Language Unbound On Experimental Writing By Women Hb:

Language Unbound Nancy Gray,1992 Books in Print ,1991 The Journal of Education ,1918 Quill & Quire ,2002 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Journal of Education and School World ,1918 International Books in Print ,1990 Small Press Record of Books in Print ,1992 Book Review Index ,2000 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Women Writers and Experimental Narratives Kate Aughterson,Deborah Philips,2021-01-23 This book explores the history of women s engagement with writing experimentally Women writers have long used different narratives and modes of writing as a way of critiquing worlds and stories that they find themselves at odds with but at the same time as a way to participate in such spaces Experimentation of style mode voice genre and language has enabled women writers to be simultaneously creative and critical engaged in and yet apart from stories and cultures that have so often seen them as other This collection shows that women writers in English over the past 400 years have challenged those ideas not only through explicit polemic and alternative representations but through disrupting the very modes of representation and story itself A Different Language Marianne DeKoven,1983

Women's Experimental Writing Ellen E. Berry,2016-05-19 Women s Experimental Writing considers six contemporary authors who use experimental methods and negative modes of critique in their fiction and feminism The authors covered are Valerie Solanas Kathy Acker Theresa Cha Chantel Chawaf Jeanette Winterson and Lynda Barry These writers all share a commitment to combining extreme content with formally radical techniques in order to enact varieties of gender sex race class and nation based experience that they suggest may only be represented accurately through the experimental unmaking of dominant structures of rationality Ellen Berry extends the anti social negative critique predominant in queer studies by offering an alternative archive of feminist negative literary practices and explores the consequences of joining an anti social critique with radical innovations in literary and cultural forms She argues that the radical aesthetic practices the authors employ are central to the emergence of contemporary Western feminisms and in doing so rectifies a critical neglect of contemporary experimental writing by women especially in politicized forms within the still emerging postmodern canon

New Orientations I. Coy-dibley,2020 Breaking the Sequence Ellen G. Friedman,Miriam Fuchs,2014-07-14 These nineteen essays introduce the rich and until now largely unexplored tradition of women s experimental fiction in the twentieth century The writers discussed here range from Gertrude Stein to Christine Brooke Rose and include among others Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Jane Bowles Marguerite Young Eva Figes Joyce Carol Oates and Marguerite Duras Friedman and Fuchs demonstrate the breadth of their research first in their introduction to the volume in which they outline the history of the reception of women s experimental fiction and analyze and categorize the work not only of the writers to whom essays are devoted but of a number of others too and second in an extensive and wonderfully useful bibliography Emma Kafalenos The International Fiction Review After an introduction that is practically itself a monograph eighteen essayists too many of them distinguished to allow an equitable sampling take up three generations of post modernists American Literature The editors see this volume as part of the continuing feminist project of the recovery and foregrounding of women writers Friedman and Fuchs s substantive introduction excellently synthesizes the issues presented in the rest of the volume Patrick D Murphy Studies in the Humanities Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 We who Love to be Astonished Laura Hinton,Cynthia Hogue,2002 This first critical volume devoted to the full range of women s postmodern works includes some of the most respected writers and critics in the contemporary avant garde We Who Love to Be Astonished collects a powerful group of previously unpublished essays to fill a gap in the critical evaluation of women s contributions to postmodern experimental writing Contributors include Alan Golding Aldon Nielsen and Rachel Blau DuPlessis discussions include analyses of the work of Kathleen Fraser Harryette Mullen and Kathy Acker among others The editors take as their title a line from the work of Lyn Hejinian one of the most respected of innovative women poets writing today The volume is organized into four sections the first two seek to identify from two different angles the ways women of different sociocultural backgrounds are exploring their relationships to their cultures inherited traditions the third section investigates the issue of visibility and the problems and challenges it creates and the fourth section expands on the role of the body as material and performance The collection will breach a once irreconcilable divide between those who theorize about women s writing and those who focus on formalist practice By embracing astonishment as the site of formalist feminist investigation the editors seek to show how form configures feminist thought and likewise how feminist thought informs words and letters on a page Students and scholars of avant garde poetry women s writing and late 20th century American literature will welcome this lively discussion Re-writing the World Deborah Marie Mix,1998 Slaying the Phantom Nancy Gray,1988 Leaving Lines of Gender Ann Vickery,2000 The most significant contribution to the literary history of Language writing to date "Writing the Body" Celia Shiffer,2002 Honey-Mad Women Patricia Yaeger,1988-03-02
