Emerging Geographies of Belief Catherine Brace,2010-10-12 This interdisciplinary book presents new research from international scholars that explores questions of belief faith and religion Focusing on theoretically informed cultural geographical and historical analyses of faith belief religion society and space the book presents new and revised theoretical approaches and methodologies grounded in rigorous empirical research both contemporary and historical The volume takes a deliberately eclectic approach reflecting the complex interactions of the political and poetic dimensions of sacredness in contemporary societies Taking this research agenda forward this book explores how religious beliefs inform and construct social identities public knowledge and modes of governance In particular the book meets an urgent need for a critical understanding of how terms such as religion faith fundamentalism and secularism for example inform public debates and foster constructive engagements both between faith groups and between people of faith and people of no faith The essays in Emerging Geographies of Belief also show that religion cannot be mapped neatly onto faith or belief We attempt to tease out the different circumstances in which for example belief can operate without religious adherence or faith can inspire social action in geographies of hope The geography of the title relates to an overarching concern with space and spatiality rather than describing a single disciplinary approach Our concern with belief faith and religion operates at different temporal and spatial scales in different localities from the contemporary appeal to a more global sense of responsibility to a historically situated account of faith led educational practices This reflects more generally the so called spatial turn in the social sciences and humanities But despite this wide historical and geographical sweep the authors share some key concerns This collection is unique in combining theoretical conceptual and discursive approaches to the emerging geographies of belief with substantive examples of the intersection of belief faith and religion with aspects of everyday life Discussions of the potential subversive and prophetic capacities of faith belief and religion sit alongside consideration of how these have become implicated in the spaces and performances of hope It provides a critique of the situationist and substantive approaches to religion along with insights into the role of faith in education community and social work It considers the practices of remembrance representation and pilgrimage and the place of religion in contemporary identity politics In sum the book problematises the seemingly simple categories of faith religion and belief calling attention to how these are mobilised and implicated differently in different circumstances In addressing these themes the book provides a key theoretical resource but crucially goes on to show how multiple perspectives on belief however defined can be applied in practice Whilst there has been much contemporary work on the individual areas covered by the book they have not been brought together before to provide a dynamic insight into issues of the most pressing relevance

Expressiveness Marta Benenti,2020-10-12 A natural landscape can look serene a shade of colour cheerful and a piece of music might sound heartrending Why do we ascribe affective qualities to objects that can't entertain psychological states The capacity that objects and especially artworks have to express affective states is a bizarre phenomenon that needs to be clarified in numerous respects Philosophers are still struggling with the phenomenon of expressiveness being a matter of imagination perception or mnemonic association and usually do not agree on the role that emotions and human bodily expressions play in it Benenti questions the main theories that populate the aesthetics domain using the tools of philosophy of mind This study deals with crucial debates concerning seeing in cognitive penetration the relation between phenomenal character and representational content and between emotions and expressions It aims at providing a viable account of the experience we have of expressive properties by casting light on its fundamentally perceptual nature The outcome is an empirically informed and critical overview of a topic which has been rather neglected in the philosophy of mind The book will be of interest to scholars of the philosophy of mind aesthetics the cognitive sciences and psychology Re-Inventing Islam

Deanna Ferree Womack, 2025 From the end of the American Civil War to the start of World War II the Protestant missionary movement unintentionally tilled the soil in which American Islamophobia would eventually take root What ideas did missionaries in Islamic contexts pass on to later generations How were these ideas connected to centuries old Protestant discourses about Muslims and gender beginning in the Reformation And what bearing does this history have on the birth of Islamophobia and on Christian Muslim dialogue efforts in the US today In answering these questions Re-inventing Islam traces the gender constructs that have informed historical Protestant perceptions of Islam especially in the far reaching textual visual and material influences of the American and British movement for missions to Muslims This book first considers Protestant discourse about Muslim women and men from the Reformation to the Enlightenment Then it turns to the colossal archive of literature images and cultural objects that missionaries and particularly missionary women collected from Islamic contexts and used to inform and motivate their constituents Anglo Protestants in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries perpetually re-invented stereotypes about Muslims and used these negative images to achieve particular Protestant theological and political purposes including missionary aims They did so when disseminating gender critiques widely to Protestant men women and children Why did they re-invent Islam Deanna Ferree Womack argues that they did so to reinforce Protestant theological claims to justify their evangelistic endeavors to express both humanitarian concern and Eurocentric views of the world and to support British and American cultural economic and military expansion Simultaneously however this same missionary movement educated its constituents about diverse Islamic cultures in part by providing humanizing images of Islam Missionaries also formed personal relationships with Muslims that would open pathways toward formal efforts of Christian Muslim dialogue after the mid twentieth century Americans have inherited all of these legacies In revisiting this history readers will find new possibilities for building a more open and just future The Sacred Trio: Weaving Wisdom, Belief, and Love into the Fabric of Your Spiritual Life Shu Chen Hou, Are you ready to take your spirituality

The Epistemological Spectrum David K. Henderson, Terry Horgan, 2011-08-04 Henderson and Horgan set out a broad new approach to epistemology They defend the roles of the a priori and conceptual analysis but with an essential empirical dimension Transglobal reliability is the key to epistemic justification The question of which cognitive processes are reliable depends on contingent facts about human capacities

