Language Communication And Rhetoric In Black America:

Language, Communication, and Rhetoric in Black America Molefi Kete Asante, 1972      Understanding African American Rhetoric Ronald L. Jackson II, Elaine B. Richardson, 2014-05-22 This is an extraordinarily well balanced collection of essays focused on varied expressions of African American Rhetoric it also is a critical antidote to a preoccupation with Western Rhetoric as the arbiter of what counts for effective rhetoric Rather than impose Western terminology on African and African American rhetoric the essays in this volume seek to illumine rhetoric from within its own cultural expression thereby creating an understanding grounded in the culture s values The consequence is a richly detailed and well researched set of essays The contribution of African American rhetoric can no longer be rendered invisible through neglect of its tradition The essays in this volume neither seek to displace Western Rhetoric nor function as an uncritical paen to Afrocentricity and Africology This volume is both timely and essential timely in advancing a better understanding of the richly textured history that is expressed through African American discourse and essential as a counterpoint to the hegemonic influence of Greek and Roman rhetoric as the origin of rhetorical theory and practice Written in the spirit of a critical rhetoric this collection eschews traditional focus on public address and instead offers a rich array of texts in musical and other forms that address publics      The Routledge Reader of African American Rhetoric Vershawn Ashanti Young, Michelle Bachelor

Robinson, 2024-11-01 The Routledge Reader of African American Rhetoric is a comprehensive compendium of primary texts that is designed for use by students teachers and scholars of rhetoric and for the general public interested in the history of African American communication The volume and its companion website include dialogues creative works essays folklore music interviews news stories raps videos and speeches that are performed or written by African Americans Both the book as a whole and the various selections in it speak directly to the artistic cultural economic gendered social and political condition of African Americans from the enslavement period in America to the present as well as to the Black Diaspora      Homiletic

David G. Buttrick, 1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics      The History and Theory of Rhetoric Luke Winslow, James A.

Herrick, 2025-08-19 By tracing the traditional progression of rhetoric from the Greek Sophists to contemporary theorists this updated eighth edition gives students a conceptual framework for evaluating and practicing persuasive writing and speaking in a wide range of settings including written visual and digital media Through an expansive historical purview the book illustrates how persuasive public discourse performs essential social functions and shapes our societies drawing on the ideas of many of history s greatest thinkers and theorists This new edition includes an integrated exploration of non Western rhetorics an updated account of contemporary rhetoric and an enhanced analysis of rhetorical theory in a digital age Known for its clear writing style and contemporary examples throughout The History and Theory of Rhetoric emphasizes the relevance of rhetoric to today's students This revised edition serves as a core textbook for rhetoric courses in both English and communication programs covering both the historical tradition of rhetoric and contemporary rhetoric studies A suite of online resources including a detailed instructor's manual PowerPoint slides and videos from Dr Winslow can be found on the Instructor and Student Resources website at www.routledgelearning.com/historyofrhetoric

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois's Dialectics Reiland Rabaka's Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climatic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois's rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe's ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academy

Liberating Language Shirley Wilson Logan, 2008-09-11 This book traces the ways that African Americans learned lessons in rhetoric through language based activities associated with black survival in nineteenth century America such as working in political organizations reading and publishing newspapers maintaining diaries and participating in literary societies It shows how rhetorical training was manifested through places of worship and military camps self education in oratory and elocution literary societies and the black press It also draws on the experiences of various black rhetors of the era such as Frederick Douglass Frances Harper Fanny Coppin Charles Chesnut Ida B Wells and the lesser known Oberlin educated Mary Virginia Montgomery Virginia slave preacher Uncle Jack and former slave Mrs Lee The book also outlines nontraditional means of acquiring rhetorical skills and demonstrates how African Americans faced with the lingering consequences of enslavement acquired rhetorical competence
