From Foreign Language Education to Education for Intercultural Citizenship Michael Byram,2008-05-27 This collection of essays and reflections starts from an analysis of the purposes of foreign language teaching and argues that this should include educational objectives which are ultimately similar to those of education for citizenship It does so by a journey through reflections on what is possible and desirable in the classroom and how language teaching has a specific role in education systems which have long had and often still have the purpose of encouraging young people to identify with the nation state Foreign language education can break through this framework to introduce a critical internationalism In a globalised and internationalised world the importance of identification with people beyond the national borders is crucial Combined with education for citizenship foreign language education can offer an education for intercultural citizenship
