relacionados con el aprendizaje del inglés como segunda lengua. Por eso destacan estudios que contemplan rasgos morfológicos y sintácticos. Sin embargo, el mayor número de participaciones hace referencia al ya citado aprendizaje del inglés como L2 tanto desde el análisis de materiales como desde la práctica oral o escrita. Las contribuciones literarias ofrecen una evaluación más rica formal e interpretativa de distintas tendencias desde perspectivas tanto interdisciplinares como interculturales. Cronológicamente los estudios abarcan textos desde el siglo XVIII hasta nuestros días con un acento especial en los autores más contemporáneos y en el género narrativo. En general estos estudios se fijan en textos concretos y los analizan desde perspectivas culturales, sociolíticas o psicolíticas. Pero abundan menos las aproximaciones desde la teoría literaria desde la técnica narrativa o como tal vez cabría esperar al tratarse de estudiantes tan jóvenes desde la aplicación de las nuevas tecnologías. Por el contrario se repiten temas como los traumas heredados de la Guerra de Vietnam, las cicatrices del 11 de septiembre o los problemas de género. En definitiva se trata de una selección de artículos claramente prometedora que transmite la seguridad de que el futuro de la Filología Inglesa está en buenas manos y podrá experimentar una positiva evolución en los próximos años. Por todo ello hay que felicitar a todos los participantes individuales y sobre todo a los organizadores del evento y editores de este volumen que han demostrado una enorme capacidad de trabajo y de saber hacer.

Resources in Education ,1997 Current trends in anglophone studies: cultural,linguistic and literary research: Javier GARCÍA RUANO, 2011 La publicación de este volumen representa un caso relativamente insólito. Un pequeño grupo de jóvenes investigadores de menos de treinta años convence a un grupo mucho más numeroso de la misma edad para celebrar en Salamanca la First Conference of Young Researchers on Anglophone Studies. El resultado es deslumbrante. No solo demuestran una gran capacidad organizativa sino que los resultados individuales de las aportaciones científicas son sobresalientes. Este volumen Current Trends in Anglophone Studies recoge una selección revisada de las propuestas presentadas en el Encuentro y gira en torno a una estructuración tripartita clásica: estudios culturales, lingüísticos y literarios. En ella caben todos aquellos que se mueven en el campo de los estudios anglofonos. Cada uno de estos campos podrá haber sido suficiente para celebrar un congreso pero parece razonable que en este tipo de encuentros tengan cabida todos. De ese modo este volumen se convierte en un ejemplo de aproximación

Teaching English in Multilingual Contexts Graeme Cane,2011-01-18 This collection of innovative thought-provoking papers discusses contemporary issues, practices, and research related to the role and teaching of English in multilingual countries. The papers written by experienced practitioners in the field from a number of different countries examine how the English language can be more effectively taught to students in Asia who speak English as their second, third, or fourth language. The book will be of interest not only to linguists, language teachers, and educators but also to social science researchers involved in exploring the effects language policy can have on education and society at large. The eleven chapters in this book are divided into three sections: multilingual aspects in the teaching and learning of English, code switching, and code mixing, and assessment. Their authors came to Karachi from different academic, cultural, and geographic backgrounds and with diverse experiences of the world of English Language Teaching in order to participate in the Fifth International Seminar hosted by the Aga Khan University Centre of English Language. The contributors are all multi-linguals for whom the question of how best to teach languages is a challenge they face on a daily basis. This small collection of papers is likely to become a powerful resource for English teachers, scholars, and researchers interested in the problems facing language educators in today's multilingual, multi-cultural world.

Raza Studies Julio Cammarota,Augustine Romero,2014-02-27 The well-known and controversial Mexican American studies MAS program in Arizona's Tucson Unified School District set out to create an equitable and excellent educational experience for Latino students. Raza Studies: The Public Option for Educational Revolution offers the first comprehensive account of this progressive, indeed revolutionary program by those who created it, implemented it, and have struggled to protect it. Inspired by Paulo Freire's vision for critical pedagogy and Chicano activists of the 1960s, the designers of the program believed their program would encourage academic achievement and engagement by Mexican American students. With chapters by leading scholars, this volume explains how the program used critically compassionate intellectualism to help students become transformative intellectuals who successfully worked to improve their level of academic achievement as well as create social change in their schools and communities. Despite its popularity and success, inverting the achievement gap in 2010, Arizona state legislators introduced and passed legislation with the intent of banning MAS or any similar curriculum in public schools Raza Studies is a passionate defense of the program in the face of heated local and national attention It recounts how one program dared to venture to a world of possibility hope and struggle and offers compelling evidence of success for social justice education programs Hearings United States.
