Ethnographic Landscapes and Language Ideologies in the Spanish State Carla Amorós Negre, Gabriela Prego Vázquez, 2025-03-31 This book offers a multi contributor view on the linguistic landscape research in Spain focusing on both monolingual and bilingual regions of Spain with an interest in initiatives that promote social and linguistic justice without neglecting migrant and international languages in the territory. The agency of speakers is highlighted as well as the processes of linguistic hybridization and identity claims that are created in Spain. This volume analyzes the semiotic meaning of different languages varieties and discursive practices in different Spanish contexts from an ethnographic multimodal and critical perspective. It observes how some languages varieties and repertoires are privileged in top down institutional environments whilst others respond to bottom up initiatives that contemplate complex processes of identity construction in Spain in order to decide whether or not a greater balance between majority and minority languages is achieved in different contexts and spaces nowadays.

Landscape Is...! Gareth Doherty, Charles Waldheim, 2025-02-24. Landscape Is examines the implicit biases and received meanings of landscape. Following on from the previous publication Is Landscape which examined the plural and promiscuous identities of the landscape idea, this companion volume reflects upon the diverse and multiple meanings of landscape as a discipline, profession and medium. This book is intended for academics, researchers and students in landscape architecture and cognate disciplines. Chapters address various overlooked aspects of landscape that develop, disturb and diversify received understandings of the field. Framed as an inquiry into the relationship of landscape to the forms of human subjectivity, the book features contributions from leading voices who challenge the contemporary understandings of the field in relation to capital and class, race and gender, power and politics and more.