Dante in Conversation with Contemporary Theorists Blaise Cirelli, 2024-12-09 Dante's Divine Comedy appears on the reading list of almost every university's Humanities Studies department But often it is thought of as a relic from the past What if instead of considering the Divine Comedy as a historical artifact one engaged the text as a work pertinent to the moment Can we learn anything about our present situation by reading the Divine Comedy Blaise Cirelli brings the Divine Comedy to life by challenging readers to consider how contemporary theorists might question Dante about his work Where would Dante and the theorists agree and where might they disagree And which side might the reader of this text choose This book will both enrich our understanding of Dante's Divine Comedy and challenge us to think afresh about our own beliefs

Islamic Education and Indoctrination Charlene Tan, 2012-01-26 Islamic schools especially madrasahs have been viewed as sites of indoctrination for Muslim students and militants Some educators and parents in the United States have also regarded introductory courses on Islam in some public schools as indoctrinatory But what do we mean by indoctrination And is Islamic education indoctrinatory This book critically discusses the concept of indoctrination in the context of Islamic education It explains that indoctrination occurs when a person holds to a type of beliefs known as control beliefs that result in ideological totalism Using Indonesia as an illustrative case study the book expounds on the conditions for an indoctrinatory tradition to exist and thrive Examples include the Islamic school co founded by Abu Bakar Ba'asyir and the militant organisation Jemaah Islamiyah The book further proposes ways to counter and avoid indoctrination through formal non formal and informal education It argues for the creation and promotion of educative traditions that are underpinned by religious pluralism strong rationality and strong autonomy Examples of such educative Muslim traditions in Indonesia will be highlighted Combining philosophical inquiry with empirical research this book is a timely contribution to the study of contemporary and often controversial issues in Islamic education

Division,1991 The Soul of the Helper Holly K. Oxhandler,2022-02-28 There are many kinds of helpers in our world the caregivers among us They are the social workers who serve the vulnerable the nurses and doctors who treat the ill the teachers who instruct the young the first responders who rescue the imperiled the faith leaders who comfort the congregation the volunteers who support the community And whether or not it is our professional calling each of us is likely to serve as a caregiver at some point in our lives as a parent raising a child for instance or as a loved one caring for an aging relative These and many other efforts to serve are among the most noble pursuits we can imagine but they come with a danger worth recognizing In their devotion to the well being of others caregivers routinely put their own well being last and can unintentionally burn themselves out physically emotionally and spiritually Their self neglect paired alongside a deep desire to help others has the potential to stir up feelings of anger and resentment leading to a sense of guilt and shame They often believe that if they were to grant themselves any rest or grace they would be at risk of failing in their duty In The Soul of the Helper Dr Holly K Oxhandler shows caregivers and fellow helpers a more self compassionate way to cope with their overwhelming responsibilities and to attend to their own needs particularly when it comes to their mental health and spiritual journey She invites them to pause and realize that if they let their personal resources run dry they cannot possibly care for others as fully as they wish In fact their efforts are likely to cause more harm than good With a background in spiritually integrated mental health Dr Oxhandler teaches helpers a seven step process to slow down and reconnect with the stillness within themselves It is in this space of stillness that Oxhandler guides helpers to reconnect with the sacred spark within their soul By allowing themselves to enter that stillness caregivers will recognize that they too are worthy of care And with that realization they will see anew the sacred spark that dwells inside everyone else especially within those they re helping As a social worker researcher and person of faith Dr Oxhandler writes in a warm and welcoming style shares many relatable stories and widens her scope to include believers of all faiths and spiritual traditions Her book is for caregivers everywhere who sense the sacred spark within them saying in effect Come to me all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in The Asia-Pacific Kapila D.

Silva,Ken Taylor,David S. Jones,2022-07-29 The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific revisits the use growth and potential of the cultural landscape methodology in the conservation and management of culture nature heritage in the Asia Pacific region Taking both a retrospective and prospective view of the management of cultural heritage in the region this volume argues that the plurality and complexity of heritage in the region cannot be comprehensively understood and effectively managed without a broader conceptual framework like the cultural landscape approach The book also demonstrates that such an approach facilitates the development of a flexible strategy for heritage conservation Acknowledging the effects of rapid socio economic development globalization and climate change contributors examine the pressure these issues place on the sustenance of cultural heritage Including chapters from more than 20 countries across the Asia Pacific region the volume reviews the effectiveness of theoretical and practical potentials afforded by the cultural landscape approach and examines how they have been utilized in the Asia Pacific context for the last three decades The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific provides a comprehensive analysis of the processes of cultural landscape heritage conservation and management As a result it will be of interest to academics students and professionals who are based in the fields of cultural heritage management architecture urban planning landscape architecture and landscape management

Landscape's Revenge Caio Yurgel, 2018-11-05 Landscape as it appears and is described throughout the works of Bernardo Carvalho and Robert Walser provides an excellent yet virtually unexplored pathway to the authors literary projects The landscape functions here as a synthetic and unifying figure that triggers at first through the analysis of its description per se the main and most evident elements of the authors works However when sustained as a methodological figure beyond the scope of its own description the landscape soon reveals a darker far more fascinating and far less explored side of the authors oeuvres a vengeful seemingly defeatist resentment against the status quo which gives way to the more latent and biting elements of the authors prose such as irony the unheimlich an anti heroic agenda the apocalyptic aesthetics of a disaster prone fictional world as well as an understanding of history and literature through the figures of failure and marginality By drawing from diverse critical traditions from Latin America and Europe this comparative text seeks to unravel in all of its complexity and scope the fictional stage upon which Walser's and Carvalho's characters narrate with their dying breath a world that is slowly undoing itself
