Obenchain, Rachael H. Kenney, Alandeom W. Oliveira, 2019-01-17 This practitioner based book provides different approaches for reaching an increasing population in today s schools English language learners ELLs The recent development and adoption of the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy in History Social Studies Science and Technical Subjects CCSS ELA Literacy the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics the C3 Framework and the Next Generation Science Standards NGSS highlight the role that teachers have in developing discipline specific competencies This requires new and innovative approaches for teaching the content areas to all students The book begins with an introduction that contextualizes the chapters in which the editors highlight transdisciplinary theories and approaches that cut across content areas In addition the editors include a table that provides a matrix of how strategies and theories map across the chapters The four sections of the book represent the following content areas English language arts mathematics science and social studies This book offers practical guidance that is grounded in relevant theory and research and offers teachers suggestions on how to use the approaches described Engaging with Linguistic Diversity David Little, Déirdre Kirwan, 2019-06-13 Engaging with Linguistic Diversity describes an innovative and highly successful approach to inclusive plurilingual education at primary level The approach was developed by Scoil Bhr de Cail n Blanchardstown as a way of converting extreme linguistic diversity more than 50 home languages in a school of 320 pupils into educational capital The central feature of the approach is the inclusion of home languages in classroom communication After describing the national context the book traces the development of Scoil Bhr de s approach and explores in detail its impact on classroom discourse pupils plurilingual literacy development and their capacity for autonomous learning The authors illustrate their arguments with a wealth of practical evidence drawn from a variety of sources pupils and teachers voices are especially prominent The concluding chapter considers issues of sustainability and replication and the implications of the approach for teacher education The book refers to a wide range of relevant research findings and theories including translanguaging plurilingual and intercultural education language awareness and language learner autonomy It is essential reading for researchers and policy makers in the field of linguistically inclusive education The Roles of Social Media in Education: Affective, Behavioral, and Cognitive Dimensions Hung Phu Bui, Mark Bedoya Ulla, Veronica N. Tarrayo, Chien Thang Pham, 2023-10-24 technologies in education A large body of research has attempted to measure the extent to which social media change human communication In education researchers and educators have employed social media to increase students engagement inside and outside the classroom They have been exploring the effects of the use of social media on the learning outcome and learners beliefs and experiences However some of their endeavors are inconclusive As the effects of social media in education are context sensitive research results reflecting different contexts around the world will contribute to the literature on social media and education Student engagement in learning a growing interest in educational research is widely believed to contribute to the success of learning The contemporary literature shows that students can engage in learning affectively behaviorally and cognitively Recent studies are also interested in using technology to mediate students social and metacognitive engagement in learning As student engagement is a multidimensional area interdisciplinary studies have recently expanded their literature The use of social media to increase student engagement in learning remains underexplored

Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy, 2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach
