Filipino English and Taglish Roger M. Thompson, 2003-10-16 English competes with Tagalog and Taglish a mixture of English and Tagalog for the affections of Filipinos To understand the competing ideologies that underlie this switching between languages this book looks at the language situation from multiple perspectives Part A reviews the social and political forces that have propelled English through its life cycle in the Philippines from the 1898 arrival of Admiral Dewey to the 1998 election of Joseph Estrada Part B looks at the social support for English in Metro Manila and the provinces with a focus on English teachers and their personal and public use of English Part C examines the language of television sport broadcasts commercials interviews sitcoms and movies and the language of newspapers from various linguistic sociolinguistic and sociocultural perspectives The results put into perspective the short lived language revolution that took place at the turn of the twenty first century

Language Choice in Interracial Marriages: The Case of Filipino-Malaysian Couples Francisco Perlas Dumanig, 2010-10-19 Language choice has become a common phenomenon in interracial encounters in which speakers are always faced with the challenge of choosing an appropriate language in various domains of communication In multilingual and multiracial societies language choice can sometimes be crucial because of its social political and economic impact on the speakers Even in the smallest unit of a society which is the family language choice plays an important role particularly in interactions between husbands and wives who come from different linguistic and cultural backgrounds It is therefore the objective of this research to examine the language choice in interracial couples communication More specifically this research examines the language choice accommodation strategies and code switching patterns in verbal communication of Filipino Malaysian couples in the home domain Furthermore this study explores the occurrence of language choice in relation to ethnicity first language and gender To carry out the study 60 spouses consisting of Filipino Malay Filipino Malaysian Chinese and Filipino Malaysian Indian couples were interviewed and given questionnaires which include the socio demographic profile language choice and accommodation strategies used Data were collected using the qualitative approach by interviewing and recording the conversations of Filipino Malaysian couples To support the qualitative findings a quantitative approach based on the questionnaire results was also used The findings of the study reveal that Filipino Malaysian couples prefer English as their medium of communication at home with some switching to Bahasa Malaysia Chinese and Filipino languages The couples preference of English is prevalent although none of them considered English as their first language Their mother tongue becomes the secondary preference which is evident in the use of code switching The findings further reveal that couples language choice is influenced by ethnicity first language and gender On the other hand the use of accommodation strategies such as approximation interpretability discourse management and interpersonal control accommodation strategies occurs in many interactions The findings of the study support Giles and Powesland s 1978 Communication Accommodation Theory CAT that in interracial couples communication spouses tend to accommodate each other by using a range of accommodation strategies which include code switching Ethno-religious Identification and Intergroup Contact Avoidance Menandro Sarion Abanes, 2014 This study focuses on the latent aspects of an ethno religious conflict describing why and how people avoid contact with out groups Their contact avoidance is largely based on the notion of power The book shows how contact avoidance towards out groups is related to people s ethno religious identification This is explained by various factors such as a perceived group threat out group distrust fundamentalism quantity of contact and direct experiences of violence Finally the book illustrates how education mass media and the history of conflict are related with intergroup contact avoidance Series Nijmegen Studies in Development and Cultural Change NICCOS Vol 50 Subject Religious Studies Christianity Islamic Studies Asian Studies Army Regulations United States. for success to our younger generations The Gift of Languages Paradigm Shift In U S Foreign Language Education explores the many advantages of multilingual education and sets the stage for a new paradigm in our approach to teaching and learning languages The book touches on the issue of foreign language deficit in the United States and the changes that need to occur in our schools to better serve our children and our linguistic communities The book also explores the growth of dual language education in recent years and explores the connection between both multilingual programming and solving the United States foreign language problem The discussion on language education in the United States has never been neutral moreover it has traditionally provided substantive direction and exerted significant authority over educational policy Yet this debate needs to move towards viewing multilingual education as an essential approach for our society and as something that should be prevalent among educational policymakers The audience for this book includes educators language teachers school leaders school boards program directors scholars and policy makers particularly if they want to join forces in building the future of education and investing in the multilingual capital of our nation This book is part of The Bilingual Revolution Series Praises We are at a critical point in our nation in which we can continue to hold on to our monolingual past or embrace a multilingual and more inclusive future The Gift of Languages helps us prepare and understand the necessary paradigm shift to adopt and implement a multilingual curriculum and mindset in our schools and communities Co authored by two pioneers and experienced experts in the bi and multilingual education space the book is a must read for educators policy makers community leaders students and interested parents who want to make meaningful changes now Andrew H Clark Ph D Chair Dept of Modern Languages as a nation we have not lived up to his words and actions Let us remind ourselves that we started out a linguistically and culturally diverse group of peoples that came together to build a strong nation over the years Linguistic diversity is the gift that our nation needs to give itself Francesco L Fratto President The Foreign Language Association of Chairpersons and Supervisors Mastering languages is essential for communicating with and understanding others respecting each other and appreciating our heritages and our roots The Gift of Languages offers an invaluable toolbox for policy makers educators families and students who are already working in the field of language and those who hope to create the kind of paradigm shift that the authors advocate The book provides cogent arguments in favor of expanded language learning at all levels and especially argues in favor of expanding the breadth and variety of multilingual educational opportunities already spreading in public school systems from Utah to Louisiana to New York and beyond The authors cite examples of the Bilingual Revolution already underway and provide the kinds of arguments and examples that resonate for educators and drive policy towards furthering the way we value language education in the United States The book is indispensable for anyone interested in the future of foreign language education Jane F Ross Ph D President and Founder French Heritage Language Program Over 60% of people on the planet are bilingual or multilingual which suggests that this is the norm for human beings and multiple studies demonstrate the cognitive social political and financial benefits of bilingualism Yet in the United States we regularly hear news stories about people being shamed bullied and sometimes violently harmed for speaking other languages even when they also speak English Accessibly written this book offers detailed arguments for both why and how the nation should embrace and promote linguistic diversity Options for adults are expertly addressed yet the authors invest even greater passion and detail in promoting early educational programs in which no child is left monolingual I can think of no better way to shift our nation s view of itself from English Only to English Plus and create a more inclusive society We need a roadmap and this book clearly lays out the territory and possible trajectories as it motivates us to make the journey Kimberly J Potowski Ph D Professor in the Department of Hispanic and Italian Studies University of Illinois at Chicago About the Authors Fabrice Jaumont is the author of The Bilingual Revolution The Future of Education is in Two Languages TBR Books 2017 which provides inspirational vignettes and practical advice for parents and educators who want to create a dual language program in their own school He has also published several books and articles on philanthropy higher education heritage languages cinema and the arts Fabrice Jaumont is Education Attach for the Embassy of France to the United States a Program Director for FACE Foundation in New York and the founder of New York in French He is also a Senior Fellow at Fondation Maison des Sciences de l Homme in Paris Fabrice Jaumont holds a Ph D in Comparative and International Education from New York University For more information visit the author s blog fabricejaumont.net Kathleen Stein Smith is the author of The U S Foreign Language Deficit Strategies for Maintaining a Competitive Edge in a Globalized World Palgrave MacMillan 2016 The U S Foreign Language Deficit and How It Can Be Effectively Addressed in the Globalized World A Bibliographic Essay Edwin Mellen Press 2013 and The U S Foreign Language Deficit and Our Economic and National Security A Bibliographic Essay on the U S Language Paradox Edwin Mellen Press 2013 Kathleen Stein Smith is Associate University Librarian at Fairleigh Dickinson University Chair of the American Association of Teachers of French Commission on Advocacy and member of the American Translators Association Education Pedagogy Committee She has taught foreign languages at high school and college level taught adult learners delivered TEDx talk on the U S foreign language deficit She holds a Ph D in Interdisciplinary Studies from Union Institute University For more information visit the author s blog kathleensteinsmith.wordpress.com Uniform Trade List Annual ,1977

Language Spoken at Home and Ability to Speak English for United States, Regions and States, 1990 ,1993

Spontaneous Spoken Language Jim Miller, Regina Weinert, 1998-03-26 Jim Miller and Regina Weinert investigate syntactic structure and the organization of discourse in spontaneous spoken language Using data from English German and Russian they develop a systematic analysis of spoken English and highlight properties that hold across languages The authors argue that the differences in syntax and the construction of discourse between spontaneous speech and written language bear on various areas of linguistic theory apart from having obvious implications for syntactic analysis In particular they bear on typology Chomskyan theories of first language acquisition and the perennial problem of language in education

In current typological practice written and spontaneous spoken texts are often compared the authors show convincingly that typological research should compare like with like The consequences for Chomskyan and indeed all theories of first language acquisition flow from the central fact that children acquire spoken language but learn written language Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics ,2005-11-24 The first edition of ELL 1993 Ron Asher Editor was hailed as the field s standard reference work for a generation Now the all new second edition matches ELL s comprehensiveness and high quality expanded for a new generation while being the first encyclopedia to really exploit the multimedia potential of linguistics The most authoritative up to date comprehensive and international reference source in its field An entirely new work with new editors new authors new topics and newly commissioned articles with a handful of classic articles The first Encyclopedia to exploit the multimedia potential of linguistics through the online edition Ground breaking and International in scope and approach Alphabetically arranged with extensive cross referencing Available in print and online priced separately The online version will include updates as subjects develop ELL2 includes c 7 500 000 words c 11 000 pages c 3 000 articles c 1 500 figures 130 halftones and 150 colour Supplementary audio video and text files online c 3 500 glossary definitions c 39 000 references Extensive list of commonly used abbreviations List of languages of the world including information on no of speakers language family etc Approximately 700 biographical entries now includes contemporary linguists 200 language maps in print and online Also available online via ScienceDirect featuring extensive browsing searching and internal cross referencing between articles in the work plus dynamic linking to journal articles and abstract databases making navigation flexible and easy For more information pricing options and availability visit www.info.sciencedirect.com The first Encyclopedia to exploit the multimedia potential of linguistics Ground breaking in scope wider than any predecessor An invaluable resource for researchers academics students and professionals in the fields of linguistics anthropology education psychology language acquisition language pathology cognitive science sociology the law the media medicine computer science The most authoritative up to date comprehensive and international reference source in its field Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1977 List and Index of Department of the Army Publications United States.
