in the wrong direction A blinkered pursuit of empirical evidence and uniform delivery is leading us away from any sensitive and reciprocal relationship between caring professionals and the young individuals whose interests they are there to serve Drawing on attachment and psychodynamic approaches as well as systemic values based and mindful practice Being With and Saying Goodbye describes an attitude that should be the prerequisite and medium of all child and adolescent work that has therapeutic intention Unacknowledged even reviled this ghost in the machine is threatened with extinction
