Using Student-centered Methods with Teacher-centered Students Marilyn Lewis, Hayo Reinders, 2008 This book has a clear message for classroom teachers student learning improves when teachers introduce their students to strategies for learning as well as teaching them specific language skills In practice however many of the students themselves are more teacher centered finding it easier and preferable to depend on their teachers rather than to take on greater responsibility for their own learning especially if their educational and cultural backgrounds have not prepared them for this new role Using Student Centered Methods with Teacher Centered Students is packed with suggestions for bringing about a successful match between teachers preferred ways of teaching and learners preferred ways of learning while gradually encouraging increased learner autonomy The original edition of this book has been widely used by English language teachers worldwide This new edition offers many fresh ideas particularly in the area of technology in language learning and teaching

Developing Materials for Language Teaching Brian Tomlinson, 2013-12-19 There have been a number of books published on various aspects of materials development for language teaching but Developing Materials for Language Teaching is the only one which provides a comprehensive coverage of the main aspects and issues in the field This second edition brings it completely up to date and expands on the original book It deals with advances in IT and an increasingly globalized world It is the only publication which views current developments in materials development through the eyes of developers and users of materials from all over the world In doing so it applies principles to practice in ways demonstrated to facilitate the effectiveness of language learning materials The chapters are written so that the book provides critical overviews of recent developments in materials development and at the same time acts as a stimulus for development and innovation in the field It is intended both for use as a course book on postgraduate and teacher training courses and as a resource for the stimulus and refreshment of teachers publishers and applied linguists in the field The book contains updated versions of many of the chapters in the 2003 edition plus new chapters on corpus informed materials development materials development for blended learning materials development for EAP materials development for ESOL and materials development for young learners
