Chovanec, Isabel Ermida, 2012-04-25 Language and Humour in the Media provides new insights into the interface between humour studies and media discourse analysis connecting two areas of scholarly interest that have not been studied extensively before The volume adopts a multi disciplinary approach concentrating on the various roles humour plays in print and audiovisual media the forms it takes the purposes it serves the butts it targets the implications it carries and the differences it may assume across cultures The phenomena described range from conversational humour canned jokes and wordplay to humour in translation and news satire The individual studies draw their material for analysis from traditional print and broadcast media such as magazines sitcoms films and spoof news as well as electronic and internet based media such as emails listserv messages live blogs and online news The volume will be of primary interest to a wide range of researchers in the fields of discourse analysis sociolinguistics intercultural studies pragmatics communication studies and rhetoric but it will also appeal to scholars in the areas of media studies psychology and crosscultural communication The Language of Comic Narratives Isabel Ermida, 2008-12-10 The book offers a comprehensive account of how humor works in short stories by presenting a model of narrative comedy that is pragmatically as well as semantically grammatically and stylistically informed It is the first study to combine a sequential analysis of the comic short story with a hierarchical one merging together horizontal and vertical narratological perspectives in a systematic way The book covers the main areas of linguistic analysis and is deliberately interdisciplinary using input from philosophy sociology and psychology so as to touch upon the nature motivations and functions of humor as a cognitive phenomenon in a social context Crucially The Language of Comic Narratives combines a scholarly approach with a careful explanation of key terms and concepts making it accessible to researchers and students as well as non specialists Moreover it reviews a broad range of historical critical data by examining the source texts and it provides many humorous examples from jokes to extracts from comic narratives Thus it seeks to anchor theory in specific texts and also to show that many linguistic mechanisms of humor are common to jokes and longer literary comic narratives The book tests the model of humorous narratives on a set of comic short stories by British and

American writers ranging from Evelyn Waugh and Dorothy Parker through Graham Greene and Corey Ford to David Lodge and Woody Allen The validity of the model is confirmed through a subsequent discussion of apparent counter examples

Gambier,Miriam Shlesinger,Radegundis Stolze,2007-07-13 Like previous collections based on congresses of the European Society of Translation Studies EST this volume presents the latest insights and findings in an ever changing ever challenging domain The twenty six papers carefully chosen from about 140 presented at the 4th EST Congress offer a bird s eye view of the most pressing concerns and most exciting vistas in Translation Studies today The editors final choices reflect a focus on quality of approach originality of topic and clarity of presentation and aim at capturing the most salient developments in the contemporary theory methodology and technology of TS As always in EST the themes covered relate to translation as well as interpreting They include discussion of a broad range of text types and skopoi and a diversity of themes such as translation universals translation strategies translation and ideology perception of translated humor translation tools etc Many of the papers force us to take a fresh look at seemingly well established paradigms and familiar notions while also making recourse to work being done in other disciplines Semiotics Linguistics Discourse Analysis Contrastive Studies Nonsense and

Other Senses Elisabetta Tarantino with the collaboration of Carlo Caruso,2020-07-24 This book deals with a topic that is gaining increasing critical attention the literature of nonsense and absurdity The volume gathers together twenty one essays on various aspects of literary nonsense according to criteria that are deliberately inclusive and eclectic Its purpose is to offer a gallery of nonsense practices in literature across periods and countries in the conviction that important critical insights can be gained from these juxtapositions Most of the cases presented here deal with linguistic nonsense but in a few instances the nonsense operates at the higher level of the interpretation of reality on the part of the subject or of the impossibility thereof The contributors to the volume are established and younger scholars from various countries Chronologically the chapters range widely from Dante to V clav Havel and offer a large span of national literatures Czech English Finnish French German Italian Japanese and literary genres poetry prose and drama inviting the readers to trace their own pathway and draw their own lines of connection One point that emerges with particular force is the notion that what distinguishes literary nonsense is its somehow regulated nature Literary nonsense thus sounds like a deliberate last ditch attempt to snatch order from the jaws of chaos the speech of the Fool as opposed to the tale told by an idiot It is this kind of post Derridean retrieval of choice as the defining element in semantic transactions which is perhaps the most significant insight bequeathed by the study of nonsense to the analysis of poetry and literature in general
