Timeless Devotional Poetry Elizabeth McCallum Marlow, 2020-03-19 This anthology covers thirteen centuries of Christian poetry from the ancient Dream of the Rood to modern poems by T S Eliot and C S Lewis I can think of no one better qualified to assemble an anthology of Christian devotional poetry than Elizabeth Marlow She not only knows this poetry well but has taught it for many years to appreciative students Best of all she loves and serves the Lord to whom the poems in this collection direct the gaze of our souls With this anthology she has given us a tool with which to stir up the embers of our hearts that our love for the triune God might blaze all the brighter I highly recommend this collection Greg Bailey Director of Editorial Crossway Books I am chastened by comments in the preface to this book If we don't read reflect on and enjoy the great wealth of Christian poetry available to us these poetic gems will eventually be consigned to academic libraries and forgotten by the majority of the reading public Apart from reading and singing psalms and hymns I have not been an avid reader of poetry I confess this to my shame and recently I determined to address this appalling shortcoming in my life Elizabeth Marlow's anthology of poetry is the ideal antidote I am excited to recommend this anthology of thirteen centuries of English poetry Just look at the table of contents and your appetite will be whetted So join me in learning to love God better by reading these selections Dr Joseph A Pipa President of Greenville Theological Seminary Professor of Systematic and Homiletical Theology Greenville SC

We live not only by our own thoughts formulated in isolation but also by the ideas and phrases of others that resonate and move us. Amartya Sen, in the foreword, says a poem for cry is a collection of the favourite poems of ninety-one famous Indians from around the globe. The sweep of contributors—politicians, writers, sportspersons, actors, industrialists and musicians—and the range of poems they have selected—some perennial favourites, others not so well known—most in English, a few from Indian languages—make this an eclectic and stimulating collection. The poems are also a reflection of the commitments and priorities of the people who have chosen them. Cry Child Rights and You has always championed the cause of disadvantaged children in India. Avanti Maluste and Sudeep Doshi, inspired by their love for poetry and the need to make a positive difference in the lives of these children, worked for over two years to put this book together. Buying it for yourself or to gift allows you to support Cry and its important work for the underprivileged children of India. Books of 1921-1925 Chicago Public Library, 1927 Books of 1912-, 1922
